BOWLERS ARE GLAD THEY ARE COMING

London Lovers of the Good Old Game Pleased at Visit of English Rinks.

Mr. James Mattinson, secretary of the Western Ontario Lawn Bowling Association, received a letter this morning from the secretary of the Ontario Lawn Bowling Association, containing the announcement that a party of English bowlers will visit Canada this summer, and asking that representatives be named to attend a meeting in Brantford on Thursday, March 15, when the matter of arranging for the entertainment of the visitors will be taken up. Brantford was named for the meeting, as it is considered the most central.

London lawn bowlers—in fact, all Canadian bowlers—will be delighted to learn that the Englishmen are to visit Canada. Several Canadian rinks visited England in 1904, and had a most delightful trip, being royally entertained at numerous cities. Now the Canucks will have an opportunity to return the kindness.

Needless to say, London will be one of the places visited by the Englishmen. The Forest City is the center of a district which contains more bowling clubs than any other section of the Dominion, and what is more, the greens of the London Rowing Club are larger than those to be found elsewhere. The Englishmen can rest assured that they will be well entertained here.

The annual meeting of the London Rowing Club will be held on Friday night, when delegates will be named for the Barnsford meetings.

The W. O. B. A. also has a committee, named at the last annual meeting, to arrange in conjunction with the Ontario association for the entertainment of the English rinks.

LIGHTING CITY BY GAS

Engineer Says It Would Not Cost Over $13,000 a Year.

City Engineer Graydon thinks that the city of London could be properly lighted with gas for about half what it now costs for electric lights.

"We now pay $27,000 a year for 342 lights, which are allowed to be turned off many nights in the year, when we are supposed to have moonlight," he said.

"For half this amount, or about $13,000, I believe, we could have 1,200 gas lamps, and they would be kept burning every night."

The engineer is not any too sure however, that the people of London would be ready to go back to the old lighting system.

REFUSES COMPROMISE

Mr. W. J. Reid to Take Claim Against City to the Courts.

It was stated at the city hall today that Mr. W. J. Reid, whose fence at the east side of Tecumseh Park is alleged to have been seriously damaged, through the construction of the West London breakwater, has decided to cease negotiating with the city, and will issue a writ for $1,000 damages at once.

For several months Mr. Reid has ben negotiating with the city, but every time the board of works came near a settlement the council would refer the matter back to the board for consideration.

Finally it was decided at the last council meeting to offer Mr. Reid $600 in full payment of his claim, but it appears that he will not accept this compromise, and will go to the courts in an endeavor to recover the $1,000, which is the amount of his original claim.

Willing to Pay.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, March 7. — Little progress was made in the usury cases before the magistrate this morning. Eight witnesses were examined, who, strange to say, seemed content to pay 160 per cent interest. The crown attorney intimated that he would not seek any more cases, but would willingly prosecute on behalf of any victims who were ready to testify. One man named Leek who owed a balance of $61 on which he was paying 125 per cent, was ordered by the court to repay the debt at the rate of 30 cents per month, according to which Solomon-like judgment, it will take eighteen years to discharge the debt.

"Interesting, But Untrue."

London, March 7.—"Interesting, but untrue," is the British foreign office's comment on a story published in Paris to the effect that a formal political alliance between Great Britain and Spain will promptly follow King Alfonso's marriage to Princess Ena of Battenberg.

UNEXPECTED DEATH

Mrs. Wm. Wallace Suffered Relapse and Died in Five Hours.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wallace will regret to hear of the death of the latter, which occurred at her home, 4 St. George street, early Tuesday morning. Mrs. Wallace had been confined to the house since the first of the year with a sore knee, and an operation was contemplated. On Wednesday last she was taken with pleurisy and suffered intense pain for a few days, but was so much better on Monday that no immediate danger was thought of. A change for the worse came about 8 o'clock Monday evening, and Mrs Wallace passed away at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mrs. Wallace was a native of London, her maiden name being Mary Sime. She was married twelve years ago to Mr. Wallace, and was very popular with a large circle of friends. She was an esteemed member of the First Congregational Church, and formerly served as secretary of the ladies' missionary society. Mr. Andrew Sime, of Detroit, is a brother of deceased, and is the only surviving member of her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace had but a few months ago moved into a new house which they built for themselves on St. George street. Mrs. Wallace was of a very cheerful disposition and bore her affliction uncomplainingly to the last. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from 4 St. George street, and the service will be held at 2:30, conducted by Rev. D. S. Hamilton, pastor of the First Congregational Church. The ladies aid society of the church have postponed their meeting for this week out of respect to the memory of the deceased.

