TIPPERARY NOTES.

During the month of October "The Tipperary Club" better known as "The Tipperary Girls" forwarded their second shipment of some fifty parcels to Campbellton boys in the trenches. A great number of these boys have written acknowledging the receipt of parcels. Following are extracts from a half dozen of the letters. All of the boys express the same sentiments.

"Very thankful for parcel contents of which were highly appreciated, as parcels out here are one of the few bright spots we have at the front."

"I really do not know how to thank you enough for your box which I received in excellent condition. It makes one feel better when he knows that he is not forgotten by those at home."

"Many thanks for the 'Tipperary' box which I highly appreciated getting, and every article of which 'hit the mark'."

"I wish to thank you heartily for your most delightful parcel. Its contents were well chosen, every article being what was most needed and desired. It shows that the work we are doing is appreciated and it makes it much easier knowing that the women and girls of Campbellton are thinking of us."

"Last night's mail brought me a parcel from the Tipperary Club, contents in excellent condition, I do not think that people at home can realize just how much we do appreciate such boxes. Kindly express my thanks to the club."

"It is with great pleasure that I acknowledge parcels from the 'Tipperary Club'. It is certainly a treat to receive parcels such as yours. I can send and I am sure that you do not fully realize the good work you are doing." The Tipperary Club will shortly make a shipment of boxes to the Campbellton boys in the 132nd Battalion. Each member of the club has been requested to bring or send in a pair of socks.

OBITUARY.

The silent boatman with his silver oar has again visited our neighborhood and borne away Neil Smith across the narrow sea unto that beautiful shore where all is joy and peace and love and from which no traveller ever returns.

The late Neil Smith was the eldest son of the late Alexander Smith and Elizabeth Adair, born in Campbellton 56 years ago, when a boy he worked on the I. C. R., when building and continued in that employment in the yard and in the round house in different capacities for 35 years being a mechanical genius with an ear and eye of remarkable acuteness he was appointed car inspector and held that position until failing health compelled him to leave the work.

Seventeen years ago he married Margaret Hamilton of Dundee from which union a family, four girls and two boys survive. Although in failing health for a number of years he still went about his work until last August when he contracted a heavy cold and despite of medical skill and the constant attendance of a loving wife and kind friends he passed peacefully away on 28th Feb.

The funeral was largely attended. A very impressive service was conducted by the Rev. Hugh Miller, assisted by Capt. Fullerton of the Salvation Army.

The pall bearers were:—Capt. Fullerton, Thos. McDavitt, James Dewar, Wm. Young, John McDavid and William Woods.

Interment was in the Rural Cemetery.
