FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, March 25—The usual Tuesday afternoon tea at the Red Cross meeting was largely attended, being the last under the auspices of the Girls' Branch W. A. Over $71 was handed in to the treasurer of the local Red Cross Society, being proceeds of eight teas. Very sincere thanks were tendered the young ladies for this splendid contribution. It has been decided to continue the Tuesday tea under different committees appointed for each week except next Tuesday, it being "holy week." It is also expected later to hold the Red Cross meetings in the boat club house, which should be attractive during the summer months.

A most interesting feature of the Red Cross meeting on Friday was the visit of three little girls, Ethel McFadzen, president of the Sunshine Circle; Kathleen Hevenor, the secretary, and Maude Pierce, who presented $65, being part of the proceeds of the St. Patrick's day sale and tea held in the Presbyterian church hall March 17. On Saturday the Misses McFadzen and Hevenor called on Mayor Frink at St. John and gave him $60 for the Belgian fund. Very happy children in being able to help so well in such good causes.

Mrs. R. E. Puddington and Miss Puddington expect to leave next Wednesday on a visit to Boston.

For a day or two Captain Walter A. Harrison and Mrs. Harrison have been here from Fredericton, guests of Mrs. John H. Thomson.

Visitors from St. John on Tuesday were Mrs. J. B. Cudlip, Miss Celia Armstrong and Mrs. Charles Bostwick, who attended the Red Cross tea.

Mrs. Leonard Tilley, of St. John, spent Monday in Rothesay with Mrs. John M. Robinson.

The Riverside Sewing Circle are to meet with Mrs. Nesbit tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.

Mrs. Weatherall entertained the Fair Vale Musical Club on Monday evening this week.

The "literature" class met on Tuesday evening in the reading room of Rothesay College. Rev. Canon Cowie, who is guest of Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather, led in the consideration of Browning's poem, Bishop Blogram's Apology, and many took part in the discussion. On Monday evening next week Miss Pitcher will be the leader and her subject An Epistle of Karshish to Avid.

Miss Annie Magee returned on Friday from Bangor, where she had a most delightful visit with friends.

Miss Florence Gilbert spent Sunday with friends in St. John.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. John H. Thomson on Thursday were Mrs. W. H. Barnaby, Mrs. J. S. Harding, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. H. C. Rankine and Mrs. Grimmer, of St. John.

Mr. Royden Thomson left this week on a business trip to Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

After a few weeks' stay with relatives in the city, Miss Hooper and her sister, Mrs. Bethel, are again settled in Rothesay.

Among the guests at the Kennedy House on Sunday were Mr. Jarvis Wilson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peters and son, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Edwards and daughter and Mr. R. P. Gorham.

Mrs. Walter Trueman, of Winnipeg, spent Saturday here with her cousin, Mrs. Harry Puddington, and in the afternoon were guests of the Misses Thomson, who served tea from their grandmother Thomson's china, over 100 years old. Mrs. Puddington and Mrs. Trueman were great-granddaughters, and their children, Misses Dorothy Trueman and Florence Puddington, also invited, are great-great-granddaughters. Teaspoons of the same generation and age on theother side of the house, were also used.

A greatly enjoyed birthday party on Monday afternoon was that of little Miss Frances Robinson, whose wee guests were Misses Sibbie Frink, Audrey and Ann Allison, Muriel Hibbard, Margaret and Hamlin Fairweather, and Helen Blanchet.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Foss and child, who are here from the United States, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Foss.

It will be good news to the friends of Mrs. Walter Fleming, who is confined to her room through illness, to hear she is getting better.

On Monday afternoon at the rectory, Miss Eleanor Robinson, of St. John, read a most interesting and helpful paper on The War and Missions, before a large gathering of the woman's auxiliary and friends. In the evening Miss Robinson spoke to the students of Rothesay College, taking for her subject one of Shakespeare's plays. She was guest over night at the home of the Misses Gilbert.

Last Thursday afternoon the Willing Workers Circle were pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Chisholm. Today they ae guests of Mrs. Blanchet.

Miss Fairweather and little Barbera Fairweather are at Fredericton visiting Mrs. Tabor.

Miss Alice Longley, of St. John, is spending this week in Rothesay with Mrs. McMackin.

Lieutenant C. H. Leonard, of the 26th battalion, and Mrs. Leonard, St. John, were on Monday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leonard.

Mrs. Walter Trueman is leaving on Saturday for her home in Winnipeg, having enjoyed several weeks' vlist among relatives in St. John. Her daughter, Miss Dorothy Trueman, will remain at Netherwood.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, March 25—Governor Wood spent Sunday at his home here, returning to Fredericton on Monday.

