Saved His Boy.

A PLAIN STATEMENT FROM MR ROBT. McLFOD, OF GALT.

His Little Son Was Paralyzed on One Side, and Doctor's Treatment Did Him No Good—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Were Given and Effected a Thorough Cure.

From the Galt Reporter.

Mr Robt. McLeod is a gentleman well known in the town of Galt and throughout the district. In conversation with a member of the Reporter staff recently, he consented to make public the facts concerning the illness and restoration to health of his little boy. He said :—

"Yes, I believe that had it not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills my little boy would not have been living to-day. Willie, who is ten years of age, was taken with an illness that developed into paralysis of the left side. He had the best medical aid within my reach, but nothing seemed to benefit him. He got so bad that a pin could be run into his left hand to the bone without his feeling it in the least. If he attempted to walk he could only get over the ground by dragging his left foot behind him ; he had no power in it whatever. One night I was feeling pretty blue about him. I felt that he was going to be an invalid all his life, and I viewed things in their worst light. On this particular night I put on my hat with the intention of going out to take a quiet walk, but just as I got to the door I saw lying on a step a Pamphlet. I picked it up listlessly, and saw it was an advertising book of the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. I only read a few words when the conviction seized me that here was something that might possibly benefit my boy. I at once went down to Mr Ferrah's drug store and purchased a box of the pills. By the time he had taken two boxes the color had come back into his hand and arm, and by the time he had taked half a dozen boxes he was cured, and now he is better than he ever was before in his life, and as hearty and strong as any boy in the town. Yes, sir, I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a wonderful medicine."

Our Neighbor.

Our neighbors generally are the people who have houses near to our own that nearness varying according to the size of the district and the number of householders of the same social rank as ourselves. In town they live in the same street ; in apartments they are on the same corridor ; in the country they are separated by a field only or a garden wall ; in sparsely tenanted places they are at a distance of a mile or two miles, or it may be six. And the neighbor par excellence is the one who lives close alongside of ourselves—perhaps in the other half of the semi-detached house where we have our home or just across the road and opposite, not to the side. This is the general idea of a neighbor, and when we use the term we rarely mean aught else.

But in point of fact we have neighbors wherever we turn—men and women whom we are bound to render such service of kindness as comes into the possibilities of the time and place. It is not only domicile and the rates and taxes which make us neighbors. It is not only when we know all the family history, and how our friends and neighbors are impeccable as to their grandfather and without the crooked lines of a scandal across their family escutcheon. It is not necessary to be intimate, nor even to have been introduced, for the obligations neighborliness to be strict and strong. For wherever we can render a service, show a courtesy or do a kindness we have our work cut out for us in the way of duty to our neighbor, and he is our neighbor who stands in need, great or small, of such help as we can offer.

The Stewart Case.

Mr Stewart Pays a Visit to Pictou—Congratulated by His Many Friends on His Restoration to Health.

PICTOU, N. S., Sept. 6—Good news sometimes travels as fast as bad news, which is proverbially fast. Many people here knew that Mr Allan Stewart, of Springton, P. E. I., had been for many years afflicted with kidney disease and gravel. It was known, too, that last year he was so bad that public opinion put him down as likely to die soon. Mr Stewart fooled public opinion though, for he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, and ten boxes of them completely cured him. When he paid a flying visit to this city a few days ago, he received many hearty congratulations on his restoration to health and improved appearance. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never yet failed to cure in this part of the Dominion.

In Sweden a crime is an event ; theft particularly is very rare. Honesty, as the fundamental quality of the race, is naturally recognized and officially counted upon. In this regard the Stockholmers show a confident carelessness which is always a surprise to strangers, and causes them some uneasiness. In the theaters and concert halls there are large cloak rooms, where hats and furs are left without the smallest safeguard ; the performance over, each one again takes possession of his effects, and an accident never occurs. The inhabitants are accustomed to expect a reciprocal probity in the transactions of every day life. Upon most of the tramways in Stockholm conductors have been dispensed with. The passenger himself deposits his ten ore in a little till placed at the end of the vehicle, behind the driver. It is patriarchal, and economical.

Sir Herbert Kitchener believes that a general should be his own war correspondent. While the newspaper men were packing their kits at Cairo, Hunter Pasha was on the march to Abdu Hamed. He was driving the dervishes out of the town before they got to the front ; and when the disappointed "specials" reached Assouan they had to console themselves with the official account of the battle, handed them by order of the Sirdar.

The shrewd hard-headed, close-calculating P. T. Barnum said : "I undertake to give bonds for the fulfilment of a contract that if the city of Philadelphia will stop selling liquor, and give me as much as was expended for liquor last year to run the city next year, I will pay all the city expenses, no one shall pay taxes, and there shall be no insurance on property, a good suit of clothes shall be given to every man, woman, and child and a barrel of flour to every needy and worthy person ; and then I shall have half a million dollars by the operation.

The more of Jesus in the soul the sweeter will be our flavor, and herein shall other people know that Jesus abideth in us because we have some good measure of His unselfish spirit. It is not to be demonstrated by the mere expression of loyalty to Him, or even by remembering Him at the sacremental table only, but by deeds of kindness to those who represent Him in His humanity. The grapes on a Christian's branch ought to hang low enough for a poor child to pluck them.

