AN INCREASE OF CAPITAL.

THE TORONTO BASEBALL ASSOCIATION TO DOUBLE ITS STOCK.

Curling at Moss Park for a Caledonian Cup—Trotting at Collingwood—Hanlan's Much-Postponed Ice Boat Race.

The Toronto Baseball association gives notice that a special general meeting will be held at the Rossin house on Friday, March 19, at 8 p.m., for the purpose of considering a resolution adopted by the directors on Wednesday last to increase the capital stock of the association from $5000 to $10,000. It is stated that fully half the increase has already been subscribed and within a day or two it is fully expected the balance will be taken up. The directors have adopted elaborate plans for the erection of stands on the club's new grounds, and on Monday next will advertise for tenders. They are determined to leave no stone unturned to make the grounds the most convenient and comfortable on the continent. It is probable a cinder path will be laid and other steps be taken for the encouragement of athletic and outdoor sports generally.

The Caledonian Society Cup.

The Caledonian and Moss Park Curling clubs played their first match for the above trophy, five rinks aside, the Moss Park being the winners by 17 points.

Baseball Items.

From the Philadelphia Sporting Life.

The Oswego correspondent writes: "Oswego people are very much pleased with the new International league. Being a lake city there has always been considerable commercial rivalry with Toronto and other Canadian cities. The Kanucks may be sure of a warm reception and large audiences when they visit Oswego. I think Toronto and Hamilton have strong representative teams, and will make the state clubs hustle when they meet them. Humphries wants that pennant very bad, and he is going to make a violent effort to get it."

Syracuse correspondence: "By a unanimous vote Toronto and Hamilton have at last been admitted to membership in the State league. This action will, without doubt, be beneficial to the Syracuse club, for the reason that in pitting the Torontos against the home team it will virtually amount to the Stars of '85 v. the Stars of '86, and people may look for some great ball playing. Toronto and Hamilton have strong teams, and will make a desperate effort to get a good lead early in the race."

Utica correspondence: "Utica, and in fact all of the State league clubs, are glad that Toronto and Hamilton have been admitted to membership in the State league. The two latter places are good ball towns, and will add new interest to the game in the State league. Buffalo will be a good acquisition to the league. All the State league clubs have consented to admit the Kanucks, and everything will work harmoniously."

Rochester correspondence: "The agony of forming an International league is over, and Rochester comes out of the contest with flying colors, having carried its point and accomplished the best thing for the interest of baseball which could possibly have been done. President Winne and Manager Bancroft, of the home club, have labored hard to perfect an organization of an international character, and we can assure Hamilton and Toronto representatives that they will be cordially welcomed in the Flower City.

"President Winne and Manager Bancroft favor making one, if not every day of the week ladies' days, admitting ladies free to the grounds, and charging them only for seats in the grand stand."

Macon, Ga., correspondence: "Everybody wants to see 'Peek-a-Boo' Veach in the box for us again." Veach is the Toronto pitcher.

General Notes.

James A. Ten Eyck writes to Edward Hanlan that he is ready to row Joseph Laing of Montreal a three-mile race for $500 a side.

Manager Chapman, of the Buffalos, announces that he has signed Holsberger, pitcher of last season's Binghamtons. He will bother the Torontos.—Syracuse Standard.

Mr. Sleeman claims to have signed J. A. Thyne. Most singularly to relate, a player of exactly the same name has signed with Charleston in the Southern league.

Charley Wenman of this city has bought from T. Hertop of St. Thomas the bay gelding Corkfoot Tom, winner of the 2.45 and 3 min. races at Hamilton this week. Consideration said to be $450.

A largely attended meeting of the Alert Baseball club was held last evening for reorganization. The following officers were elected: President, M. D. Whelan; vice president, A. Phyphers; secretary and treasurer, J. Hyrne; representative, M. D. Whelan. The next meeting will be held on Friday, March 12, at 391 Sydenham street.

Hanlan has authorized the publication of a reply to the double sculling challenge of Ross and Plaisted. He says if Joseph Laing of Montreal will row with him he will gladly make a match for a three-mile race on any suitable dead water course for $1000 or $500 a side. He is also prepared to row any two men in the world with George W. Lee as a partner.

The long-postponed iceboat race between Capt. Kemp's Oriole and Edward Hanlan's Sydney for five barrels of flour to be given to a charitable institution will take place this afternoon, starting at 3 o'clock. Messrs. Schroder (manager of the Mikado Opera company) and O. B. Sheppard will enjoy the race on the Oriole, while Mr. N. Roth (treasurer of the Mikado company) will sail with Hanlan.

