Away They Go

Our policy is to clear out all broken lines of Boots and Shoes at any price before our sale closes.

Better to sell these goods when people want them and get part of a price than keep them till people don't want them, and let them go to waste on our shelves.

That's not our way.

We keep our stock clean by carving the prices when we want to see goods move quick. That's what we are doing now.

Every pair of Rubber Boots and Long Boots and Felt Goods will go at cost. All our finest American Footwear is now offered at 20 per cent discount.

Try a pair of Geo E. Keith's $5 Shoes at $3 50. We guarantee the latest, up-to-date lasts at this price.

SUSAN B. ANTHONY VERY ILL.

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Susan B Anthony is suffering from an attack of grip. She has not been well since her illness of two months ago, when she was prostrated by overwork. The dinner and reception which were planned in celebration of Miss Anthony's 81st birthday on Feb. 15, will be given up, as it is thought advisable that she should not undergo the strain of meeting so many people. At present no one is allowed to see her.

PALMISTS ROB PATRONS

Chicago Housekeepers Warned of Persons Who Pretend to Read the Future.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Complaints have been received by the police of the operations of a man and woman representing themselves as palmists, who have been victimizing a number of south side housewives. Descriptions of the practitioners of chiromancy are in the hands of the police, and efforts will be made to cut short their career.

The couple have given various names, but travel as man and wife, both going from house to house reading the future of the occupants. While one of them is thus engaged the other walks about, taking anything of value that lies handy.

RIVAL TO BRYAN'S PAPER

The Reasoner Takes Upon Itself the Task of Fighting the Commoner.

New York, Feb. 9.—"The Only National Republication" is the way that the Reasoner, published here as an opponent of Mr. Bryan's Commoner, introduces itself to the public. Fred Tyrrell, of Woodbridge, N.J., is the publisher and Mrs. Grace White the editor.

The leading article takes up most of the front page. It is entitled "The Commoner and Mr. Bryan." Here are a few of its expressions:

"No commoner thing, journalistically considered, ever got past the press to the public than Mr. Bryan's new paper."

"There isn't a new thought in it."

"There isn't an old thought in bright phrase in it."

"There isn't a new subject treated, nor an old subject treated in a new way."

"It isn't even Bryanesque."

The Standard Oil Company and militarism are defended.

CIGARETTE SMOKING BLINDS A BOY.

A Pennsylvania Youth Loses His Sight From Excessive Indulgence in Habit.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 9.—Blindness is the penalty paid by Frank Jefferson, of Upper Roxborough, for disregarding repeated warnings of his physician and relatives, who atempted to prevail upon him to give up the excessive use of cigarettes.

Jefferson, who is 19 years old, contracted the habit of cigarette smoking several years ago, and for the past two years he has been known among his friends as an immoderate smoker, frequently consuming as many as 30 or 40 cigarettes a day. Recently his lungs became affected, but he was unable to abandon the habit. Two days ago Jefferson suddenly became blind. A specialist who examined his eyes attributed the young man's misfortune to cigarette smoking.

Work and Wages.

In 1806 the tailors organized the first labor organization in the United States. In 1819 the hatters organized, the printers in 1831.

A Youngstown, Ohio, dispatch says: The strike of the limestone quarrymen in the eastern part of this county and Western Pennsylvania has been settled, the operators reconsidering their announcement of a reduction of from 20 cents to 17½ cents a ton. Work will be resumed in full. More than 2,000 men were interested.

The conflict between the American Watch Case Company and its striking engravers, is assuming an ugly aspect, says a Toronto dispatch. The men left work because the company refused to dismiss one of their number who persisted in breaking the union rules. That was a month ago. Friday morning, after all other attempts to secure a sett
