The Truth.

The lady of the house was very softhearted, and the tramp who had ventured to beg at the front door congratulated himself on his "soft touch." "My poor man," said the lady, noticing the tramp's woebegone face, "here is a quarter for you. Dear me, you must have had many trials!"

"Yes, mum," replied the tramp. "I have. And a heap of convictions, too!" —Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

CANADA IMPROVES BALANCE OF TRADE

Best Customer of the United States for August — Exports Grow.

Washington, Oct. 14—Canada tops the list of countries in trade with the United States during August, statistics issued by the Department of Trade and Commerce disclose.

The United States sold more goods to Canada than to any other country and also bought more goods from the Dominion during the month. Canada ordinarily is second only to Great Britain in the volume of trade with this country. During August, however, both exports and imports from the Dominion were a million dollars above those of the old country. The figures are:—

Canada: Exports, $56,000,000, against $68,000,000 in August, 1921; imports, $82,000,000, against $24,000,000 in August, 1921.

Great Britain: Exports, $55,000,000 against $85,000,000 in August, 1921; imports, $31,000,000, against $16,000,000 in August, 1921.

It will be noted that these figures reflect Canada's improved trade position as regards this country. While the value of the goods which the United States sold the Dominion dropped $12,000,000, as against the corresponding month of last year, Canada increased her sales to the United States by $8,000,000 over the sales of August, 1921.

Third place in the list is held by Germany with these figures: Exports, $26,000,000, against $15,000,000 in 1921; imports, $11,000,000, against $7,000,000.

Exports to France were $18,000,00 against $15,000,000 last year, and imports from France were $13,000,000 against $11,000,000.

The figures show that the total export trade of the United States with Europe suffered a marked decline during the month, dropping to $155,000,000, as compared with $206,000,000 in August, 1921. The value of goods imported from Europe jumped upward, the total being $85,000,000 against $59,000,000 the same month last year.

The rush of importers to bring goods into the country before the final enactment of the United States tariff legislation accounts to some degree for the increase in both the Canadian and European imports totals.

WOMAN'S PERIOD OF BEAUTY

(Toronto Globe.)

—Heroines are older nowadays. Perhaps it is woman's entrance into business and public life that has made the change. At any rate, the bud of 17 or 19 has not the place in literature or art that she once had. Apparently the observing interpreters are paying more attention to what is behind the face than to surface indications.

A composite opinion of 17 authorities consulted on the subject by the New York Times fixes 32 years as the age at which woman reaches the top notch of the beauty scale. Several of those consulted denied that beauty existed at all in a woman under 25. A majority voted that the highest beauty of expression did not come until several years after. Morris Gest and D. W. Griffith held that women did not achieve their greatest beauty until they were 40 or over.

Fifteen or 20 years ago the heroines of love stories were 18 or 20 years old, suggesting a comtemporary public view that this was the most interesting time of life in woman. A canvass of the recent novels shows that the average heroine today is 28 years old. Sir Walter Scott's heroines unsually were 15 or 16. Dickens often robbed the nurseries for romantic feminine types. But today Hergesheimer chooses a woman a year or two past 40 to be the temptress of his elderly respectable hero. According to Balzac, a woman should be at her best at 28. With Juliet irresistible at 14, and Cleopatra winning her greatest triumph after 50, Shakespeare is neutral between extreme youth and and maturity.

Morris Gest, theatrical producer, said he could not think of young women at 20 or 30 as anything except pretty things. "Beauty," he said, requires that the life, soul and personality shall shine through the face. A woman beautiful at 40 in his way will not wilt, but will become more and more beautiful." D. W. Griffith, film producer, considered the most beautiful woman he ever saw was probably Queen Alexandra, who was well on toward 70 when he was presented to her. "She had been receiving people all day, and yet she met each newcomer as if he were the most interesting person in the world."

"Considering only our Northern races," said Sir Gilbert Parker, "I would say that women usually arrive at their greatest beauty at 30 to 35. Women do not come to their full development of the body, brain and temperament until that time. It is the combination of those things that makes the greatest beauty. Those who have it may be beautiful for many years thereafter."

D'ANNUNZIO'S MEN FIGHT AGAIN

London, Oct. 14—Fighting has broken out between the D'Annunzio legionaries and the Zanella forces in Fiume, says a Rome message to the Central News today.

An Ancona message states that Italian destroyers have been dispatched to prevent departure of Fascisti forces from Zara for Fiume.

IRON, STEEL, METAL AND MACHINERY

In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment in its Oct. 12 issue:

Something like 1,500,000 tons of steel were purchased by American railroads immediately preceding the increase in steel rails from $40 to $43 on Oct. 1. The stipulation is that the rails shall be taken out by July 1, 1923. The fact remains, however, as indicated by advices received from Pittsburgh, that the mills are still going to require orders. At present the problem has to do with shipment, as consumers want more iron than the mills can deliver.

When improvement in transportation comes, with the season of lower consumption, further orders will be required.

There are conspicuous instances of accumulation due to lack of cars. The Carnegie Steel Co. has 100,000 tons of finished and semi-finished steel awaiting shipment. American Sheet and Tin Plate Co. is operating at ten per cent. lower rate owing to shortage of supplies. Many concerns have been compelled to resort to motor trucking. Some apprehension is felt in the prospect of an early winter. In the meantime, products are piling up and costs are being swelled. This must contribute to the price stiffening that is everywhere in evidence. Unfilled tonnages for the past month will show a large increase.

On the present basis steel ingot production is at a rate of 36,000,000 tons a year, of twenty per cent. more than in 1912 and 1913, two of the biggest years before the war, while exports are smaller. Delivery premiums are disappearing, leaving the market at base prices. Already there are predictions as to the extent of declines. Bars, shapes and plates, it is said, will go to $1.75 in the next readjustment. Canadian prices range from $3.25 to $3.40, with the Hamilton mill price at $2.70. Boiler tubes are the latest to register an advance, this time it is $4 per ton, or about five per cent. on present prices. Steel hoops have also advanced slightly.

Pig iron prices, it is predicted, are due for an early decline. The prevailing spot figure for domestic pig is $39.30, which cannot compete with quotations of $36.50 and $37.75 for English and Scotch pig, in cars, at Galt, Guelph and Brantford. There is not a large quantity of import iron available, and it is likely that, with the close of St. Lawrence navigation, it may cease to be a factor on the market.

Dealers report that sales records show a falling off in small orders, but an increase in large tonnages. There is still a good demand for structural steel, but deliveries are a serious handicap. No cancellations have appeared.
