From that time until her husband's death she made her home here and had many St. John friends who will be grieved to learn of her death. While in New York he united with the Baptist Temple of which church he was a valued member, being of special service in the chair. His musical talent was of no mean order, being an excellent cornetist, besides a pleasing singer. During his illness he showed a true Christian spirit of patience and cheerfulness and those who visited him spoke of help received by his words. His funeral on Tuesday, September 8 was one of the largest ever seen in this place. The Carleton Cadet Band furnished excellent music. The sermon from John x:10, by Rev. L. A. Fenwick, B. A., was feeling and appropriate. Rev. Thomas Pierce also assisted in the service. Burial took place in the Wicklow cemetery. This is the first break in the family circle.

Bloomfield Residence Destroyed by Fire.

Hampton, N. B., Sept. 16 (Special).—Yesterday afternon fire totally destroyed the two-story residence of James A. Brayley, at Bloomfield, together with adjoining outbuildings. The house was new and was occupied by Mr. Brayley's family and that of his son, Herman. Both men were at Hampton Station all morning, and while driving home saw the smoke and flames and hastened homeward but arrived too late to do more than protect the barn and stables, and to prevent the fire running in the fences and through the grass. The embers were carried by the wind to the roof of McLean's house, the nearest neighbor, and a hole burned through but with no further damage. The Brayleys saved a portion of their furniture, but lost a valuable separator and other dairy material. The house was insured in the Western Insurance Company for $500; another policy was for $300 in one of William Thomson's offices and $150 on the household effects. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a spark from the kitchen flue setting fire to the pig pen and it spread to the buildings before it was noticed by the inmates. The water from the well was expended. Fortunately the wind carried the flames away from the barns and stables, or the loss would have been much greater.
