part of the broad Atlantic—and we can hardly pose that the Halifax editor will place that un- unate event to the "dangerous navigation of Bay of Fundy."

Central Madras School.—The public semi-annual mination of these excellent seminaries—one for boys, the other for girls—took place this ning, pursuant to notice. There was a very attendance of pupils in each of them, and both ved themselves, to the satisfaction of the visitors, very flourishing condition.

BEAN' FAMILY MAGAZINE for the year 1845.— ound Volume.—This is a Monthly Miscellany of ful Knowledge, embellished with Engravings, I has met with great favour and unprecedented rounge in the United States. To introduce it o the Provinces, Mr. J. T. SMITH, of this city, been appointed General Agent, to receive sub- iptions and to supply it to the public here at w York prices. The first volume has received approbation of the Press, and is free from both tarianism and politics—two desirable omissions an American publication that we seldom witness. "Of this work it will be sufficient praise to say, t this far the editor has accomplished all that he omised in his introductory address."—New York ening Tatler

"The original and selected matter is of the most portant kind, consisting of extracts and gleanings m works which are too ponderous for the young d casual reader. We recommend it to our nds, and would be glad to receive the names of ne of them as subscribers."—Express.

"Mr. Robert Sears, who is well known by his ent valuable publications, has issued a prospec- for a new periodical, to be called Sears' New onthly Family Magazine, devoted to the diffusion useful knowledge, and to be embellished with veral hundred engravings. This publication will pear in monthly parts of 50 large imperial octavo ges. From the well known talents and enter- ize of the Editor, it cannot be doubted that his agazine will be a valuable acquisition to our riodical literature, and worthy of a place in every mily throughout the Union.—Oswego Herald.

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR.

The 8th day of November, 1844.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty
His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT
Lord Steward. Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.
Lord Chamberlain. Sir James Graham, Bart.
Lord Granville Somerset. Mr. Gladstone.
Sir Robert Peel, Bart.

WHEREAS the Lieutenant Governor of Her Majesty's Province of New Brunswick, with e Council and Assembly of the said Province, did, the month of April 1844, pass an Act, which has en transmitted, entitled as follows, viz:

No 1525 An Act further to facilitate the means supplying the City of St. John with Water.

And whereas the said Act has been referred to e Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most onorable Privy Council appointed for the consi- eration of all matters relating to Trade and Fo- eign Plantations, and the said Committee have re- orted as their opinion to Her Majesty, that the id Act should be left to its operation; Her Majes- y was thereupon this day pleased, by and with the dvice of Her Privy Council, to approve the said eport: Wherefore the Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, Her Majesty's Province of New Brunswick, and l other persons whom it may concern are to take otice and govern themselves accordingly.

C. GREVILLE.

MIRAMICHI, Dec. 14

Melancholy Accident.—Yesterday morning a horse nd loaded sled was discovered on the ice, a short istance below the road leading to the Newcastle erry. It was ascertained to belong to an individual ame John Riley, a very worthy man, who has re- ided for some years past in Newcastle. It appears at he was returning from Messrs Cunards grist ill, in Chatham, on the afternoon of Thursday, nt as the tide was high when he reached the ferry ouse, he remained there until some time in the ight, when he left for the purpose of crossing over, is supposed that the horse got into some air hole, nd on Riley's endeavouring to extricate him, he ell in himself, and was drowned, as he has not been eard of since he left the ferry house. The horse was quite dead, having no doubt perished from cold nd exhaustion. Every exertion has been made to ecover the body of the unfortunate man, but it has roved unsuccessful He has left a wife and family.

DIGBY, Nov. 23.—On Tuesday 19th instant, the orner stone of another new Church at Rossway, near Gulliver's Hole, in the Parish of Digby, was aid with religious ceremonies by the Rector, the Rev. Wm. Bullock, assisted by the Rev. William Snyder, the Rev. N. Hill, and the Rev. Edward Nicholl. Although the day was cold and the wind igh, a large concourse from all the neighbouring ountry attended to take part in the services of the ay, and to witness the raising of the Building, with s lofty tower, on the corners of which were dis- layed four beautiful banners presented by the Ladies of Digby, with the motto—Truth. Order, Unity. Peace. In the cavity of the stone were de- posited several coins of the present reign, the last number of the Halifax Times, St. John Chronicle, and The Church—a copy Discourse of the Lord Bishop, and the Rector's sermon, upon the text—"There is hope in their end, saith the Lord, that thy children shall return to their own border."—Jerem. xxxi. 16, 17. This event has evidently awakened great interest among the inhabitants of this destitute part of the parish, and quickened the first love of many a churchman, which had waxed cold by long absence from "their own border"—and the work has commenced with many a prayer that the workmen may be rewarded, and that thou- sands may reap from their labours all the blessings promised to the true sanctuary.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

From the New York Albion.