Mr. H. C. Read left yesterday for Boston.

Miss Vera King, of Mount Allison, spent the week-end in town, guest of Mrs. Brunton.

Mr. Fred Read, who is on the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, left Sunday night for Ottawa, where he will spend his vacation with his mother, Mrs. David Pottinger.

The Monday Evening Bridge Club met this week at the home of Mrs. Warren Copp.

Miss Bessie McLeod, of Point de Bute, is visiting in town, guest of Mrs. Fred T. Tingley.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hazen was brightened on Friday last by the arrival of a baby daughter.

Master Herbert Hart entertained a few of his young friends very pleasantly on Saturday from 5 to 9 in honor of his ninth birthday. Those present were Miss Dorette DesBarres, Miss Eleanor Freeman-Lake, Miss Barbara Black, Miss Leslie Lowerison, Masters Billie Black, David Allison, Jack Fowle and Leonard and Dennis Reid.

On Friday and Saturday of last week Mrs. Fred T. Tingley entertained a number of her friends at pleasant afternoon knitting and tea parties. On Friday those invited were Mrs. C. H. Paisley, Mrs. J. Dobson, Miss Calkin, Mrs. Sprague, Mrs. Henry Fawcett, Mrs. B. C. Borden, Mrs. Bliss Anderson, Mrs. Calhoun, Mrs. H. Pickard, Mrs. H. Copp, Mrs. W. Turner, Mrs. Sara Carter, Mrs. M. Hicks, Mrs. Ford McCready, Mrs. H. P. Trueman, Mrs. Gass, Mrs. T. D. Hart, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Fred Avard, Mrs. Warren Carter, Mrs. Alex. Ford, Mrs. H. Humphrey, Mrs. Amasa Dixon, Mrs. Guildford Hicks, Mrs. Chas. George, Mrs. Albert Anderson, Mrs. Thos. Patterson, Mrs. James, Mrs. W. J. Trueman, Mrs. J. A. Trueman, Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. Albert Carter. The young ladies who assisted in serving were Miss Bessie McLeod, Miss Jean Carter and Miss Hazel Tingley. On Saturday the guests were Mrs. Walter Dixon, Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Landells, Mrs. Warren Cole, Mrs. Percy Gillis, Mrs. Walter Duncan, Mrs. J. L. Dixon, Mrs. Graham Miller, Mrs. Mortimer Smith, Mrs. Areatus Anderson, Mrs. Walter Etter, Mrs. Angus Avard, Mrs. E. T. Blenkhorn, Mrs. Edgar Ayer, Miss Etta Ayer, Mrs. Horace Ford, Mrs. W. Richardson, Mrs. Laurie Anderson, Mrs. Galus Fawcett, Mrs. Floyd Atkinson, Mrs. L. C. Carey and Miss Bessie Carter. The young ladies assisting in serving were Miss Maude Henderson, Miss Olive Carter and Miss Hazel Tingley. Mrs. Tingley entertained again on Wednesday of this week at another pleasant knitting party and tea. Those invited were Mrs. J. Wood, Mrs. G. M. Campbell, Mrs. Herbert M. Wood, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. E. R. Hart, Miss Sprague, Miss B. McLeod, Miss Marsters, Miss W. Thomas, Mrs. Cochrane, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Wheelock, Mrs. Crowell, Mrs. C. W. Fawcett, Mrs. H. C. Read, Mrs. A. B. Copp, Mrs. H. H. Woodworth, Mrs. C. W. Cahill, Mrs. F. W. W. DesBarres, Mrs. Geo. Wry, Mrs. C. C. Avard, Mrs. D. S. Campbell, Mrs. Fred Turner, Misses Mary and Alice Campbell, Mrs. Ernest Wheaton, Mrs. Fred George, Mrs. Chalmers Hicks, Mrs. Albert Fawcett, Mrs. E. M. Copp, Mrs. C. G. Steadman and Mrs. David Allison. Assisting with the refreshments were Miss Marjorie McCarthy, Miss Olive Carter and Miss Hazel Tingley.

Mr. Edward Dixon, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Harbour Grace (Nfld.), is visiting his mother, Mrs. Amasa Dixon.

Miss Muriel Taylor left last week for Moncton, where she has accepted a position in the offices of the Humphrey woolen mills.

Miss Lois Inch, of Hampstead, arrived in Sackville last week and will spend some time here visiting her sisters, the Misses Hilda and Rheta Inch.

There was added last week to the staff of the Sackville branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Ralph Wilson, son of Mr. F. J. Wilson, of this town.

Prof. Tweedie, of Mount Allison, was in Halifax last week. While there he acted as one of the judges in the Dalhousie-U. N. B. debate.

