CANADA'S PLACE AT THE PANAMA EXPOSITION

Government Building will Compare Favorably with other Countries.

Mr. H. R. Charlton, general advertising agent of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, has returned to his headquarters in Montreal after a business trip to San Francisco. While in California Mr. Charlton arranged for an early start to be made on the construction of the handsome pavilion which is to house the exhibits of the Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific Railways at the Panama-Pacific exposition next year.

Mr. Charlton has visited most of the big exhibitions of the past twenty-five years and he states that for beauty of situation, grandeur of buildings and general scheme, the San Francisco exposition will mark a new world standard.

Five of the great main exhibit palaces are nearing completion and individual exhibitors will begin the installation of their show pieces this fall so that everything should be ready for the opening in February next. A distinct note of architectural beauty marks these structures. They are delicate and white and gleaming, giving the exposition grounds a fairy-like appearance when lit up at night. The Canadian government building is making headway and it will compare well with those of the thirty-four other nations who have accepted the invitations to take part in the celebration marking the opening of the Panama Canal.

Speaking of the Grand Trunk exhibit, Mr. Charlton says: "We have one of the finest sites in the exposition grounds. This is right opposite the ferry landing where the boats will come in from across the bay. Our building, which will cover about ten thousand square feet will thus be one of the first to catch the eye of thousands of visitors as they enter the exposition. The exhibits will show the wonderful resources of the country through which the Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific Railways pass, while prominence will also be given to the attraction Canada offers to tourists in the Algonquin National Park of Ontario, Muskoka Lakes and the new alpine wonderland opened up in British Columbia by the Grand Trunk Pacific. Thousands of travellers will pass along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific either going to or returning from San Francisco. The attraction of the most modern of transcontinental railroads is likely to prove very strong and the journey along the Pacific Coast between Prince Rupert and San Francisco is also a delightful one.

EASTER MEETING

Oak Point, April 14—At the annual Easter Monday meeting of St. Paul's church, Oak Point, the following officers were elected: Church wardens H. B. Belyea, E. D. Whelpley; vestrymen W. S. Belyea, Harry Brundage, D. A. Richards, A. G. Flewelling, G. B. Pickett, W. L. Belyea, R. F. Watson, B. D. Richards, G. F. Seely, L. D. Fowler, C. K. Cunard, G. F. Flewelling; delegates to Synod W. L. Belyea, G. B. Pickett; substitutes Ernest Gorham B. D. Richards, W. A. Seely, Vesty Out. The reports showed progress and there was a small balance on hand.

Wednesday morning, April 15th, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Whelpley, Miss Margaret V. McLeod passed to her rest, in the sixty-eighth year of her age. She had been in failing health for three years. She was of a gentle unassuming disposition and a consistent church woman and will be very much missed. She was the daughter of the late James and Ann (Baxter) McLeod and granddaughter of the late Colonel McLeod, who was a captain in the royal navy and assisted in the capture of Bonaparte and who came to this country in 1824 and settled about five miles from Oak Point. For several years he represented Kings county in the local legislature and afterwards became registrar of deeds for Kings county. On her mother's side she is of Loyalist descent, being a descendant of Simon Baxter, who setled at Norton.

She leaves two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Whelpley and Mrs. Thomas Harrison, both of whom were with her through her last illness. She also leaves several nephews and nieces, F. W. H. Whelpley of Greenfield, Mass., Mrs. D. R. Whelpley of Cambridge, Mass., Thomas Harrison of New York, Fred Harrison of St. John and Wynett Williams of Keswick.

E. P. Raymond of St. John, Mrs. Prince of Greenwich and Mrs. C. W. Whelpley of Fredericton are cousins.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Thomas Abraham O'Brien took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 420 Brussels street, to the Cathedral, where the burial service was read by Rev. M. O'Brien. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of the late Fred R. Scribner, son of Robt. J. and the late Mary Scribner, took place at the home of his father, Petersville Church, Queens County, on the 15th inst. He is survived by his father, two brothers, Alfred G. at home, and Edw. J. of Shawvan, Saskatchewan, and one sister, Mrs. John S. Corbett.

ELECTION CARDS

CARD OF THANKS

To the Electors of the City of St. John.

Ladies and Gentlemen:—

I most heartily thank you for the support accorded to me in Tuesday's contest, and I hope to receive at the final election on April 28th a continuance of the confidence placed in me.

Yours Sincerely,
George Frederick Fisher.

Election Card

To the Electors of the City of St. John:

Ladies and Gentlemen,—Sincerely let me thank you for the magnificent vote given me on Tuesday, the 14th inst. It proves you like a fighter who is not afraid to fight for the principals for which he stands. Single handed I am fighting this great fight of Tax Reform. It is a glorious fight if I win, for in it is the answer to all your housing, and better conditions socially and morally for the city in which we live; the making of homes, the upbuilding of industrials, and the prosperity of business.

Further let me say my motto is: Everything thing for St. John in steamship and transportation lines; first preference given to our local contractors in all city work; patronize St. John and home industrials; the selling of city lands wherever they may be (they are dead assest); the extension of the ferry service to Union street, West; a fair adjustment of ferry rates to our citizens; the immediate attention to our wharves at Sand Point; the continuing of permanent pavements under the old act, and many other things that I believe which must be made the greatest in the Maritime Provinces. Others are promising you tax reform. The Citizens Committee promised it as the first plank in their platform. The promise is all you have to show. Be fair and let me ride in to victory on my own horse, and let me ask the assistance of all citizens who were unable on account of promises made at the election on Tuesday, the 14th, to assist me with their valued support on April the 28th.

