Rippling Rhymes

OVER THERE.

Our boys are swarming over there, as fast and thick as blases; at which the kaiser rends his hair and hands out smoky phrases. He thought we were so far away, across such wastes of ocean, we'd never cut a deal of hay, but now he's changed his notion. He understood his submarines would keep our boys from landing, but now he wots and also weens he faked his understanding. He thought the Allies would be whipped, he'd wind up the slaughter before our soldiers could be shipped across the briny water. But now his hopes are gone to smash their wreck is most distressing, and now he sees, through his moustache, how punk was all his guessing. Oh, now our boys are over there, to swat the Huns and bleed 'em, to can the kaiser and his heir, and save the world to freedom. And every day another bunch goes sailing o'er the water, to demonstrate our western punch, and make the tyrant totter. We'll show the Teuts what force can mean, with never stint or limit; We'll earn a glory most serene, and ages cannot dim it. Our boys will put Red Bill on ice, and set his doom bells tolling; and it is ours to rise the price, and keep the ball a-rolling. I have a keg of picayunes, and I won't lightly skim it, but dig the bundle up eftsoons, with never stint or limit.

HIGH CHEESE STANDARD.

By Courier Leased Wire.

Ottawa, June 14.—That a higher standard in the manufacture of Canadian cheese has been attained during recent years is indicated in an analysis made by A. McGill, chief Dominion analyst, and reported to the Inland Revenue Department. Of 166 samples analyzed only six were found to contain less than 45 per cent. milk fat, the minimum percentage allowed in the manufacture of good cheese.

OPIUM RING BROKEN.

By Courier Leased Wire.

Vancouver, June 14.— Seventy-nine tins of opium valued at $9,000 transported in a trunk from Montreal to this city fell into the hands of detectives last evening after they had followed the drug from the depot to a shack where it was received by two Chinamen, who were placed under arrest. The arrests last evening are believed to be important as a means of breaking up the greatest ring of opium dealers in western Canada, who operate as far south as San Francisco.

DAMMING BILL PASSED.

By Courier Leased Wire.

The Hague, June 13.—The first chamber of the Dutch parliament to-day passed without division the bill for damming and draining the Zuyder Zee.

The bill for the draining of the Zuyder Zee was passed by the second chamber last March and now only requires the royal assent to become a law. By the drainage of the Zuyder Zee an enormous tract of land would be added to Holland's acreage. The project has been agitated for several years.
