Memoranda.

St. John's, Nfld., Star:—The five-masted American schooner Jane Palmer, Capt. C. Thorney, bound to Liverpool with a cargo of deals, ten days from St. John, N. B., was towed into port by the Thetis, which left port on Wednesday to look for her. She sprang a leak shortly after leaving St. John and her condition was reported by wireless. The Jane Palmer is the largest sailing ship that has ever entered this port, her gross tonnage being 3,138, and length 309.6. She was built in Boston in 1904 and is owned by the French and Canadian Steamship Corporation. She is fitted with wireless telegraphy.
