Meaning of Cemetery

It is not correct to say that "cemetery" means the "city of the dead." The word is from the Greek "koimeterion," meaning sleeping place not the place of the dead. There is nothing in the etymology of the word to warrant us in thinking that it was originally intended to convey the idea that the departed were really dead any more than there is in the old Hebrew term for cemetery, "bethaim," the house of the living.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

This, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

THE FIRST AND LAST OF THE FATHERS

(By Michael Whelan)

"For fiery, fierce and fickle is the south,
But loving, dark and tender is the north."
McGee's Sp. on Confed.

Hon. T. D. McGee, d. 1818.

Brave Erin's brilliant and most gifted son,
Whose sad and tragic fate all hearts deplore,
Struck down in death just at the very door
Of Union's glorious temple, but begun,
And as the fearful fight was fairly won!
All hearts by deepest grief were stricken sore
Their tears in torrents on his tomb they pour.
This well-beloved and grandly gifted one.
Alas! the noblest cause has foolish friends
More fell, fendish than the fiercest foe,
Who seek in strife their ally (selfish ends),
Dealing fair Freedom with a chain of woe.
Brave Lincoln died for broader, better laws,
McGee was murdered for his country's cause.

Sir Charles Tupper, d. 1915

(By Michael Whelan)

Sir Charles Tupper, last of that great band,
The famous thirty-three, the fathers all
Who met in old Quebec's historic hall
To formulate one Law for this great land,
To lay the firm foundation that should stand
The test of time and every storm and wall
The public freedom from the things that maul
The public weal from foiled knave and fool.

Had His Grave Ready For Burial

(Sackville Post)

Lance-Corporal Stewart, a brother of Mrs. H. H. Woodworth of this town, arrived in St. John a few days ago, and is now in the Parks Soldiers' Home in that city. Mr. Stewart was very badly wounded some months ago in France or Belgium, and while he has greatly improved, is still unfit for service. A bullet went through his head, rendering him speechless, and unable to move. For several hours he lay on the battlefield, and when found by his companions, they agreed he was dead and had actually started digging his grave when one of them noticed a slight movement on the part of the wounded man, and they concluded not to bury him but took him to the nearest hospital. For weeks Stewart lay unconscious but he gradually recovered, and is now almost himself again.