Miss DesBarres, who has been visiting at the home of her brother, Prof. F. W. W. DesBarres, returned to her home in Guysboro last week.

Mrs. F. B. Black returned yesterday from Fredericton.

Mrs. Herbert M. Wood is spending a few days in Moncton and St. John.

Captain Borden is spending a few days in Halifax.

Mrs. A. A. Lefurgey, ex-M. P. for Prince county, Prince Albert Island, passed through Sackville Friday en route to his home on the island. He was accompanied by Mrs. Lefurgey. The trip was to be made by ice boats via the Capes route.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Roy Spence, of Moncton, was brightened on Thursday last by the arrival of a baby daughter. Mr. Spence is a former Mount Allison student, and has many friends in Sackville and Botsford parish who will extend congratulations.

The residence of Rev. M. A. and Mrs. MacLean, 874 Logan avenue, Toronto, was the scene of a happy event on the evening of March 10, when Miss Gussie Maie, daughter of the late J. J. Anderson, of Middle Sackville, was united in marriage to Mr. Fred. Lorne Baxter, of Calgary, only son of Mrs. J. A. Baxter, of Wolfville (N. S.) The parlors were beautifully decorated with palms and potted plants, carnations and sweet pears. To the strains of the Wedding March from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. MacLean, the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, J. F. Anderson, of Middle Sackville. She looked very charming in white silk meteor with an overdress of beaded chiffon, and carried a shower bouquet. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. A. MacLean, brother-in-law of the bride. A very dainty buffet luncheon was served after which the happy couple took a train for Chicago and other American cities where the honeymoon will be spent. They will reside in Calgary where Mr. Baxter holds the position of manager of the Calgary branch of the Ogilvie Flour Mills Company.

Mrs. Lavinia Dobson was in town last week en route to her home in Point de Bute from the Canadian west. She has been absent about seven months and during that time visited her brother, Rev. Carruthers Murray Nepawa. She also spent some time in Winnipeg. Rev. Mr. Murray accompanied her as far east as Toronto. Mrs. Dobson also spent several days with her niece, Mrs. J. H. Williams, in Montreal.

The many friends of Miss Clo Carter, daughter of O. C. Carter, of Westmorland Point, will regret to hear that she is seriously ill of pleurisy in Montreal. Miss Carter was at one time a nurse in Highland View Hospital, Amherst, but for the last few years a member of the Victorian Order of Nurses, Montreal. She had intended visiting her home in April. Miss Carter is a sisoter of Private Clyde Carter, now drilling in Amherst with the third contingent.

Mr. James Anderson returned Saturday from Toronto, where he attended the marriage of his sister, Miss Gussie Anderson, to Mr. Fred. T. Baxter.

The members of the Sackville teaching staff, together with representatives of the Woman's Council were delightfully entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McCready, by Mrs. D. A. Morrison, of Amherst, who told of her trip through Europe a couple of years ago. By means of a lantern many splendid views were thrown on the screen, which added to the interest of teh lecture. At the conclusion a very hearty vote of thanks was moved by Principal MacPhee and seconded by Mrs. E. M. Copp, was tendered Mrs. Morrison for her delightfully interesting and instructive talk. Refreshments were served at the close.

A. M. Bell, of Halifax, received a letter from her son, Winthrop Bell, Mt. Allison, B. A., '04, M. A., '07, interned in Germany, who corroborated the news that he is now more comfortably installed in the concentration camp near Berlin, but is not permitted to discuss the war situation or conditions. The news that Mr. Bell is more comfortably installed now will be learned with satisfaction by his many Halifax and Sackville friends.

Mr. T. T. Black, B. A. '97, who for some time has been located in Montreal, has recently gone to Toronto, where he will represent Quinlan & Robertson, contractors, on the Don section of the new Bloor street viaduct.

The many friends of Miss Norma Crane regret to hear that she is at present a patient in the sanitorium at River Glade (N. B.)

Mrs. C. W. Cahill is visiting in Springhill, guest of her sister, Mrs. Bent.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, March 28—Miss Alice Sullivan was hostess to the young ladies of the Wa-Wa Club at high tea at her home on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. James G. Stevens on Saturday evening entertained a number of young friends at her home. Music and singing was enjoyed and the evening was a most pleasant one.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Robert D. Ross and her sister, Miss Katherine Clark, gave a very pleasant thimble party at their home. There were several unique ideas in the way of entertainment. One in particular which met with great favor among the guests. Each one was asked to work a buttonhole and when finished the first prize for the best one worked was awarded to Mrs. John McWha, while Miss Elizabeth Clark won the second prize. There were also some charades and music, making the evening very pleasant. Dainty refreshments were served at 11 o'clock. The guests were Mrs. Walter McWha, Mrs. Albert A. Laflin, Mrs. S. R. Belyea, Mrs. John McWha, Mrs. Maria Burton, Mrs. Harry L. Wall, Mrs. Elwell DeWolfe, Misses Lola Robinson, Miss Emma Robinson, Miss Elva Nicholson, Miss Jewett and Miss Wilson.

