Lordon, June 25.—A private meeting of conservative members of parliament was held to day. The presence of several conservatives from Ulster, Ireland, is regarded as an indication that the differences recently existing between the English and Irish conservatives have been adjusted. Lord Salisbury explained his reasons for taking office, and said he had already taken counsel concerning the course to adopt for the immediate future. His lordship referring to the political situation said he release that at limor ous policy would be unwise, if not fatal. He reckoned upon the united support of his party. Sir Stafford Northcote expressed entire concurrence with the Marquis of Salisbury in the line of action taken and proposed for the future. The proceedings were humorous throughout. The meeting unanimously approved of the action taken by the Marquis of Salisbury. It was thought however that the liberals ought to have given more definite assurances.

LIMA, June 25.—The steamship Puno arrived with fifty three survivors from the wreck of the steamer Italia. There are seventy persons missing and as far as known only eight passengers were saved while only one of the crew was lost. The greatest confusion ensued immediately after the vessel struck. The shock strained the vessel struck. The shock strained the vessel so that the doors of cabins could not be opened, thus imprisoning the passengers. The captain was not on deck at the time of the accident, which was due to a wrong order given by the third officer. The latter has since committed suicide. Great credit is bestowed on the heroic offorts of the purser to save passengers, he with a boat being finally aswamped when the steamer sank.

The suffering of the French in Tonquin. PARIS, June 25.—Accounts received from Tonquin show that the ravages of disease among the French troops there are appalling. Three thousand invalided soldiers have been sent home. Three hundred soldiers are down with disease and await transportation. The deaths among the troops are from fifteen to twenty daily.

The French ambassador at London has already sounded the marquis upon the course the British government will take in Egypt. The Republique Francaise and Voltaire admit the existence of divisions in the republican party. They advise that no program should be issued, and urge that all efforts be now confined to strengthening the republic itself.

So r Henry Drummond-Wolff is instructed to rejort on the state of the administration and condition of Egypt. Lord Randolph Churchill, who is known to be in favor of the removal of Tewfick Pasha, incited the mission. It is reported that Lord Salisbury at an interview with M. Waddington explained that the mission is intended to facilitate a settlement of the Egyptian question, and that he would be unable without a report, independent of the papers left by the late department, to state the course of conservative policy.

DUBLIN, June 25—At the Irish Artisans' exhibition yesterday the nationalists hissed and gave other tokens of disrespect during the singing of the national anthem. The committee decided to expunge the anthem in future. There are great rejoicings here and in Newry over the appointment of Dr. Walsh as Archbishop of Dublin.

instructor to the city schools, then put the drill companies through their facings for about an hour, after which a recess was taken till 2 o'clook. Now appeared one of the tew mistakes of the day. No adequate provision had been made for the gastronomical requirements of the children. Water could be got nowhere on the grounds except at a tap which was accessible only to a favored few. Refreshments in the shape of pop and indigestible cake were dispensed at fabulous prices at a booth at the north end of the field. Why not have given the children a free feed on oranges and good buns, as is done at so many Sunday school picnics with evident satisfaction to all? At the conclusion of the review the school trustees were photographed. Chairman Roden, attired in a broadcloth coat, white vest and lavender tie, taking his stand in the centre with an "I'm here, and don't you forget it" expression of countenance. The photograph was a complete success.

In the afternoon a drill competition for the Boswell banner, between one company each from the Wellesley, Ryerson and Dufferin schools, took place, and resulted in a victory for the Wellesley school company under Captain Knowlton. Simultaneously with the drilling a calisthenic competition was going on at the other end of the field. The gallant customs officials at this port are paralyzed over a recent innovation in commercial circles. Handsome young ladies now represent two prominent importing firms, and transact the intricate business of passing entries at the custom house. This innovation, if it becomes general, is likely to lead to the long room becoming the headquarters of firtation, as the place is filled daily with eligible young business men and clerks.