At a meeting of the Brantford Baseball club on Tuesday night the following officers were elected: President, Mr. H. K. Blackwood; vice-president, Mr. James Duncan; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Geo. Sleeman, jr.; manager, Mr. P. G. Walsh. Communications were read from Dundas advocating the formation of a league composed of teams from Dundas, Galt, Brantford, Clippers of Toronto and one Hamilton club; also from Stratford, suggesting the forming of a league from Brantford, Woodstock, St. Thomas and Stratford teams.

The Atlantic Street railway company presented the Gate City club with a check for a sufficient amount to cover the expenses of improving and enlarging the grounds. The railway company also agreed to pay the club $25 for each game played on the grounds. This was done in order to keep the park on the street car line. It seems in order to ask what the Toronto Street railway company is doing to encourage baseball, or any other game in Toronto that materially helps to increase its receipts.

The American baseball association met at Louisville on Wednesday and made out a schedule of games for the season. The pitcher's box was lengthened one foot toward second base. The fourth column of the score shall be a record of bases stolen and shall include every base made by a player except by a battery error or by the aid of batting assists, base on balls, balks or players being hit by a pitcher. The batter's box is changed from a square of three by six feet to a square of four by six feet, precisely as in the league, while the square is removed six inches from the home plate, instead of twelve inches as formerly. The number of strike-outs made by a pitcher is no longer to be included in the general summary.

Mr. J. E. K. Studd, who is now holding evangelistic services in the University Y. M. C. A. building, is one of four brothers, three of whom were together on the Cambridge cricket eleven in 1863. While taking a foremost part in every branch of athletics, they were in the habit of conducting prayer meetings in their own rooms, preaching out of doors on Sunday and teaching in the Sunday school. The second brother, Mr. C. T. Studd, considered the best all-round cricketer in England, lately gave himself and a fortune of $250,000 to the China mission. Before his leaving England mission services were held and 40 students induced to join him in this noble work.

Herr A. Moser and another gentleman from Vienna, Austria, were in Hamilton yesterday with Mr. Chas. Lowell, the well-known horseman of Galt. They looked at the races and talked to Peter Curran, who formerly handled St. Patrick, and who is one of the most capable drivers in the country. They saw Peter drive George B. in the fine heat with Rifleman, and made a proposition to him to go to Austria as a driver for Prince Schmidt, whose stable of trotters is the best in Europe, and who already has the great two-miler Amber, Frances Alexander, Zoe B., Amelia C., and other fast trotters picked up in America, in charge of Dan. McPhee, likewise a Canadian. The Austrians left for Galt last evening, and Mr. Curran has not yet given a decided answer. Another object of their visit is to buy the great mare Phyllis, the fastest Canadian-bred trotter.—Hamilton Times, March 4.

Ladies' Work Depository.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Work Depository of 12 King street west, was held yesterday afternoon in Shaftesbury hall parlor. Mayor Howland presided, and there were present the Bishop of Toronto, Goldwin Smith, G. A. Meredith, W. B. McMurrich, F. Arnoldi, and a large number of ladies. The report stated that the depository had not been patronized as liberally as it might have been, the consequence being that it was not self-sustaining. On motion of the Bishop of Toronto, it was decided to change the institution from a corporate to a charitable one, to be known henceforth as the Ontario Depository for ladies. The gentlemen made short addresses, commending the object of the depository, which is to provide remunerative employment for ladies in need. These officers were elected:—President, Mrs. W. B. McMurrich; 1st vice, Mrs. W. Hamilton Merritt; 2nd vice, Mrs. N. Miller; secretary, Mrs. Farquier; Treas., Mrs. Frank Arnoldi. Committee of management—Mrs. Gzowski, Mrs. Mulock, Mrs. Goldwin Smith, Miss Macdonald, Miss Crooks, Mrs. Gawthra, Mrs. John Kay, Mrs. J. S. McMurray, Mrs. Lockhart Gordon, Mrs. Robt. Bethune, Mrs. W. H. Howland, Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Scobie, Mrs. Camer on, Mrs. John Riordan, Mrs. Lawlor, Mrs. Beardmore, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. O. Macklem, Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Townsend.

Talk of an Assistant City Solicitor.

A special committee of the city council yesterday discussed what appears to be a rather ticklish question, namely, the appointment of an assistant city solicitor. There were present Ald. Defoe (in the chair), Hall, James, Pepler and Frankland. Ald. Hall stated the case in unmistakable terms. If anything were to happen to City Solicitor McWilliams there was no one who would be able to go on with his work without serious delay. It was absolutely necessary that there should be employed a young, energetic and efficient legal assistant who would look after all office work while Mr. McWilliams was engaged elsewhere. The expenses incurred for assistance to Mr. McWilliams were considerable. In 1885 for general law expenses, retaining and solicitors' fees there had been expended $6335. Ald. Pepler, Defoe and James were appointed a sub-committee to interview Mr. McWilliams.

The Kingston Road Tramway.