Miss Mary Mowatt, of Truro (N. S.), is the guest of her aunts, the Misses Clark.

Miss Mildred Todd expects to leave at an early date to visit relatives in Boston and vicinity and will also be the guest later of Miss Dorothy Dexter in Manchester (N. H.)

Mrs. A. W. Reed and her daughter, Miss Constance Reed, who were in town last week, have returned to their home in St. John.

Mrs. George Elliott is enjoying a visit in Boston and before she returns will also visit Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murchie, Mrs. George Murchie and Mrs. Ella Boyd have returned from a visit in Boston.

Miss Verna Brown came from Houlton (Me.) this week to spend two weeks with her aunts, the Misses Abbot.

The Thursday Evening Club met with Miss Addie McVay. The prizes were won by Miss Marjorie Baskin and Mr. Gill. This week the club will be entertained by Miss Mildred Todd.

Mrs. Thirlmore Lyford and Miss Portia Duston have been visiting in St. Andrews their sister, Mrs. Thomas T. O'Dell.

Miss Martha Harris is visiting New York and Boston.

Mrs. J. D. Lawson, who has been in Woodstock during the past month with her sister, Mrs. J. Rankine Brown, has arrived home.

Mrs. Anna Grimmer, of Houlton, who has been Mrs. D. H. Bates' guest, left on Saturday for Boston to visit friends.

The Neighborhood Club were entertained on Monday afternoon by Mrs. John M. Flewelling.

On Monday evening Captain Smith and the soldiers of the 55th Battalion drilling here were entertained by the ladies of the Presbyterian church in Milltown. There was a musical programme and at the close of the evening refreshments were served. The Young People's Society of the Presbyterian church in St. Stephen are to entertain them at supper at Elder Memorial Hall on the evening of March 31.

Mrs. Austin Budd, of St. Andrews, and her young son are visiting her parents, Mayor and Mrs. Parker Grimmer.

Miss Pierce, of Oak Bay, is the guest this week of Mrs. W. W. Inches.

SHEDIAC

Shediac, N. B., March 25—Mrs. Trenholme and little daughter, Eleanor, of Shemogue are spending some time in town, guests of Mrs. Woodford Avard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bruce, Shediac Cape, have returned from a few days spent in St. John.

Capt. J. C. Bray, who has been critically ill for the past week is at present convalescing favorably. Miss McRoberts of Woodstock, professional nurse is in attendance.

Mrs. J. Wortman is entertained the ladies of the Weekly Bridge Club, at her residence, this afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Smith and son, Master Dean, of Moncton spent the week end in Shediac, guests of Mrs. Chas. Harper.

On Saturday afternoon of this week the ladies of St. Andrew's church will hold an Easter sale, and five o'clock tea at the residence of Mrs. H. W. Murray.

Miss Alberta Murray who has been spending the past month in Bridgetown (N. S.), the guest of her aunt, Miss Schurman, returned home on Monday of this week.

Mrs. L. Comeau and daughter, Miss Corinvre, of St. John, were the guests recently for a few days of Shediac relatives.

Mr. R. C. Tait is able to be out again after ten days illness of grippe.

Mrs. Chas. Roberts entertained the ladies of St. Andrew's Guild at her residence on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

At the weekly meeting of the Red Cross Society, held in the Shediac High school on Monday afternoon, a letter was read from Col. G. S. Ryeson, by the secretary, in which the society was asked to raise $50 for the installing of a bed in the Duchess of Connaught Hospital at Cliveden, England. A committee of two, Miss Elsie Jardine and Miss Beatrice Harper, were appointed to wait upon the citizens of the town on Wednesday afternoon, to raise the required amount. Generous response was tendered the collectors, the sum of $42 rewarding their efforts. The remaining amount, is being made up by the Red Cross Society Fund—and in due time a bed will be installed in the Canadian Base Hospital, to be known as "The Shediac."

The Misses Lenea and Evangeline Melanson spent a few days in St. John

SUSSEX

Sussex, N. B., March 25—Mrs. James A. Murray was hostess at a very pleasant informal tea Thursday afternoon, at her residence in Main street. Mrs. Murray was assisted in serving by Mrs. J. J. Daly, Miss Gretchen Mills, Miss Sybil Mills, Miss Frances Jonah and Miss Helen Murray.