Trusting to be favored again with your valued support, and hoping to receive the additional support from those who were unable at the last election, I am,

Respectfully yours,
F. L. POTTS.

Election Card

To the Electors of the City of St. John:

Ladies and Gentlemen,—I desire to express my sincere appreciation of the very gratifying support accorded me in the primary election of Tuesday. May I voice the hope that in the finals you will by your ballots permit me to serve your wishes for a further period, in returning me to office, and that your opinion as expressed at the polls on Tuesday may be accepted as satisfaction with the manner in which my duties have been performed in the past.

In the department over which I have had the honor to preside I have tried to meet the demands of the public as well and faithfully as my abilities and the facilities at hand enabled me to do.

The policy of improving our streets with permanent pavement and better sidewalk regulations I will continue to urge and popularize. Daily committee meetings are most essential and should be revived. The Assessment Act should be readjusted so as to meet present day objections.

Should you again express your confidence in me by placing me in office I will do my best to justify your support and to conscientiously discharge my obligations and responsibilities which your trust will impose upon me without fear or favor. I have the honor to remain,

Your obedient servant,
M. E. AGAR.

Election Card

To the Electors of the City of St. John

Ladies and Gentlemen,—I am naturally very much gratified with the very hearty support which you have tendered me in the primary election. To those who have so generously supported me I desire to extend my thanks, and to the voters as a whole I wish to say that if favored with a continuation of your approval in the final elections on April 28th I will to the utmost of my ability endeavor to carry out your wishes in the administration of whatever work I may be called upon to perform. My previous experience in civic affairs has, I believe, given me something of an insight into the duties of administration and I hope, if elected, to be able to meet your views in all matters which it may be my duty to decide.

Yours respectfully,
JAMES V. RUSSELL.

ELECTION CARDS

Election Card.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

After the primary election in 1912, I issued a pamphlet of which the following is a copy:

It being absolutely impossible to call upon each and everyone of you before April 23rd, I take this opportunity of again thanking you for the magnificent vote tendered me on April 9th. I wish you to know that your friendly manifestations on that date are esteemed at their full value, and I have accepted them with all the gratitude of which I am capable.

Throughout the campaign I have refrained from canvassing for or against any Candidate, as I accuse no Candidate of any other motive than a desire to do his public duty.

If elected I shall do mine, and it will be the purpose of my administration to maintain authority, to enforce obedience to all the laws of the city in the interests of the people, to demand a rigid economy in all the expenditures which should only be made upon public necessity. Wastefulness, profligacy, or favoritism in public expenditure is nothing short of criminal, but there is nothing in the condition of our city or of our people, to suggest that anything presently necessary to the public prosperity, security or honor, should be unduly postponed.

While a treasury surplus is not the greatest evil, it is a serious evil, but our revenue should be ample to meet the ordinary demands upon our treasury, with a sufficient margin for those extraordinary, but scarcely less imperative demands which arise now and then. As a high sense of duty and ambition to improve the service should characterize each commissioner, I would require honest and faithful services of all the employees of any department I might be elected to administer.

There are many ways in which the convenience and comfort of those who have business with our civic officials may be promoted by thoughtful and obliging officials may be promoted by who occupy such positions to justify their selection by a conspicuous efficiency in the discharge of their duties.

The ideal, or even my own ideal, I would probably not attain. Retrospect will be a safer basis for judgment than promises.

The above copy is reprinted for the purpose of analysing and comparing with my record as a Commissioner for the last two years. It is the duty of each elector to properly weigh the statement made by me two years ago, when seeking your support, and the following questions are suggested for your consideration:—

Has McLellan as Commissioner of Public Safety made an honest effort to maintain authority—enforce obedience to all the laws of the city—demand a rigid economy in all the expenditures — eliminate wastefulness, profligacy, or favoritism in public expenditure—and improve the different services in connection with his department?

The different services in the Safety Department are Police, Fire, Light, Market, and Building Construction.

If I have failed to do so, it is your right to know why, and if I cannot furnish a satisfactory reason for doing so, you will not be expected to extend to me any further support.

Respectfully yours,
H. R. McLELLAN.

Election Card

To the Electors of the City of St. John

Ladies and gentlemen—For the magnificent vote tendered me in the primary election, I desire to convey to you my sincere gratitude. It was a tribute unexpected and I fear undeserved. But in so far as lies in my ability I have endeavored honestly to conduct the affairs of my department in a manner to meet with your approval and I am pleased to learn that you have recognized at least the intention of my endeavors. In the approaching final election I trust that you will be able to honor me with a renewal of your confidence assuring you that my efforts to conduct a satisfactory administration of the department under my control will be in no way diminished but rather augmented by reason of the very generous verdict of approbation which you have already given. On the record of my department for the past two years and on your belief as to what I may be able to accomplish with your support in the future I rely for the measure of success which may attend my efforts.

Yours sincerely,
RUPERT W. WIGMORE,
Commissioner of Water and Sewerage.