Women are proving that they can endure the hardships of mining life in the Alaska goldfields and come out well and also well off. A woman went to Alaska with her husband a year ago, and with him passed through all the vicissitudes of staking out a mining claim and working it. The two have just returned to California with a fortune which will make them comfortable for life.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage said in his Victorian jubilee sermon, "This international occasion impresses me with the fact that woman is competent for political government when God calls her to it. Just so, but who is to decide when God calls her to it? Should it be men only ?

Friendship.

Friendship, of itself a holy tie, is made more sacred by adversity.—Dryden.

Communicating of man's self to his friend works two contrary effects, for it redoubleth joys and cutteth griefs in halves.—Bacon.

That part of our noble friends that we love is not that part that we embrace, but that insensible part that our arms cannot embrace.—Sir Thomas Browne.

When all things else are equal, prefer an old friend before a new. An old friend is like old wine, which, when a man hath drunk, he doth not desire new, Because he saith, 'the old is better' but every old friend was new once, and if he be worthy keep the new friend till he become old.—Jeremy Taylor.

What is a friend ? One who supports you and comforts you when others do not. Friendship is the cordial drop "to make the nauseous draft of life go down."—Boswell.

Time draweth wrinkles in a faire face but addeth fresh colors to a fast friend which neither heate nor cold nor miserie nor place nor destinie can alter or diminish.—John Lily.

PRECEPTS AND WARNINGT FOR THOSE WHO WOULD DYE WELL.

Let thy faith be fixed in the wonderful transforming powers of Diamond Dyes ; the results they give will cheer thine heart.

Never allow any interested or wily dealer to recommend for thy use some inferior or imitation make of dye. If thou wilt hearken to his words, he will rejoice at thy simplicity of character and will delight himself over thy wrath and bitter disappointment.

If thou wouldst avoid handling poisonous ingredients, use only the Diamond Dyes for thy home dyeing work ; they are the only harmless and pure dyes.

When times are hard and money scarce, thine heart often craves for new and stylish colors and garments. By the use of the magic Diamond Dyes thy wishes can be fully realized, because Diamond Dyes recreate old dresses and make them to look like new.

If thou wouldst have a smiling face, a happy heart and an easy mind, do thy coloring at all seasons of the year with the Diamond Dyes ; they never cause worry or grief to those who make use of them

A poor man lay dying, and his good wife was tending him with homely but affectionate care. "Don't you think you can eat a bit of something, John! Now what can I get for you ?"

With a wan smile he answered feebly : "Well, I seem to smell a-ham a-cooking somewheres ; I think I could do with a little bit of that."

"Oh, no, John dear," she answered promptly, "you can't have that. That's for the funeral."

The scales used in the London Mint are so beautifully balanced that they can show a difference in the weight of a card after a name has been written on it.

The inmates of English prisons who cannot read or write receive compulsory education twice a week.

It is not always a plain face that keeps a girl from marrying. Sometimes it is wisdom.

Hating others is like plucking ourselves and expecting others to feel the hurt.

Scraps for Odd Moments.

O say, Jim she promised to marry me at last.

When ?

Just 18 years from to-day.

It is proposed to call a telephone message a "telepheme." That's all right. You have to tell a female at the central office before you can send it.

"I put a fence across my back yard to keep the boys out."

"Did it work?"

"Yes, as long as it staid up."

What's the matter with that hammock, now ? asked the old gentleman of his pouting daughter. It's one of the largest and most expensive I could find.

"Your information is all wrong I'm losing money on slow horses," said Frank Speede.

For fever and ague, and miasmatic diseases, Ayer's Ague Cure is a positive remedy.

"He gives twice that gives quickly," urged the collector earnestly.

"True" responded Snagg calmly, "but I have often noticed that he who gives slowly very frequently doesn't have to give at all."

Teacher—Which is the next one to the letter H ?

Boy—Dunno, ma'am.

Teacher—What have I on both sides of my nose ?

Boy—Freckles, ma'am.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers can be applied when at home, and is uniformly successful in coloring a brown or black. Hence its great popularity.

"Does your wife take interest in current politics ?" asked the earnest woman.

"Naw," replied Mr Sodfarm, "she dun't. But if it's currant jelly er currant pie, why, I allow she could tell you more things about 'em than you ever dromp of."

There is nothing to prevent anyone concocting a mixture and calling it "sarsaparilla," and there is nothing to prevent anyone spending good money testing the stuff ; but prudent people, who wish to be sure of their remedy, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and so get cured.

Yungun—Woman, you know, can smile in the face of the world when her heart is breaking.

Oldun—Yes. One of the most pathetic sights in this life is that of a woman being radiant and pleasant with a caller when the smell of a burnt roast is oozing into the room from the kitchen.

"'No ? What kind of grace does your papa say ?' asked the minister. 'Why, he came home last night, and when he sat down to the table he just said, 'Good God what a supper !' was the reply."

"Well my son" said the editor of the Danville Breeze to his son who wanted a wheel, "you'll find one in the front end of the wheelbarrow and there is a big pile of coal ashes back of the house that will have to be moved. The handle-bars are of white ash and are adjustable, so you can get any style of a hump on that suits your fancy. It is regulated largely by the load you put on. The bigger the load the more you have to hump yourself. Be careful you don't mar the enamel on the frame and keep the ball bearings well oiled, so they won't cut into the cones. The tire is absolutely punctureless, so you won't have to take your pump and repair kit with you. By the time you have removed that pile of ashes I think you will have made a century run ; also the perspiration. You'd better come into dinner now."