Miss Laura Davidson gave a most enjoyable skating party Monday evening to several of her young friends.

Rev. John Jenner, of Campbellton, was a visitor here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Garfield White have returned from a pleasant trip to New York.

Mrs. Weeden F. Myles very pleasantly entertained the Girls' Guild of Trinity church Tuesday evening.

The Monday Night Club met with Mrs. J. Everett Keith this week.

Mrs. Wm. H. McLeod spent Thursday in St. John with friends.

Rev. H. C. Rice has returned from a two weeks' trip to Summerside.

Mrs. Moore, of Lawrencetown (N. S.), is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Myles.

Mrs. S. H. Hayward, of Hampton, is the guest of Mrs. Arthur Keith.

Mrs. J. Frank Roach's many friends are glad to know that she is recovering from her recent serious illness.

Miss Georgie Huestis, daughter of Mrs. Murray Huestis, underwent a successful operation Tuesday for appenticitis.

Miss Eleanor Roach, a student at Mt. Allison Ladies' College, is spending a few weeks at her home here.

Mrs. Carrie Roach has returned from spending several weeks in St. John.

Mrs. L. R. Murray spent Tuesday here as the guest of Mrs. M. H. Huestis.

Mrs. H. G. Ashford has invitations out for a tea Saturday afternoon in honor of her friends, Mrs. Cooper, of Hampton.

Some of the ladies entertaining at Red Cross teas this week were: Mrs. H. E. D. Golding, Mrs. Wm. Maggs, Mrs. F. R. DeBoo, Mrs. Charles Spear, Mrs. Heber Folkins, Mrs. W. F. Myles, Miss Nettie Campbell, Mrs. J. R. McLean, Mrs. J. D. Friar, Mrs. A. G. Berry, Mrs. James Torrens, Mrs. S. H. White, Mrs. Blanche Hendricks, Miss Louise McLeod, Mrs. John King, Mrs. Dineen, Mrs. Horace Slipp, Mrs. Joseph Barnes, Mrs. Wm. Smith, Mrs. L. Smith, Mrs. Elizabeth Murray, Mrs. A. Forsythe, Mrs. Guy Kinnear, Miss Kate White, Miss Gertrude Sherwood, Mrs. George White, Mrs. J. T. Kirk, Mrs. Frank Keirstead, Mrs. Seth Jones, Mrs. Calhoun, Mrs. MacDonald, Mrs. Joseph Lamb, Mrs. H. Flewelling, Mrs. Leek, Mrs. H. Clark, Miss Clark, Mrs. Goodliffe, Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, Mrs. H. H. Keirstead, Miss Hazel Fairweather, Mrs. Annie Armstrong, Miss Lily Upham, Mrs. Lucas and others.

Miss Constance Campbell will leave soon for Toronto, where she will train for a nurse.

Mrs. Scovil Neales' many friends are glad to know that she underwent a successful operation in the Moncton hospital this week.

Miss Greta Price has finished a course in the Moncton Business College and is spending a few weeks here with her mother.

Miss Mac Heenan and Miss Caulie McInerney spent the week-end in St. John.

Mrs. A. S. White was among the visitors from here to St. John this week.

Mrs. J. P. Atherton and little daughter have returned from Amherst.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wells Baird, of Edmonton (Alta.), have announced the engagement of their daughter Hazel to Mr. Charles Dunn Myles, the marriage to take place this month.

CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, March 4—A very successful and delightful play before an audience which filled the Campbellton Opera House was the amateur performance of "The Sawdust Queen," given by local talent in aid of the Red Cross To Miss Jean McLatchey is due the credit of promoting and superintending the affair. To make individual mention of the players would be impossible as all took their parts to perfection.

The cast of characters were:

Ned Sterling, a college youth, Harold S. Conrad.

Deacon Sterling, Ned's father, Austin R. Murray.

Tony O'Hara, the circus clown, Austin McDonald.

Pa Hobbs, circus manager, B. O. Bates.

Silas Hunkam, a country solicitor, Edmund Gallagher.

Hulda Schwartz, circus strong lady, Hazel Lingley.

Three maiden ladies: Miss Prudence Drue, Miss Gladys Gillis; Miss Patricia Prossit, Miss Helen Davison; Miss Patience Prouty, Miss Ethel Hogan.

The Sawdust Queen, Miss Jean McLatchey.

Specialties:

Song (French), Jeanne D'Arc, Miss Theberge.

Reading, Tommy Atkins, Miss M. Stevens.

Song, Your Eyes Have Told me, Miss Nelson.

