for which we ~~fought and the kind of world we wished to bring into being.~~ are fighting I knew that our soldiers, sailors and airmen had been taken into your hearts and homes, and that the High Command under which they serve ~~was~~ is worthy of the trust we have placed in it. During these short weeks, I have been strengthened in that knowledge ~~and~~ I shall be able to ~~report to my country~~ tell the people of Canada, at ~~this~~ the crest of our collective effort, ~~my belief~~ that ~~everything which can be done will be done~~ that the fighting forces are doing their utmost and that all is being done well, and ~~will be done~~ The singleness of purpose, with which the tasks behind us have been accomplished; and with which greater tasks ahead are being ~~tackled~~ undertaken is ~~our best~~ assurance ~~and~~ of final victory and a constructive peace.

The statement we have signed this morning is a clear and ~~fine~~ fine indication of what the British Commonwealth means to the world. ~~The strength of this association of free nations derives from a common purposes which inspire our people. At these meetings there have been differences of opinion on questions of method and detail; differences which have been expressed with frankness and received with respect.~~ Thanks to the swift and smooth working machinery of consultation which has steadily improved

[illegible] statement will be ~~received with~~ warmly welcomed in all parts of Canada, ~~and by all~~
