PREPARING TO ATTACK.

KASSASSIN, Sept 12—Gen Wolseley has left the camp to arrange for an attack by all the forces which have now arrived

A FINAL RECONNAISSANCE

A FORWARD MOVEMENT ORDERED.

General orders have been issued for a forward movement. The whole army, tents and baggage will be transported by railroads to the nearest point to the Egyptian encampment. No bugles will be allowed to be sounded after sunset. The Royal West Kent regiment, the 19th Hussars and two companies of engineers will remain here to guard the camp.

BRITISH LINE OF COMMUNICATION.

The British line of communication between Ismailia, Nefiche, Tel Elmahuta and, Mahsameh is held by detachments of infantry with a gun and a group of cavalry at each place.

BRITISH FORCE ON THE MARCH.

At 10.50 p m the British were bivouacking two miles beyond Kassassin along the line facing Arabi's front. The most advanced line is about four miles from the Egytian front. The forward march will begin shortly after midnight, so that the force may reach fighting distance by dawn. Gen. Wolseley will attempt to get round to Arabi's flank and destroy the railway in his rear communicating with Zagazig. At 2 a.m. the British were marching on Tel-el-Kebir. The attack will probably begin before daylight.

THE COTTON CROP.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept 12—Reports from the interior state that the cotton crop promises well. It is estimated the yield will be only 500,000 cantars below the average.

A transport brigade will be formed at day-break. Thirty rounds of ammunition per man will be carried on the baggage animals which will press on at night. A naval brigade will be attached to the transport corps; forty 40 pounders and nine batteries will accompany the advancing force.

Attempted Train Robbery.

PARSONS, Kansas, Sept 12—The express agent was informed yesterday that an attempt would be made to rob the train. The plan was for two robbers to board the train at Vinitia, capture the conductor and run the train into a side track four miles north of Vinitia, where the gang would meet them and rob the express mail and passengers and then ride away on horses. The express agent telegraphed the plan to his agent and he with detective and others went south on a freight train and boarded the passenger train and made arrangements to thwart the robbers.
