Dec. 9 Brig Thistle, McKay, of and from St. Andrews, for Liverpool, was towed into Waterford by H. M. packet Advice; dismasted and to undergo repairs.

The Brig William and Robert, James Turner, master, on the 3rd ult. in lat 49 30, 21 W. from St. Andrews for Galway, experienced a very heavy gale, which caused her to spring a leak, and in eigh hours time she was completely full of water and unmanageable. She then capsized, and broke away the bowsprit, foremast, and mainmast, making a clean sweep of every thing on deck, and leaving nothing standing but the mainmast; she then righted. For five days she remained in that situation, the crew having nothing to eat or drink during that time; two of whom died of starvation. On the sixth day they were discovered by the Brig Persian, of Sunderland, Captain Scott, from Bathurst, who took them from the wreck, and did every thing in his power to alleviate their distress. The Persian was obliged to put into Cork on the 30th ult. being short of provisions with her sails all split to pieces, after a passage of fifty-two days from Bathurst