As usual, we give this document in full, for altho' long and discursive, it conveys much information regarding the state of the country, its resources, and its prospects, besides the general repose of the poli- tical relations of the Republic with foreign powers.

These political relations are the points we usually confine ourselves to, and we have great pleasure in learning that they are in a very satisfactory state.—The tone of the whole document, if we except that which refers to Mexico, is highly pacific; the chief magistrate, indeed, seems to participate in the ar- dent desire entertained by the leading European powers for the preservation of the general tranquil- ity, and to appreciate, as they do, the manifold blessings of peace. In short all that his Excellency has said in reference to Europe is of the most agreeable character, and will, we are quite sure, be fully estimated on the other side of the Atlantic.

The Oregon Question, it appears is undergoing a friendly discussion, and the President anticipates a satisfactory termination of this subject. The questions pending in reference to certain seizures by British cruisers of American vessels, supposed to be engaged in the slave-trade, will, it is hoped, be speedily adjusted. Mr. Tyler, in fact, says that as England has so fully recognised the principle of making compensation in all cases where her officers have exceeded the limits of treaty obligations, or the confines of international law, he has no doubt of an amicable termination of all these cases, and complains only of the delay. Delay, however, is unavoidable in such matters, as it is necessary that the government should inquire into and fully investigate all cases of complaint; and as this must be done at Sierra Leone, St. Helena, and other distant parts of the globe, much time is consumed in accomplishing it. The case of the American vessel 'Jones,' is one in point, as appears from the correspondence which has recently been published in relation to it.

In reference to Texas, the President urges the necessity of annexation with increased energy. He assumes—first, that the people of Texas are desirous of being united to this country; secondly, that the people of the United States have, by the result of the late election, shown that they reciprocate the sentiment; and thirdly, that such being the case, Congress should lose no time in consummating the great object, which he affirms Congress is fully competent to do. But in this question foreign powers have some interest, and a measure of such importance cannot be accomplished without their observation. It is to be hoped that a friendly understanding exists in reference to this matter, and that if any change in the political condition of Texas should take place, it will be done in unison with those powers. Great Britain perhaps feels more solicitude than any other, and she, therefore, will in all probability, take the largest share in any pending negotiations. It is fortunate for both countries that such negotiations are intrusted to a gentleman of such temper and judgment as now represents the court of St James', at Washington.

The revenue of the United States is shown to be in a highly flourishing condition; the treasury has, or will shortly have, a surplus of seven millions of dollars. The trade and general business of the country we know to be good, as it always is when the over state of things prevail in England, so intimately blended are the commercial interests of the two countries. We repeat now what has an hundred times been said in this journal—viz. that the prosperity of one country carries with it the prosperity of the other; and that neither can experience any degree of depression unless the other becomes a sufferer also. Fully indeed, is at its height, when the people of either country rejoice in the disasters of the other.

Upon the whole, the prospect of the country is very cheering. The national coffers are full; the trade, population, and wealth of the nation are augmenting; and plenty abounds throughout the land. The depression lately experienced, is small in extent, and will be limited in duration, because it arises from temporary causes—the elections. Great efforts were made by both parties in the late struggle, and depression is the natural consequence of such excitement, but it will speedily pass away.—The vast resources of the country and the recuperative energies of the people, soon repair any temporary damage of this kind.

We have said that this Message will be well received on the other side of the Atlantic; and it will furthermore, in our opinion, have a beneficial influence in favour of American credit. Every capitalist knows the value of peace; and the pacific sentiments uttered by the President of this Union which we this day record, cannot fail to make a salutary impression on the European mind. Could Pennsylvania—Pennsylvania only—be induced to open her eyes to her own true interest, and take even an initiatory step for paying the interest of her debt, the effect upon American credit throughout Europe would be magical. Capital would immediately rollow into this country, public improvements proceed, and a career of unrivalled prosperity ensue, beyond all former example.

