Chicago Gossip.

Marshall, Spader & Co. wired J. G. Beaty, King Edward Hotel, at the close of the market to-day:

Wheat—The sharp advance in wheat early in the day was due to a more or less oversold condition of the market on Saturday, also the influence of the world's shipments of the past tweek, as well as the decrease on ocean of over 2,800,000 bushels. The visible supply statement shows an increase of 1,477,000 bushels, about all of which was in the Northwest. Clearances of wheat and flour 145,000. On the advance to 111½ for May, considerable professional trading was indulged in, which caused a decline of ¾ on the break. There was a fair damand. We look for higher prices before the spring season arrives, and would advise purchases on all sharp reactions.

Corn—Receipts are large. Total at all was 1,278,000 bushels export; clearances also large at 486,000. The visible supply increased 794,000 bushels. Sentiment is more friendly to the long side.

Corn seems to be in the position where there is a good demand, and at the same time a plentiful supply. We are inclined to expect a moderate decline in values during the winter.

Oats—The market has been dull and featureless. Receipts rather larger than expected. The visible supply shows a small decrease for the week.

Provisions—Pork, lard and ribs were all firm, and closed at an advance of 5c to 10c per pound. We expect to see higher prices.

Ennis & Stoppani wired to J. L. Mitchell, McKinnon Building:

Wheat—Wheat, was higher, but the trade was limited almost exclusively to professional channels, and was of moderate volume only. Nevertheless, it is not as dull as usual in holiday week. The strength was mainly due to the decrease of 3,336,000 bushels in supplies on ocean passage, to the lighter world's shipments and to the strength shown at Minneapolis, where millers have recently bought considerable wheat. The visible supply statement was a disappointment to the buyers. It showed double the increase anticipated. The close was fairly firm, ½c under the best prices. We still look for better prices and believe wheat purchased now will show fair profits after the holidays.

Corn—The corn market was firm early, with wheat, but sold off later on pressure from cash houses, who sold May. The car situation, both east and west, shows no improvement. The west is hurrying to bring forward the large quantity sold here for this month and next, and the eastern roads are working to take care of the big export sales. There was some buying on the decline, when wheat sold off by the principal long interest, and when the December is out of the way, higher prices are anticipated.

Oats—There was a light trade in oats, and market ruled firm, but inclined to easiness in December.

Provisions—Provisions ruled firm and rather more active, with buying by packing interests in evidence. Lard looks cheap around present level.

The butchers were out strong, and there was a good demand for good cattle, but the common and inferior stock were more plentiful than is usual on Christmas markets, and these were neglected. Extra Christmas cattle sold at 5c to 5¼c per lb., prime beeves 4½c to 4¾c, good mediums, 3½c to 4¼c, ordinary mediums 3¼c to 3¾c, the common stock 2c to 3c, and the canners 1½c to 2c per lb. A few large bulls sold at about 4c per lb. Milch cows sold at $25 to $45 each. Calves sold at from $2 to $14 each, or 3c to 5c per lb. Sheep sold at 3½c to 3¾c, the lambs at 4¾c to 5¼c per lb. British Cattle Markets.

London, Dec. 19.—Live cattle are quoted at 10c to 13½c per lb.; refrigerator beef at 9¾c per lb.; sheep at 10c to 12½c per pound.

JUNCTION LIVE STOCK.

Receipts at the Union Stock Yards were light, 20 carloads, composed of 411 cattle and 8 hogs.

The quality of the cattle offered was very good. Trade, owing to the light run, was brisk, and prices were, if anything, a little stronger, but this was also on account of the small deliveries.

More good export cattle would have found a good market.

Exporters.

Export cattle sold at $4.12½ to $4.90 per cwt., with one or two choice lots at $5 per cwt. The bulk sold at $4.35 to $4.80 per cwt.

Butchers.

Few butchers' were offered, and the best lots sold at $4.25 to $4.40 per cwt; common to fair at $3.25 to $4.10 per cwt.

Hogs.

The few hogs offered sold at $4.75 per cwt.

Representative Sales.

William Levack bought 14 loads of export and butchers' cattle at following quotations: Prices ranged from $4.12½ to $4.90, with the bulk going at $4.35 to $4.80. For one lot of extra choice picked cattle, $5 per cwt. was paid. It is only fair to add that this price is more than the British markets would warrant at present. Best butchers', at $4.25 to $4.40, and common to fair at $3.25 to $4.10.
