The official report show a total of 30,000 cases in Spain since the inception of the scourge up to last evening, and a total of 13,000 deaths.

Rioting in Hertfordshire.

While Orangemen of Ryehouse, Hertfordshire, were celebrating the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne yesterday, they were attacked by a mob of Catholics, and a desperate fight occurred. Fence palings, table legs and chairs were freely used, and many heads were broken. The police were powerless to suppress the riot, which was ultimately quelled by priests.

The Waterford Riot.

One of the civilians killed in the riot at Watford, Ireland, yesterday, was Peter Grant. During the hottest part of the conflict a soldier attacked Grant and plunged his bayonet through his heart. Grant fell dead on the spot. The tragedy infuriated the people, and they fell with such ferocity upon the troops that the latter retreated to barracks. The barracks were beseiged all night by citizens, who, although they were unable to break in, smashed every window in the buildings. Excitement in the city lasted all night, and every soldier seen on the streets was attacked. Some straggling soldiers were stoned, beaten and kicked until unconscious. Those who escaped mob violence did it by fleeing to barracks or police stations for refuge. Two privates were arrested this morning on suspicion of being guilty of Grant's murder. A number of civilians professed to be able to identify the soldier who killled Grant. The excitement remains unabated. The Grand Jury held an inquest on the body of Peter Grant. They found that he came to his death by a bayonet wound inflicted by a soldier of the South Wales Borderers, adding that in the interests of peace the regiment should be forthwith removed from the city.

Disastrous Storm in Allegheny Valley

Pittsburg, July 13.—Shortly before dark this evening Allegheny Valley was visited by one of the most disastrous storms ever known. Rain fell in torrents for an hour. Wind blew a hurricane, and thunder and lightning was incessant. Reports of great damage are received from various points along the Allegheny River between this city and Louisville. At Hadmasville, lightning struck the telegraph office, killing instantly James McFeeders, a student, aged 12 years, and rendering unconscious the operator, Miss Hazlett. The building was partly wrecked. Tracks in some places have been washed away and in others debris is piled five feet high. Trains have been stopped in all directions. At Hill's Station a freight train run into a land slide and was badly wrecked.

It has been definitely decided that the return of the Halifax Battalion from the North-west will not be the occasion of a formal demonstration at Halifax.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

THE RUSSIAN ATTACK ON PENJDEH.

No Definite Arrangements Yet Made for Arbitration—Preparations to be Continued Until an Arrangement With Russia is Effected—A Monument to Gen. Gordon.

London, July 13.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Mr. Bourke, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, stated that nothing had yet been definitely arranged by the present Government for arbitration, to determine whether the Russian attack on Penjdeh was consistent with Russia's promises previously made.

Mr. Buchanan (Liberal), asked whether it was true England intended to establish a cantonment near Candahar.

Lord Randolph Churchill replied:—"The honorable gentleman seems to forget that Afghanistan is an independent state."

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach stated the Government would erect a monument to Gen. Gordon, and would propose a credit therefor.

Mr. Bentinck (Conservative) asked the Home Department whether the Pall Mall Gazette's charges against the London police in connection with that paper's revelations of the iniquity in the city were true.

Sir Richard A. Cross replied that if the facts were as stated by the Gazette the fullest inquiry would be made, and that he considered it his duty to endeavor to get to the bottom of the charges.

During the discussion of the army supplementary estimates, Mr. W. H. Smith, War Secretary, on the vote for 35,000 men, explained that the Government would remain in a state of preparation until the arrangement about to be concluded with Russia was finally settled. There was, he said, no intention on the part of the Government to call for additional men unless occasion arose.

The Marquis of Hartington, ex-War Minister, referred to the intention of the late Government to evacuate the Province of Dongola, in the Soudan, and expressed a wish to know whether the present Government meant to continue the work of constructing the Nile Railway.

Mr. Smith replied that the Government would not abandon the railway behind the defending force, but had no intention to increase the British force in Egypt.

THE LONDON SCANDAL.

Another Blast From the "Pall Mall Gazette"—Suggestions for Reform of the Criminal Laws—A Sermon From Mr. Spurgeon.