THE RECENT DOPING

Police Find It a Difficult Matter to Apprehend Guilty Ones.

The local merchant who was doped while on a drunk the other evening is in such a condition physically that he had to go to the hospital this morning. Though not thought to be seriously ill he will necessarily be confined to his bed for a while. His wad of money, $160, has not as yet been located nor has any clue been found of the person who relieved him of it. It is possible, though not very probable, that some friend took charge of his money temporarily, knowing the merchant's condition at the time.

A local temperance man made some inquiries at the police station this morning regarding the cases of doping which have taken place of late. He wanted to know whether the police could not interfere in some way in an effort to stop the practice, and he told of a case two or three weeks ago of a man who was doped and robbed, but who would not hand the police his information because of the publicity which would follow.

One of the police officials stated that undoubtedly considerable doping had been going on, and it certainly would be a serious matter for the offenders if apprehended.

"But it's very difficult to get information in cases like these," said the officer. "You see, usually a man who has been doped and robbed knows practically nothing of his whereabouts at the time. At any rate, his recollection is hazy and he never knows for sure who had been with him. A drunken's man's evidence is not worth a great deal at any time."

"We officers are known all over the city. The only way to get offenders like these is to go and flash a roll of bills, perhaps order some drinks, and act like a greenhorn. Then there is some chance of catching them. But we couldn't attempt anything like that. It's a difficult problem for us."

In answer to a query, Berry formerly the English executioner, states that not one of the 50 persons whom he hanged was a total abstainer.

NEGLIGENT ALEXANDER.

Alex. Elijah, of Oneida, was brought into the county jail this morning to do thirty days. Alexander was appointed pathmaster on the reserve last spring, but he failed to get busy on the King's highway, and also failed to make returns of those who should do statute labor. He appeared before Indian Agent Sutherland yesterday and was fined $1 and costs. He did not pay, so he went down.

BAZAR IN PROGRESS.

Chalmers Church bazar opened in the city hall today. The ladies of the congregation have fitted up the booths and pagodas with admirable taste, and the old hall is now one of the most inviting places in London. Everything, from a needle to an anchor, may be purchased there, and every purchase means a mite added to the good work of building the new church in the south end. The bazar will continue for two days.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM GILES.

The funeral of the late William Giles, of the Hamilton road, took place yesterday afternoon to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The cortege was a very large one, the deceased being one of the most highly respected residents of the township of London. As the funeral procession passed the schoolhouse on the Hamilton road, the scholars, with whom Mr. Giles had been a warm favorite, were drawn up in line, and with uncovered heads waited until the cortege passed.

IS FROM FINLAND.

The Grand Trunk officials at St. Thomas have learned that the woman whose two children died in that city while they were on their way to the Western States, is the wife of a Finlander, and that she is en route to Omaha, to join her husband. Two Londoners went to St. Thomas last night in the hope that they might learn something about the woman, and two more went over this morning. The children will be buried at St. Thomas, and the woman sent on her journey.

COL. PETERS' TARGET.

An Ottawa dispatch says: The merits of the target recently invented by Col. Peters occupied a good deal of the discussion at the meeting of the Ontario Rifle Association at the armories yesterday. The target is an electrical arrangement, self-registry, and indicates the scores as fast as the marksman likes to shoot. Lieut.-Col. Macdonald and Major Mercer, who had inspected the target, were strong in their praises of the invention. The meeting unanimously decided to appoint a committee to investigate the capabilities of the target, and also to extend to Col. Peters the privilege of installing one of his targets on the association's range.