The works sub-committee on the Kingston Road Tramway company question met yesterday. Present were Ald. Turner (chairman), Carlyle (St. Thomas), Allen and Jones. John Leys, solicitor for the company, said that the tramway had built up the quarter through which it ran, and now when it was beginning to pay it was proposed to disfranchise it by obliging the Street railway company to run their tracks over the Don. The company should be compensated. On motion of Ald. Jones it was resolved to recommend that the city solicitor, in conjunction with the solicitor of the Tramway company, be authorized to draft a clause leaving to arbitration any claim the company might have against the city in the event of that company abandoning their tracks within the city limits.

Baptist Church Notes.

Hiram A. Calvin of Garden Island has contributed $1000 to the Woodstock college building fund. Architects are now at work upon the plans for a new building, which will cost when finished and heated and furnished something like $15,000.

There were eleven immersions in the city Baptist churches Sunday last.

Rev. O. C. Carey has resigned the pastorate of the Stayner church, and accepted that of Dutton.

Ministering Children's League.

This is the name of a society recently started in Toronto. "Its object is to influence children in their home life, teach them to watch each day for an opportunity to do a 'kind deed,' and to become more like the Holy Child Jesus." About eighty children have been enrolled as members from the parishes of St. George's, St. Luke's, St. Anne's, All Saints' and Holy Trinity. Local secretaries have been appointed in several other parishes, from whom no returns have yet been received.

A Boudoir on Wheels.

A new Pullman car, the Salerno, arrived in Toronto yesterday over the Grand Trunk from Montreal. The car is entirely lined with plush and is a perfect boudoir on wheels. It has ten berths of dimensions rather larger than the ordinary sleeper. The car is fitted with a buffett, refreshment and smoking room, and has every possible convenience. The Salerno will run regularly between Toronto and Montreal.

A Lesson to a Specialist.

In the county court yesterday, in the case of Dr. McCully of the Jarvis street pulmonary concern v. Mr. John Calder of Hamilton, merchant, for $186 for alleged services rendered, the jury brought in a verdict for the defendant, costs to go with the cause. Mr. Calder had paid into court the amount he considered Dr. McCully's services worth and the jury upheld him in his estimate.

Green Tea and Black.

From the Pall Mall Gazette.

The principal market for green tea is the United States. Having fallen rather into disrepute in the Old World, it has established itself in the New World, where it is largely consumed and known as "tea" simply in contradistinction to "English breakfast tea," "China tea," or "Oolong," by which names the black teas are designated. The reason for its popularity is no doubt in a great measure due to the intercourse with Japan, where green tea alone is manufactured, and which every year sends enormous cargoes across the Pacific. In the making of tea, as in everything which these curious people do, the Japanese have a way of their own. It would startle an Assam planter to see them in picking time squatting down before the trees and stripping the branches of the leaves, instead of scientifically selecting only the young, undeveloped leaf, the first leaf below that, and half the second, from which would be evolved respectively, "Broken Tips" or "Orange Pekoe," "Pekoe," and "Souchong." Any one accustomed to the elaborate machines for "rolling" and "firing" the leaves which are in use on European plantations might be amused at the Japanese method, where the workers roll and squeeze and twist the leaves in their hands on a parchment stretched over a charcoal fire. Very fine teas are, nevertheless, manufactured by the Japanese, and in the celebrated district of Uji rumor tells of tea worth $16 per pound, though it is not definitely stated whether that price has evrr actually been paid for it. Moreover, in the case of teas intended for export only so much work is done upon them as will enable them to be sent to the "tea-firing godowns" of Yokohama, where they are worked up for the market before being shipped.

As is now well known, the difference between green tea and black lies in the fact that in the former fermentation has been arrested by "firing," the color of the leaf being in this way partially preserved and fixed; with the latter, by a much longer process, fermentation up to a certain point is permitted, and the leaves are not "fired" until they have become oxidized by exposure to the air. In Japan the leaves, after being picked and "withered" by a short exposure, are fired in the way described above sufficiently to stop fermentation, and in this partially cured state are sent to the European tea merchants, by whom they are again "fired." In the "godowns" of Yokohama hundreds of women can be seen at work turning the leaves over and over and round and round in large basins built over a charcoal fire. The coloring or "painting" is also done at this period by means of a spoonful of indigo and powdered soapstone put into each basin, and thus disseminated through its contents. But in Japan tea is not grown for export only, but is the chief article of home consumption; and these domestic teas as procured in the country are probably the only samples of unadulterated green tea which Europeans are likely to meet with. They produce a beverage which is refreshing, quite harmless, and which, notwithstanding the way in which it is prepared, can, after only a short residence in the country, be readily distinguished from hot water.

Surrey's Motive for His Riot.

From the Pall Mall Gazette.

