do not intend to again give the speakership of the legislature to Col. Clarke: not that he has not made a good speaker, but that, by otherwise disposing of it, their strength in the house may be increased.

His lordship gave judgment at Osgoode hall yesterday. The judgment was an exhaustive commentary upon the tenets of the new party among the quakers, who, following the discipline of 1880, are in favor of a paid clergy and of several in-novations in worship not authorized by the discipline of 1859, to which the other party in the Society of Friends adheres. The contest is over the meeting house at West-lake, Prince Edward county, from which the plaintiffs, representing the party of progress, have been excluded by the defendants. The judgment was in favor of the defendants, holding that the plaintiffs are not orthodox members of the Quakers' society, and therefore not entitled to the society, however in constitution which was meeting house in question, which was deeded in 1881 to the trustees of the Westlake monthly meeting of Friends. These two parties exist in nearly every Quakers' meeting in Ontario, and the judgment is therefore of great importance to the whole society.

whom was associated Mr. Neville, argued that the occasion was not a privileged one, and that it was not necessary to prove malice. Christopher Robinson, Q. C., moved for a non-suit, but the court ruled to the contrary, holding that an innuendo had been expressed by defendant, but leaving it to the jury to draw the inference. Counsel on both sides then held a consultation, and on the strength of his lordship's decision agreed to a verdict being consultation, and on the strength of his lordship's decision agreed to a verdict being entered for defendant, subject to argument on the points of law raised. The case of Dr. Lennox against Dr. Bray of St. Thomas will be governed by the above.

GRATEFUL-COMFORTING BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may seve us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradully built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keoping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