Song, Never Let the Old Flag Fall, Mr. John T. McColl.

Duet, Life's Dream is O'er, Miss Nelson and Mr. McColl.

Song, Best Old Flag on Earth, Miss Theberge.

Ventriloquent entertainment, Sergeant L. M. Gray.

Song, selected, Miss Nelson.

The Irish melodies by Mrs. W. H. added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Campbellton friends will be interested to know that the stork has paid a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Montreal, leaving a baby daughter—Beverley Currie—Mrs. Hughes was formerly Miss Della Currie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Currie, of Campbellton.

Miss Tait, of Loggieville is in town the guest of Miss D. McNutt.

Miss Annie Burns, who has been visiting the Misses Lingley returned to her home in Moncton last week.

Miss Hazel Murray left last week for Oxford where she has accepted a position as milliner.

Miss Ethel R. McMellan, of Ontario Business College was in town last week, the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Thos. Ellsworth and Mrs. Arthur Keith, enroute to her home in Caplin River, Que.

Miss Gertrude Murray has returned from a trip to St. John.

Mr. J. S. Trueman, of Lauder, Manitoba was in town last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Trueman.

Mr. D. A. Stewart, M. L. A., spent Sunday at his home here returning to Fredericton on the Maritime Tuesday morning.

The Campbellton "Princes Pats" chaperoned by Mrs. Archibald McKenzie went to Newcastle last Thursday evening to play their return game of hockey with the Newcastle "Fair Sex." Mr. J. H. Drummie referred. The score was 1 to 0 in favor of the Newcastle team. The young ladies going from Campbellton were Miss Estelle McKenzie, Miss Margaret McLellan, Miss Josephine Dickie, Miss Gladys Keane, Miss Mary Graham, Miss Hattie McDonald, Miss Doreen Farrer, Miss Tessie Lingley, Miss Irene Murray.

Mrs. A. E. Alexander who has been spending some time in Chatham, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. Malcolm Hope has returned to Campbellton.

Mr. Walter H. Gray has returned from a trip to Boston and New York.

Mrs. R. Malcolm Hope and Mr. Fred Alexander are in town this week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Alexander.

Mr. Gilford Bruce and Mr. Harry McLennan were the guests of Rev. T. P. and Mrs. Drumm in Moncton, while attending the Boys' conference.

Mrs. Lawlor and little daughter, of Matapedia, visited friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Malcolm have returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Montreal and Ottawa.

Mr. Allan H. Troy spent a couple of days in Newcastle last week the guest of his father, Mr. Jas. Troy.

Mrs. Horace Humphrey, who has been spending the winter in Sackville, left last week for a trip to Virginia before returning to Compbellton.

The ladies of the Missionary Aid Society, of the Baptist church, have issued invitations to meet Miss Archibald, at the home of Mrs. James Evans Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. George Emmerson, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Moncton, has been transferred to Campbellton.

Miss Ella O'Donnell, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. O'Donnell has returned to her home in Newcastle.

Miss Hattie Millican has returned to Moncton, after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Millican.

Mr. George W. Wallace spent last Thursday with friends in Newcastle.

Mrs. Thos. Ellsworth and children left last week to visit relatives at Caplin River (Que.)

Miss Bertha Ferguson has returned from a visit to friends in Moncton.

On Monday evening of last week, Mrs. Everett Henderson entertained a number of her young friends at a delightful skating party for the pleasure of her son Ritchie. Among those present were Miss Doreen Farrer, Miss Doris Mowat, Miss Sarah Lutz, Miss Josephine Dickie, Miss Enid McKenzie, Miss Hattie McDonald, Miss Freda Davison, Miss Sophie Metzler, Miss Ethel Lingley, Mr. Harry McLennan, Mr. Ingram McKenzie, Mr. Lindsay Sullivan, Mr. Shirley Wetmore, Mr. Edmund Gallagher, Mr. Glenford Mowat and Mr. Colin McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sherar, of New-Carlise, were in town last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Duncan.

Miss Maud Lodge, of Runnymeade, was in town last week, the guest of Miss Irene Murray.

Miss McBeath, of Athol visited friends here last Sunday.

Miss Bessie Cook has returned from New Carlise.

Messrs. Ross and Boswell Malcolm have returned from Montreal.

The Misses Laura and May McIntyre have returned from Amherst.

Mr. E. B. Price has returned from a trip to Fredericton and Moncton. While in Moncton he was the guest of his son, Mr. Edward Price.

Major A. E. G. McKenzie, of the 26th Battalion, spent a couple of days here last week.

Miss Minnie Adams has returned from Moncton, where she was the guest of Mrs. T. Porter Drumm.