Apropos of the recent riots at the West End and the consequent threatened prosecutions it may be interesting to recall the fact that the famous Earl of Surrey was once accused before the privy council of rioting in London streets and breaking windows with a crossbow. His d fence (which may be seen in G. F. Nott's "Works of Wyatt and Surrey," p. 53,) was a singularly ingenious one, and may furnish a hint to the socialist leaders if they are put on their trial. "My motive," he said, "was a religious one, though I confess it lies open to misconstruction. It grieved me, my lords, to see the licentious manners of the citizens of London. Was I to suffer these unhappy men to perish without warning? Common charity forbade. I therefore went at midnight through the streets and shot from my crossbow at their windows, that the stones passing noiseless through the air, and breaking in upon their guilty secrecy, might remind them of the suddenness of the punishment which the Scriptures tell us Divine justice will inflict on impenitent sinners, and so lead them to a reformation of manners."

An Extraordinary Escape.

LONDON, Ont., March 4.—This morning while a farmer was hauling a heavy load of cordwood over a crossing on the Sarnia branch, about two miles from Strathroy, the sleigh became stuck, and as No. 52 express was approaching he unhitched his team and left the load. The express was running at a rapid rate, and before it could be stopped the locomotive dashed into the obstruction, the result being that the steam chest, pilot, headlight and front of the engine were badly damaged. However the train did not leave the rails, and although the passengers were considerably shaken up no one was injured.

Unnecessary Use of Firearms.

LONDON, Ont., March 4.—Detective Brown was tried before Judge Elliot this morning on a charge of feloniously shooting at Robert Donnelly while attempting to arrest him. The evidence showed that while Brown had fired in the direction of Donnelly he did not try to hit, but to frighten him, and the judge, while deprecating the use of dangerous weapons by officers, unless under very exceptional circumstances, held that Brown not having tried to shoot Donnelly was not guilty of an offence. He warned him, however, not to repeat the act when making future arrests.

Monks Indicted for Manslaughter.

LONDON, Ont., March 4. — William Monks appeared before Squire J. B. Smyth this morning, charged with feloniously shooting and killing Wm. Shrimpton. Evidence similar to that taken at the coroner's inquest was heard, and then the magistrate decided to send Monks for trial on a charge of manslaughter. He was admitted to bail; himself in $1000, and two sureties of $500 each.

A Methodist Church Burnt.

PALMERSTON, Ont., March 4.—The Methodist church here was burnt down to-day. Loss $3500; small insurance. Fire caught in the vestry.

—It's a positive fact, Green gives better board, better accommodation, more style and attention than any other boarding house in the city of Toronto for $2.25 per week. Everything around 106 Shuter street is in perfect order, and during this month, March, the proprietors are giving board for $2.25 per week, to equal the best hotel fare in the city. Of course it's quantity only that pays, and the extra quantity of people must come. The alterations, which will cost nearly 5000 dollars, will shortly be started, in fact specifications and contracts for alterations are now being filled. The 18th of March is the anniversary day of starting this business, and the proprietor gives a large summer to all his guests at 10 o'clock. Friends welcome on this occasion.

For the Colonial Exhibition.

—J. W. Cheesworth, 106 King street west, is showing some very fine specimens of garments, made from Canadian manufactured goods, which he intends exhibiting at the Colonial exhibition, and begs to extend a cordial invitation to anyone desirous of seeing the same to call on Friday and Saturday, 5th and 6th inst. x

Take Your Prescriptions There.

—An accident or mistake cannot by any means occur at Lonsbitre's pharmacy, 256 Queen street west, opposite the fire hall, for the reason that the dispensing department is always under competent supervision and a strict system is employed under which the occurrence of the least error is an impossibility. No connection with any other drug store in this city. 15x

Is That a Fact?

Yes it is. I was talking with a lady friend the other day, and she was delighted. "I, Pittman & Co. going into the millinery business," said she, "well I am pleased for they are so obliging, keep such beautiful goods and have such a lovely store that it is a pleasure to go shopping there." The address is 213 Yonge street, and the World says GO! 135x

Toronto's Elevated Railway.

—Arrangements are being made to push the elevated railway question. Quite a number of contractors from over the border have already put in an appearance, and they all declare it a good scheme to buy their watches, diamonds, and fine gold jewelry from Geo. J. Bray, 55 & 57 Yonge street, upstairs. It will pay you to get quotations from him before purchasing elsewhere. 356

—R. J. Licence & Co., wholesale and retail dealers in picture frames, mats, room mouldings, &c., &c., have opened out a new establishment at the south east corner of Bay and Adelaide streets, and are now fully prepared to supply all comers. The firm make a specialty of the above articles, and are second to none in regard to quality, price, &c. x

Crown Brand Hams and Bacon.

—Mara & Co., 280 Queen street west, have in stock Lawry & Co.'s celebrated crown brands of sugar-cured hams, roll and breakfast bacon. They are the finest in the Dominion. edx

—Thompson's Pile and Costive Cure cures in every case. xtf