London, July 13.—Rev. Mr. Spurgeon preached a powerful sermon on the "Patrician iniquity of London, as exposed by the Pall Mall Gazette." Mr. Spurgeon took for his text the 16th verse of the second chapter of the Epistle of St Paul to the Romans, which he quoted in defence of the Pall Mall Gazette's work in making its revelations. St. Paul, the preacher said, felt it necessary to mention the hideous vices of the heathens, and left on record an exposure of the sins of their day which crimsoned the cheek of modest men to read it. It had to be written to the shame and abomination of an age almost past shame. There was judgment for sin in this world for both men and nations. Assyria, Babylon, Persia, Rome and Egypt were empires of oppression, cruelty and iniquity. When the sins of these people could not longer be tolerated they were wiped off the face of the earth. But no one could feel what blood shedding and suffering came upon men for their iniquity. "Should London," exclaimed the preacher, "be more favored than Rome?" "What is there about our boastful race on this or the other side of the Atlantic that we should monopolize God's favor? God will judge men's secret sins, too vile to be spoken of, and which cause nations to shudder, if dragged, as they ought to be, into daylight—deeds of night, of the closed room, done when the finger is put upon the lip, and acts commit'ed which must never be mentioned. Is man himself to be regarded as an outcast, even of his fellow sinners? All, all, shall be revealed—all that we have for our own comfort blinded our eyes to, and avoided our gaze from, such things inconvenient to see shall be revealed. We have made a difference between the secret and the public, but God does not. Every secret sin is screened by a lying phantasy of the imagination; it is public before God. It is necessary for the Church to warn men of what will happen if they continue in their sins and not keep in a fool's paradise until they be sent down to hell's damnation. It becomes every preacher to cry out and spare not.

The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon, in response to requests for its opinion as to the nature of the changes required in the present English criminal law, makes several important suggestions. It makes, first, an addition to the criminal act, raising the age at which female children may legally consent to sinful conduct, from 13 years, the present period, to 16. Second, extension of the law prohibiting soliciting to both sexes. Third, denial of any additional power over a woman to the police that will aid in the suppression of crime, and not at suppression of vice, that is, complete legal liberty for voluntary immorality between adults contracting on equal terms, but rigorous repression of sexual criminality in all cases in which the parties are under age, or the elements of full, free and intelligent consent are absent. Fourth, greatly increased stringency in the laws against procuration.

A mass meeting of women was held in Princess Hall this afternoon to consider ways and means to protect young girls from the horrible pitfalls of London as revealed by the Pall Mall Gazette. Mrs. Booth and other ladies made eloquent addresses. The meeting resolved that the laws on the subject should forthwith be made more efficient; denounced the State regulation of vice; demanded total repeal of the Contagious Disease Act, and that the age of consent be raised from 13 to 18.

The Pall Mall Gazette in an editorial commenting on the results of its revelations, declares that its "trumpet blast has roused the world." "No word was raised yesterday in the churches against us," continued the paper, "but all the forces of wickedness in high places arrayed against us. W. H. Smith & Sons, possessing the monopoly of the news stands on the railway system of England have suppressed their sales of the Pall Mall Gazette. The Prince of Wales has stopped his paper. Mr. Bentinck is posing in Parliament in the name of outraged morality and clamours for our extinction. The Gazette did not undertake this inqury to unearth the vices of the great, but if we are driven to bay we will be compelled by the action of our assailants to speak out and spare not."

MONTREAL.

The Irish National League—Honor for the Mayor—Small-pox—Found Drowned—The Reception of the Volunteers.

The Montreal Branch of the Irish National League have decided to issue a manifesto to Irishmen of Canada calling upon them for support and subscriptions towards the national parliamentary fund, for payment of Irish members in the Imperial Parliament, and to defray expenses of the forthcoming elections.

Mayor Beaugrand received a telegram today from Comte de Sesmaisons, late French Consul at Quebec, informing him that the President of the French Republic had conferred upon him the Cross of the Legion of Honor.

Six new cases of small-pox were reported in the city to day. The mortuary returns show that there were ten deaths in the city proper from the disease and five in the adjoining municipalities. It is stated that when Chief of Police Benoit, of St. Henrie, entered a house in which a boy died from small-pox, one of the inmates threatened to shoot him if he attempted to enter.