MONTREAL, Dec. 9.

The Ministry carried their Address by a majority of six. Mr. Guillet, a French Canadian, the Member for Champlain, having voted with the Government on this occasion. It is also stated that Colonel Prince would have given his vote in favour of the Administration, had he been in the House.

The result of this debate has been to prove incontestably that the majority of the House place implicit confidence in the Administration; that they have a sufficient working majority, which, considering the respective numbers in the two Parliaments, is not much less in proportion, than Sir Robert Peel's majority in the Imperial Parliament—and that there is no doubt but that this majority will be considerably increased before the close of the Session, when the Opposition, that is those of them who have good heads and sound hearts, shall see that the present Ministry are in earnest in their liberal professions. The tone of the Opposition is evidently much lowered, and it is apparent that their confidence in their leaders is much shaken. We have no doubt but that the straight forward and practical Speech of His Excellency, has, in a great measure, contributed to this—as well as the able exposure by the Ministers and the Members who support them of the gross errors of judgment, and unconstitutional mode of proceeding adopted by the late Ministry.—Cour.

TRIAL OF HISCOX.—Verdict of Manslaughter!—The trial of William Hiscox, (who it will be remembered was in the oyster smuggling schooner whose crew fired upon and killed some parties in a boat who had a warrant to arrest him,) came on in the Supreme Court in Charlotte Town last Thursday week. The prisoner was found guilty of Manslaughter, and sentenced to three years imprisonment with hard labour.—Halifax Morning Post.

Dreadful and Fearful Encounter between an Indian and Four Bears—In the back part of the county of Lunenburg, at a place called Chelsea, an accident happened which is deserving of notice. A party of Indians had encamped there for the purpose of catching moose. Accordingly they prepared a yard and began to call them; but finding the moose rather long in coming, they thought it best to separate, and drive them into the yard. While one of them was in search of the game, he encountered a party of bears, four in number. He succeeded in killing three, but the fourth was too strong and unfortunately killed the poor Indian. When found by his companions who went in search of him, his gun was completely bent over, as is supposed by blows given to the animal, and the poor fellow had grasped his knife in the hope of despatching him. He was considerably mangled.

Shipments of Produce direct to England.—By reference to the shipping list in our last number, it will be seen that a large quantity of Oats have been sent to England this fall from Richmond Bay, by James Yeo, Esq.; and we are happy to be informed by that enterprising individual, that shipments of the above articles, to a large amount, made by him in the spring, to Europe, had been sold at a remunerating price. We are also informed by a gentleman in Charlottetown, who had received a private letter from captain Hooper, of the bark Hartland, that the oats shipped on board that vessel for England, in October last, had also been sold at a very fair price. Should the speculations which have been entered into this fall in the above article, succeed,—both in England, the West Indies, and the United states—which we most heartily hope will be the case—we shall soon be independent of a market in the adjoining provinces—a market, at best, uncertain and precarious.—P. E. Island Islander. December 6.

BERMUDA, Nov. 21.—On Saturday last the Rt. Reverend Dr. Field, Bishop of Newfoundland, was sworn in a member of Her Majesty's Council, and accordingly took his seat at the Council Board. We understand that his Lordship will remain in this portion of his diocese throughout the winter.

Rich Freight.—Arrived on Monday last, Royal Mail Steamer Avon; she left Tampico on the 28th ult., Vera Cruz on the 2d inst., Havana on the 20th and Nassau on the 12th. The Avon has on freight 2,058,084 dollars.

Nov. 4.—New Light House.—The ship John Renwick, with the Cast Iron Light house for Gibb's Hill, arrived at Ireland Island, on Wednesday from London, and on Saturday, proceeded through the Stagg's Channel, drawing at the time 16 feet of water, to Port Royal, near the foot of Gibbs' Hill, ready to discharge. Mr. Grove, the Gentleman who superintended the erection of the Iron Light House, on Morant Point, Jamaica, some two years since has came passenger in the John Renwick, to superintend the erection of this also. The foundation for the building has already been prepared by the Royal Engineer Department, and is we understand, well worth the inspection of the curious.—As soon as the house is landed and removed to the site, its erection will be commenced.—The Light which will be a revolving one, will stand we are informed, at an elevation of 375 feet above the level of the sea, and will be a most brilliant one—the consumption of oil about two gallons per night. This will be the second Iron Light House in the world.—Royal Gazette.

