TORONTO SECURES OUTFIELDER GEO. CALLAHAN FROM BROOKLYN

LEAFS DIVIDE THE SUNDAY DOUBLE-HEADER WITH NEWARK

CLEVELAND ONLY 4½ GAMES BEHIND C. MACK'S ATHLETICS

HUB. NORTHEN GOES TO NEWARK INDIANS

Leo Callahan, Midget Outfielder of Brooklyn, Comes to Toronto.

WILL JOIN TEAM TODAY

Outfielder Wilson of Dallas Will Be in Line-Up Next Saturday.

President McCaffery wired from Newark yesterday that he had released Northen to Newark, that Callahan would join Toronto today and that Outfielder Wilson of Dallas would join the club next Saturday.

The story is verified also from Brooklyn and Newark.

A Brooklyn despatch said: The Brooklyn National League Club today negotiated a three-cornered deal whereby Bill Collins, the sensational outfielder of the Newarks, will join the Brooklyn Club next Monday. Brooklyn gives Leo Callahan to Toronto for that club's consent to allow Hub Northen to be transferred to Newark, the latter club sending Collins to the major leaguers. Brooklyn will use Collins in right field immediately. He has batted .311 and stolen 22 bases in the International League.

It was announced before the first game at Newark on Sunday that President Ebbets of the Brooklyn team had completed a three-corner deal which involves the Leafs, Indians and Dodgers. Bill Collins, the sensational young outfielder of the Newark team, will report to the Brooklyn Club tomorrow ready for duty. Hub Northen, the hard hitting outfielder of the Leafs, will wear a Newark uniform. For passing Northen over to the Indians the Leafs will get Leo Callahan, the midget outfielder of the Dodgers. Callahan has been used as a pinch hitter by the Dodgers, and on Wednesday beat the Pirates in the first game of a double-header in the tenth inning with a single to left. Callahan is a sure fielder and bats left-handed.

TIM JORDAN HITS OUT DOUBLE IN EACH GAME

Buffalo and Baltimore Split Up Saturday Double-Header.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 16.—The Orioles and Bisons divided honors here today, the locals taking the first game 10 to 7, and dropping the second 10 to 1. The Birds hammered Fred Beebe off the hill in three innings in the first, and Morse, who relieved him, was also ineffective and gave way to Mattison, who pitched good ball. Dave Roth was on the hill for the Birds, and went well until the ninth, when the Bisons got to him for three tallies, when Cottrell went in and squelched the rally. The Bisons hammered the benders of Taff and Morrisette all over the lot in the second engagement. Scores:

ROYALS DEFEAT GRAYS BY A VERY RANK DEAL

Montreal Collects Four Runs on Three Errors by Third Baseman.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 16.—Providence lost to Montreal again today, 6 to 3, mainly thru Deal's wild pegs, his three bad throws giving the Royals four of their half dozen runs. Bailey was wild and was benched in the first inning, Donovan going in. He retired in the seventh, Mitchell completing the game. Clarke was injured by a thrown ball and retired in favor of McGraynor, who, in turn, was succeeded by Smith, McGraynor showing signs of weakening. Score:

THE LEAFS LAMBAST WYATT LEE WALKING OFF WITH FIRST GAME

Indians Could Not Connect With Bert Maxwell, But in Second Game They Gave Kent Unmerciful Drilling—Joe Kelley Gets Two More New Outfielders.

NEWARK, Aug. 17.—(Special.)—Joe Kelley and his Maple Leaf champions made their farewell appearance of the series at Weidermeyer Park today by splitting even with the coming champions in a bargain day bill before a record crowd. The Leafs walked off with the matinee game by the count of 7 to 1. In the nightcap, the champions just crumpled up and the Smith tribe trounced them to the tune of 15 to 1. Bert Maxwell, the big pitcher, who once wore a Giant uniform, was the winning Leaf hurler. Roger Kent, the former Dodgers' mound man, was touched for eighteen safe wallops, including four doubles, two triples and a home run drive by Eddie Zimmerman in the second game.

