The friends of J. C. Chisholm, M. A., will be heard before the Middlesex Assizes on Friday last. This was an action brought by Augustus Glover, of Stratford, against Murdo McLeay, of Watford, for malicious arrest. It appears that the plaintiff, formerly in the dry goods business, latterly had a green grocery store in Watford. The defendant proposed that the plaintiff should go into the dry goods business with him, and he would put $1,000 into the business against the plaintiff's experience. This was agreed to, and the $1,000 was given to the plaintiff, and he came to London and purchased $3,000 worth of goods from Messrs.
Laing, Sutherland & Co. of London, in his own name by McLeay's wish, as the latter did not wish his name to appear. An agreement was drawn up as to the amount each partner was to take out of the business.
This being calculated upon the personal indebtedness of the plaintiff, who stated that he owed $200, whereas the defendant stated that he owed only $60. After the stock was purchased the defendant discovered that the plaintiff owed some debts not mentioned in his statement, and said the plaintiff must sign over to him his full right and title to his partnership share of the stock. The plaintiff refused to do so, as he said that he was responsible to Messrs. Laing, Sutherland & Co. Subsequently the defendant arrested had the plaintiff arrested on the charge of obtaining the money under false pretences, in stating that his debts were less than they actually were. This charge was dismissed by the Police Magistrate, and the present action is brought for false imprisonment. After hearing the evidence for the plaintiff, the case was non-suited. Messrs.
John Cameron and E. Meredith for plaintiff; Mr. W. R. Meredith for defendant.