Mr. Dougal McMillan, of Sudbury (Ont.), who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McMillan, has returned home.

Last Friday evening a supper was held at Gray's restaurant in honor of the recruits of the 6th Mounted Rifles and the 28th Field Battery, who left Saturday morning for Amherst and Fredericton. The banquet hall was very appropriately decorated with flags. Speeches were made by Judge McLatchy, Judge Matheson, Col. Malby, Major A. E. G. McKenzie, Lieut. C. F. Archer, Sergt. L. M. Gray and others. During the evening Judge McLatchey presented Lieut. C. F. Archer with a pair of officers' field glasses on behalf of the boys of the 6th Mounted Rifles and 28th Field Battery, who were leaving Saturday morning.

MONCTON

Moncton, N. B., March 25—Mrs. James Brown gave a shamrock tea at her residence on Wednesday afternoon in aid of the St. Bernard's Improvement Society. Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. M. Wrynn assisted in receiving the guests. Mrs. Melanson and Mrs. Watts presided in the tea room and were assited by Mrs. E. O. McSweeney, Mrs. T. H. O'Neil, Mrs. W. L. Wilson, Mrs. Percy McMahon, Miss Daisy Young and Miss Helen Wrynn. Mrs. J. A. Geary ushered and Mrs. Gillespie attended the door. Miss Dupuis acted as treasurer.

Miss Myrtle MacFarlane has returned from Sackville, where she was the guest of Mrs. George A. Read.

Mrs. L. H. Wallace and children have gone to Chatham to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. John Foley.

Miss Berenice Kay, of Dorchester, spent the week-end with friends in the city.

Mrs. John Trites is enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Chapman, at Point de Bute.

Mrs. W. H. Archibald is spending a week in Dorchester, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Chapman.

Miss Murray, of Richibucto, is the guest of friends in the city.

Miss O'Brien has gone to Dorchester to spend a few days with Miss Daisy Barnett.

Mr. Arthur Tweedie, C.E., son of ex-Governor Tweedie, of Chatham, spent Friday in the city en route to Amherst, where he will undergo military training with the troops preparatory to leaving for the front.

Mrs. A. T. Mabee, of Hampton, spent the week-end with friends in the city.

Miss Annie Burns has gone to Campbellton to spend some time with the Misses Lingley.

Miss Minnie Adams, who has been spending several weeks with Rev. T. P. and Mrs. Drumm, has returned to her home in Campbellton.

Rev. R. S. Crisp, a former highly esteemed pastor of Central Methodist and Wesley Memorial churches, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. F. G. Williams. Mr. Crisp is at present a resident of St. John.

Mrs. C. W. Fraser, of Amherst, is the guest of Miss Margaret McDougall.

Mrs. Roy Sumner has returned from a two weeks' stay with relatives in Boston.

Mr. W. P. Higgins, of Boston, is the guest of his brother, Mrs. L. H. Higgins.

Rev. W. G. Lane, of St. John, spent part of the week with friends in the city.

On Friday evening Mrs. R. W. Simpson entertained a few friends at bridge when Mrs. G. W. Willett was the winner of the first prize, while Mrs. W. A. Ferguson captured the second. The guests included Mrs. R. A. Borden, Mrs. W. A. Ferguson, Mrs. L. H. Somers, Mrs. F. C. Jones, Mrs. T. W. Bell, Mrs. J. W. T. Smith, Mrs. McDonald (Winnipeg), and Mrs. G. W. Willett.

Mrs. C. W Brown is spending a few days with friends in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cummings and Moiss Louise Cummings, of Harcourt, are visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. I. F. Avard and Mrs. R. C. Colpitts have returned from St. John where they were the guests of Rev. W. G. and Mrs. Lane.

Mrs. W. Clayton Martin and little daughter are the guests of Mrs. Martin's mother at Harcourt.

Mrs. W. F. Buckley, of Harcourt, is the guest of friends in the city.

Mrs. W. D. Keith, who has been spending several weeks in the city with friends has returned to her home in Hartland.

Miss Jessie Covert entertained at bridge Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Wynnie Whelpley, who is shortly to be one of the principals in an interesting event. The prizes were won by Miss Jennie Price and Miss Daisy Weldon.

Mrs. P. Gillin and daughter, Miss May Gillen, who have been spending some time in the city, have returned to their home in Woodstock.

Mr. Homer Huston, of the Royal Bank of Canada staff, has been transferred to Halifax and left on Wednesday to take up his duties there.

Miss Smith, who has been spending the past six months at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hayes, left on Wednesday for her home in Springfield (Mass.)