JAMAICA.—Rumoured Meeting of Colonial Governors.—We understand that it is not unlikely that the governors of the several sister Colonies will shortly pay a visit to this Island, for the principal purpose, it is reported, of consulting with his Excellency the Earl of Elgin, upon the subject of establishing a penal settlement for the whole of the colonies. We shall be happy to learn that the proposed meeting and more especially that the important object connected with it, is in a fair way of being realized.

MILLERITE FANATICISM.—The Millerite excitement still prevails with increasing fearfulness in Philadelphia. The crowd at the Julians street church is still as great as ever. The grand and absorbing topic of the lectures seems to be to give up the things of this world—the surplusses of the rich to be placed in a common fund for the benefit of the poorer members. During this week one man gave in $35; another, after the lecture was over stated, that in adjusting his accounts, making allowances for his necessities up to the final day, he had $150 excess, which was at the society's disposal, a poor brother immediately stated that he was in want of $50 to make him straight with the world. This sum was handed over to him, and the remainder placed in the common treasury fund. A female who owned two houses in the Northern Liberties sold them to the ground landlord for two hundred dollars, and was exceedingly restless until the papers were duly prepared by the Alderman. A brickmaker, in partnership with his father, has given up business; and a master draymen has not been upon his stand for two or three weeks.—Philadelphia American.

A rumour says the Dublin Statesman, has been for some time gaining ground that the sum of £100,000 will be asked for and (as a matter of course granted) in next Parliament, for the erection of a great University in Ireland, in which cheap education will be afforded in a system of secular instructions in which also professors of all denominations (Roman Catholic and Unitarians) will be eligible, and where degrees of all kinds will be conferred.

 THE LADIES BAZAAR.—The ship "Duke of Wellington," not having arrived, the Committee are under the necessity of postponing the Bazaar until her arrival, notice will then be given of the day on which it will take place.

Lewes. (Del.) Dec. 4.—The brigantine Merchant, Beck, from Philadelphia for St. John, N. B. with a cargo of flour, corn, corn meal, &c. upset her windlass at the Breakwater last evening, lost anchor, chains, &c. and went ashore on the bar a little below the "Mole," and will lie high and dry at low tide. She has nearly five feet water in her hold. The weather is now very boisterous, and should it continue there is a probability of the vessel becoming a wreck. Every exertion will be made to save the cargo and I think the greater part of it will be discharged in good order.

Brigt. Merchant, of st. John, N B. got off shore at Cape May, 9th inst., with little damage, and made but 9 inches water per hour.

Barque Elizabeth, of and from Hull England, for St. John, N. B. in ballast was totally wrecked near Haycock's Harbor, state of Maine, night of 7th inst.; crew all saved with difficulty. Nothing saved from the wreck except chains and anchors.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

For the following WORKS will be received by JOHN T. SMITH, King street, Saint John, N. B.

General AGENT, for the Provinces!

READING FOR ALL!

TO THE CHRISTIAN PUBLIC.

Cheapest and best Family Magazine in America!

SEARS'

New Monthly Family Magazine.

A Monthly Miscellany, of Moral and Religious Instruction, embellished with numerous Engravings. Published on the 1st of every month, in parts of fifty large octavo Pages each (double columns.)—To mail subscribers Two Dollars per annum, invariably in advance.

In offering such a miscellany as the above periodical to the public, we wish to make it clearly understood what is the object proposed to be accomplished by its publication, and what will invariably be the character of its contents; and by no species of disguise; or form of deception, attempt to make an impression or gain a favor, without possessing a legitimate claim to their enjoyment. "SEARS' FAMILY MAGAZINE" is a periodical whose object is to collect, condense, and systematize, the great mass of standard general knowledge, contained in works so numerous and voluminous as to be altogether beyond the reach of mankind in general; and thus collected and prepared, to place it, by its cheapness and comprehensiveness, within the acquisition of ALL.