DEATH OF MRS O'NEILL.

The death occurred in this city at an early hour this morning at the family residence, 370 Piccadilly street, of Mrs. Eliza O'Neill, wife of Mr. Jas. O'Neill who up till 7 or 8 years years ago occupied a position at the London Asylum. Mrs. O'Neill had been ill for some time, and gradually became worse until the end came this morning. She was a lady of exceptional qualities and her death, which occurred at the advanced age of 74 years, will be regretted. Besides the husband, Mrs. O'Neill is survived by two sons and two daughters—John D., barrister, and William, of the asylum staff, and Edith and Ettie, the former at home and the latter in Detroit.

AT HOME.

The at home last evening in the Dundas Center Church lecture-room, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Mission Circle, proved to be a most enjoyable affair. The lecture-room was crowded. Miss Reid, the new soprano soloist of the church, was present, and rendered several selections artistically. Miss Jessica Hambly recited, and her numbers were appreciated very much. Mr. Parnell Morris, who possesses a splendid tenor voice, sang, and Mr. W. H. Hewlett, of Hamilton, former organist of the church, gave two very beautiful piano selections. Mr. Hewlett acted as accompanist for the several other artists. Short addresses were delivered by Mrs. Frank White, president of the Mission Circle, and Rev. Mr. Steven, of the China Inland Mission. Rev. E. B. Lanceley, the pastor, presided.

DR. ROSS' LECTURE.

The lecture delivered last evening in Wesley Hall, by Rev. Dr. Ross, of St. Andrew's Church, on "Scottish Life and Manners," was exceedingly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. Dr. Ross depicted in eloquent language the humble homes and "hamely fare" of the sturdy Scotch peasants, passing successfully from grave to gay. The lecture abounded in wit, humor and pathos. After describing the simple life of the peasant, Dr. Ross paid a touching and glowing tribute to his poetic and religious instincts. Especially beautiful was the description of the Scotch mystic at the communion table, and the rendition in native dialect of the 23rd Psalm. Dr. Ross has a vein of humor which holds the attention of his audience throughout. Miss Eller, soloist of the First Methodist Church, and Dr. Allan Blackwell, of the Colborne Street Church, rendered excellent solos. At the conclusion of the lecture Rev. J. W. Graham moved, and Rev. Dr. Teasdall seconded, a vote of thanks to the participants, which was unanimously and heartily carried.

Judge McTavish Outlines Plans of the Insurance Commission.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, March 7. — The first meeting of the insurance commission was held in the courthouse here today. President Judge McTavish and Commissioners Langmuir and Kent, were present. Secretary Ross read an order in council appointing the commission, and Judge McTavish made a statement pointing to the wide scope of the inquiry. The commissioners, he said, appreciated the importance of the inquiry. The inquiry was unique. Counsel was to be retained and the commission would welcome the assistance of counsel on behalf of any interest affected. The secretary had secured an office in Ottawa and would receive any communications addressed to him there. The commissioners wanted a full inquiry, with as much dispatch as possible. The first meeting will be held in Ottawa on March 14. The first work will be to inquire into the laws regarding life insurance and how they are observed.

STOCK MARKETS.

H. C. Becher, stockbroker, next Free Press building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington today:

New York, March 7—Noon.—With few exceptions stocks opened higher than prices closed last night, but the buying was not of an impressive character and the belief was entertained that the strong opening was made with a view to assist liquidation. A sharp reaction quickly ensued, in which Reading was the leader. It was rumored that an investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission had disclosed serious discriminations of the Reading in coal rates. Liquidation was apparent in Copper, and Union Pacific was decidedly heavy. At one time a story was current that Mr. Schwab had died, but it is difficult to see why this story should affect the market, even if it proved to be true. Rates for money were practically the same as yesterday, but some tightening towards the end of the week is looked for unless the banks are strengthened by receipts of currency from the interior. The market is largely in the hands of the professionals, and seems for the time being to be more easily depressed by selling than stimulated by buying. Sales to noon were 424,500 shares.
