The bridge is on what is known as the Mines road and had been in bad condition for some time prior to its collapse last summer. A resident of Caledonia in speaking of the matter, charged those in authority with great neglect and said he and the commissioner had been trying for a long time to get something done and have the bridge rebuilt or replaced, but so far promises had been about the only results. The cost, it is said, would not be great and a safe crossing would be a great convenience to the public. The resident referred to was very indignant at the way the district had been used.

It gives tone and strength to the bronchial system, and helps nature to throw off the complaint. As it contains no dope, it may be taken freely during attacks. Prices 30 cents and 60 cents, from druggists and stores throughout Canada.

ONE CASE FINISHED IN DIVORCE COURT

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 24—The divorce court adjourned this afternoon until Nov. 15. At that time the court will meet in St. John when evidence will be heard in the case of Carr vs. Carr.

The case of Pickle vs. Pickle was completed today. Judgment will be given later.

Judge Crocket, who succeeds Chief Justice McKeown as divorce court judge, presided over the court this morning for the first time. Two new cases were entered for trial.

In the case of Lily May Carr vs. William S. Carr, Francis Kerr appeared as proctor for the plaintiff. The evidence of the defendant's mother was taken by commission, but the case was stood over.

In the case of Ira S. Pickle vs. Greta Z. Pickle, Francis Kerr filed the record.

In Danford Purdy vs. Zella J. Purdy, W. D. Turner appears as proctor for the plaintiff. This case goes over until the February term.

At the opening of the court this morning Francis A. Kerr, of St. John, on behalf of the bar, made a fitting reference to Judge Crocket's appointment as judge of the divorce court. He referred to his honor's excellent record since his elevation to the supreme court bench and spoke of the confidence members of the bar had placed in him.

Justice Crocket made an appropriate reply, thanking Mr. Kerr for his kind words and expressing the hope that he would be able to discharge the duties of the position to the satisfaction of all.

NO BUSINESS BEFORE ALBERT CIRCUIT; SESSION LASTED FEW MINUTES

Hopewell Hill, Oct. 24—The October session of the Albert county court opened at the shiretown this morning, Judge Jonah presiding. As there was no matter to come up for consideration the court adjourned sine die.

After the formal ceremonies which occupied but a few moments Sheriff Carter took the judge to Hillsboro in his automobile at the close of court.

M. B. Dixon and A. W. Bray were the only members of the bar present.