Maxwell was in fine form in the first game, and held the Indians to five hits. In only one innings did the Smith tribe manage to squeeze a run over the plate. The Leafs backed Bert up in splendid style, and did not make an error.

The Kelleyites jumped into a two-run lead in the second innings of the first struggle. Kroy was hit by a pitched ball and ambled to first. Pick drew four bad ones and walked to the initial bag, while Kroy moved up to second. Pick fell asleep, Higgins' perfect throw nailed him two feet off first base. Hugh Bradley slammed a straight fast one over Collins' head for three bases, scoring Kroy with the first run of the day. Bill Bradley stung a single to right, and the other Bradley crossed the plate with run No. 2 for the Leafs. Willie Zimmerman robbed Graham of a triple by making a bare-hand catch of his long drive to left. Maxwell struck out.

The Indians scored their only run in the third chapter. Getz beat out an infield hit. After Higgins fouled out to Graham, Getz stole second. Wyatt Lee, who pitched the first game of the series and shut them out, walked. Collins singled to centre and Getz counted. Lee moved to second on the hit. Gagnier fanned. Dalton grounded to McConnell, and Collins was forced at second, McConnell to Pick.

Revenge on Wyatt Lee.

The Leafs finally got revenge on Lee by knocking him out of the box in the fifth innings by scoring four runs. Willie Bradley singled to left and Graham followed suit, sending the third-baseman to the far bag. Maxwell shot a hit thru Lee's hands, scoring Bradley and advancing to second. McConnell laid down a tap and the runner moved up a peg. O'Hara came to the front with a single to left, chasing home Graham and Maxwell. Shultz forced O'Hara at second, Gagnier to Getz. Kroy doubled to left, scoring O'Hara. Pick went out, Lee to Swacina.

Shacht went in to pitch for the Indians in the sixth, and the Leafs tabbed him for the last run of the game. H. Bradley lifted to Eddie Zimmerman. Bill Bradley filed out to Getz. Graham doubled to right and rode home on Maxwell's single. McConnell filed out to Dalton.

There was nothing to the second battle but the Indians. The Smith aggregation took the lead in the third innings by scoring one run, and was never headed. In the second three more runs were registered by the Indians. The fifth saw five more runs, and in the sixth the same number was chalked up by the coming champions. The last Newark count came in the eighth.

Jackey Holmes, the former Buffalo hurler, occupied the mound for the Indians and baffled the Leafs from the start. Only four hits were made off Duckey—one by O'Hara, one by Billy Bradley, and the other two by Hugh Bradley. Hi Meyer got four hits in the second game, including a two-bagger and a triple.

Collins was ordered out of the game and from the field in the first of the second battle for disputing vigorously a decision by Umpire Mullin. Scores:

JERSEY CITY, Aug. 17.—Rochester bade farewell to Jersey City for this season by rushing thru two more victories over the Skeeters in the double-header this afternoon, giving the Hustlers four games straight, and making Jersey City's home record eleven successive defeats. GUELPH LANDS FIRST AND HAMS THE SECOND Killilea Injured in Sliding to Third and May Be Out for the Season.

GUELPH, Aug. 16.—Hamilton and Guelph broke even in the last appearance of the former team on the Guelph grounds this season in a double-header this afternoon, a large crowd being present. The Leafs captured the first game in easy fashion, due to the grand pitching of Kirley, and the heavy hitting of the team behind him. Crowley was batted to all corners of the lot. The second game went to the visitors after the Leafs had secured an early lead by hitting Donohue hard, but the Kolts got to Fitzpatrick hard in three innings and won easily, Donohue settling down nicely after the third innings. Jack Fryer's batting was a feature of both games. The Leafs worked a new first baseman named Page, a Cleveland lad, in the second game, and he showed up well. Manager Cook will be given a rest for perhaps the balance of the season. Killilea, Hamilton's fielder, was seriously hurt in the first game, while sliding into third base, after making a three-base hit. He may be out of the game for the balance of the season. The scores:
