SCANDAL AT SPRINGFIELD

Illinois State Senator Brock Indicted by Grand Jury and Placed Under Arrest on Charge of Bribery

ANOTHER SENATOR MAKES CONFESION

Two More Indictments on Conspiracy Charge—Revelations Come Immediately After Denial of Mr. Lorimer

WASHINGTON, May 28.—For two hours today Senator Lorimer stood in the senate, and his own language denounced as outrageous charges of bribery made against connection with his election to the state. Upon leaving the chamber and of his speech, Mr. Lorimer had put his affairs in order and called late afternoon train for Chicago. In his address, Mr. Lorimer emphatically denied the allegations of conspiracy which newspaper charges were making. The speech was devoted to a review of Chicago Tribune charges of the past twenty-five years. He attacked the Tribune with sinister motives, saying that it had been at him ever since 1854. He charged was inspired by hatred because failure to control his course as a man. At the close of his speech, Mr. Lorimer offered a resolution directing an inquiry into the charges and the committee on privileges and immunities. Under the rules of the senate the committee on expenses has the question of cost.

Broderick's indictment was the result of a confession made to the jury by State Senator D. W. Holt of Yuka, Ill., who swears that he paid him $2,500 to vote for Lorimer for senator. A capias was ordered at once against Broderick and a bench warrant issued for his arrest. The unexpected turn of the Lorimer scandal was an offense to the State's Attorney Burke's investigation of alleged graft in a legislative furniture deal. Senator Holtzlaw had indicated on a party charges in connection with the furniture contract, upon the advice of his lawyers, who offered immunity, in agreement to confession. He told the grand jury he had received $2,500 for his vote for Lorimer, $700 as his share of a legislative "jackpot" and a promise of $1,500 as his share of the state furniture deal. Senator Holtzlaw's confession regarding the furniture deal was corroborated before the grand jury by Otto J. Hamilton, who, as agent for the furniture company of Chicago, obtained the furniture contract. The two confessions regarding the furniture deal resulted in two additional indictments on a conspiracy charge. They were State Senator C. S. Fenwick, Republican, of Oakland, and Representative Joe S. Clark, Democrat, of Van Buren.

CASTAWAYS RESCUED

Surveyors Who Tried to Voyage to Stewart to Prince Rupert Wrecked on Island.

PORT SIMPSON, May 28.—T. Agnew and his partner, Prince Rupert surveyors, were rescued yesterday morning by William Hamilton, a young man left Stewart City weeks ago in a gasoline launch boat for Prince Rupert, which was wrecked on one of the Alaskan islands. In the meantime, the men not arriving at Rupert, search launch were started out and among them Hamilton, who picked up the missing men at 3 o'clock in the morning drifting on a raft in the Neah Straits. They were almost dead from hunger and exposure, having lived on mussels and took part of their clothing or used it to fasten the small raft together. Shortly after their arrival here Mr. Hamilton took the sick men on to Rupert.

REFUSES OATH

OTTAWA, May 28.—Considerable comment has been caused in the service by the refusal of an official one of the departments to take the oath of allegiance to King George V. It seems that when the other employees presented themselves this morning for the ceremony, the official refused to go to the room where the clerk of the privy council was administering the oath. He was stopped by the auditor-general, who refused to assign the clerk to the stand that the oath is similar to the coronation oath in its reference to Roman Catholics, which is not all the case.

Mortality Among Cattle

ELKINGTON, May 27.—Veterinary surgeons here are now caring for a disease of cattle which is a species of paralysis due to eating freshly cut grass. Quite a number of cattle have died, and the loss is as high as one thousand dollars worth to the farmers.
