British Periodicals
VIZ:
THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW.
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Conservative.)
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal.)
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free-Church.)
AND
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory.)
The American Publishers continue to reprint the above named periodicals but as the cost of printing has doubled, the price of paper nearly trebled and all expenses increased largely increased they are compelled to advance their terms as follows:
TERMS FOR 1865.

For any one of the Reviews	$1.00	per annum.
For any two of the Reviews	7.00	"
For any three of the Reviews	10.00	"
For all four of the Reviews	12.00	"
For Blackwood's Magazine	4.00	"
For Blackwood and one Review	7.00	"
For Blackwood and any two of the Reviews	10.00	"
For Blackwood and three of the Reviews	12.00	"
For Blackwood and the four Reviews	15.00	"

Subscribers in the British Provinces will remit in addition to these prices twenty-four cents a year for Blackwood and eight cents a year for each Review to cover the U. S. Postage.
The works will be printed on a greatly improved quality of paper and while nearly all American Periodicals are either advanced in price or reduced in size—and very generally both—we shall continue to give faithful copies of all the matter contained in the original editions.—Hence, our present prices will be found as cheap, for the amount furnished, as those of any of the competing periodicals in this country.
Compared with the cost of the original editions, which at the present premium on gold would be about $100 a year, our prices ($15) are exceedingly low. Add to this the fact that we make our annual payments to the British Publishers for early sheets and copyright in gold—$1 costing us at this time [Jan., 1865] nearly $2.50 in currency—and we trust that in the scale we have adopted we shall be entirely justified by our subscribers and the reading public
The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on our Civil War, and, though sometimes tinged with prejudice, they may still, considering their great ability and the different stand-points from which they are written, be read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.
The Four Reviews for 1863.
A few copies of the above remain on hand, and will be sold at $5 to the whole four, or $2 for any one.
We also publish the
FARMER'S GUIDE,
By Henry Stephens, of Edinburgh, and the late J. P. Norton, of Yale College. 2 vols. Royal Octavo, 16 0 pages and numerous Engravings.