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, March 25—Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Hayden and Mr. and Mrs. J. Chipman Hartley spent a day in Fredericton last week.

Rev. Father Bradley, of Florenceville, was in town last week, a guest of Rev. F. J. McMurray.

Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Griffin made a brief trip to St. John last week.

Mr. Henry Wisdom returned to Newfoundland on Friday, after spending three weeks with friends in town.

Mr. Robert Watson, of Moncton, has been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Watson, this week.

Lieut. J. Charlton Barrie, of St. John, has been spending a few days in town this week.

Miss Alice Sprague spent a day in Houlton this week, a guest of her friend, Miss Edith Nevers.

Mrs. Lawson, who has been the guest for some weeks of her sister, Mrs. J. Rankin Brown, returned on Saturday to her home in St. Stephen.

Rev. Frank Baird attended a meeting of the church committee on home missions in Halifax this week.

F. B. Carvell, M. P., spent Sunday at his home here, returning to Ottawa on Monday.

Mrs. W. D. Camber returned on Wednesday from Boston and New York.

Mrs. H. Woods, of Fredericton, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Burden, Connell street.

Mrs. G. Fred Clarke leaves on Friday to spend the Easter holidays with her parents in Philadelphia.

Miss Dawn Hume, of Nelson (B. C.), has been the guest this week of her aunt, Mrs. George Balmain. Miss Hume will go to Fredericton to spend Easter.

Miss Mildred Carvell leaves on Friday to spend a few days in Ottawa. Miss Carvell later will go to Cowansville, Quebec, where she will spend Easter with her friend, Miss Jane Cotton.

Mrs. Charles McKeen returned this week from an extended trip to friends in the west.

Mrs. E. W. Mair gave a very pleasant knitting party on Saturday afternoon last in honor of her guest, Miss Stevens, of Coaticooke, Quebec. The guests were Mrs. G. Fred Clarke, Mrs. George W. Gibson, Mrs. George E. Balmain, Mrs. J. A. F. Garden, Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. T. C. L. Ketchum, Mrs. A. D. Holyoke and Miss Hume, of Nelson. Mrs. Balmain poured at the tea hour.

The young men's Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school entertained the young people of the church and the choir on Monday evening in the school room of the church. A large number of guests were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Games of all kinds were indulged in, after which refreshments were served, followed by a ten minute patriotic address by F. C. Squires, teacher of the class.

Miss Grace Jones left on Monday to visit friends in St. John.

Miss Edith MacRoberts left on Thursday last for Shediac, where she will have charge of a case for Dr. Oulton.

Miss Faye Camber entertained at one of the most enjoyable of the season's social functions on Wednesday afternoon. Auction bridge was played at seven tables and a number of other guests came in at the tea hour. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and ornamental plants for the occasion. Miss Camber received her guests in a pretty dress of Saxe blue silk with overdress of lace. During the afternoon Miss Alice Sprague played several selections on the piano, which were very much enjoyed by the guests. The favors were captured by Mrs. Charles J. Jones and Miss Mary Sprague. A dainty lunch was served at the tea hour, at which the hostess was assisted by Miss Alice Sprague, Miss Isabel Watts, Miss Jean Tilley and Miss Mary McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson were guests at the Barker House, Fredericton, this week.

Mrs. N. Foster Thorne was hostess at a knitting party on Friday evening last. The guests were Mrs. George E. Balmain, Mrs. W. B. Belyea, Mrs. Richard Opie, Mrs. Edgar R. Teed, Mrs. William Balmain, Mrs. S. Pugsley, Mrs. Albert D. Holyoke and Miss Alice Lingley. Mrs. Thorne entertained again on Saturday evening at a sewing party.

In the late issue of the Canada Gazette the announcement was made that Douglas Balmain, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Balmain, of this town, had been qualified for his rank and had been appointed provisional lieutenant supernumerary of the 67th Regiment, Carleton Light Infantry.

Woodstock, March 26—(Special)—A blinding snow storm is raging here and if it continues all night it will seriously interfere with traffic. It is the worst storm of the season.

The members of the 55th Battalion who have assembled here were the guests this evening of the Red Cross Society at the Methodist parlors, where the ladies served a supper. A musical concert followed and the patriotic selections were received with great favor by the young soldiers.

Two beds will be provided in the Red Cross hospital at Cliveden by the Red Cross Society of Woodstock. Contributions are being received for the purpose and the committee are greatly impressed with the manner in which the public endorse the movement. Contributions are coming in freely.

Rev. Frank Lockhart, of the United Baptist church, will speak to the Baptists among the soldiers Sunday morning, taking for a subject The Investment of a Life. The men will parade to the church.

Woodstock, N. B., March 28—An acc