ALD. SPENCE ALL RIGHT.

He Retains His Seat in the City Council—Yesterday's Doings at Osgoode Hall.

Ald. Spence's mind is greatly relieved this morning, for he is to be allowed to retain his seat. The Master-in-Chambers yesterday dismissed the application to unseat him on the ground of his failing to qualify on property.

The late James McQuoid of 154 Sydenham-street, at the time of his death, had a suit against the city for damages for injuries received in a fall on an icy sidewalk. The Master-in-Chambers allowed Mrs. McQuoid to be substituted as plaintiff yesterday, and the damages asked to be raised to $15,000.

On petition of George E. Brooks of Wiarton, an order has been granted, winding up the Georgian Bay Sawlog Salvage Company.

The appeal in the case of Harris v. the Bank of Toronto has been allowed, while that in the suit of Thibeaudeau Bros. v. Nicholas Garland over the Clinton S. Herbert stock was dismissed.

The MacLean Publishing Company were granted their appeal against the judgment given by a lower court in favor of Hunter, Rose & Co., in their suit over the publication of two rival journals. Hunter, Rose & Co. claimed that the title of their paper, the Canadian Bookseller and Library Journal, was infringed upon by the MacLeans' Canada Bookseller and Stationer. The Divisional Court's judgment gives the MacLeans the victory. The finding will likely be appealed to the Court of Appeal.

In Henry v. Dickey and Bell v. Ogdersburg, the Divisional Court has affirmed the lower court's judgment. The appeal in Denison v. Hoover has been dismissed.

To-Day's Peremptories.

Single Court, 11 a.m.: Faulkner v. Doin, Welsbach v. Williams, Gloyd v. Walkerville, re estate of John L. Brodie, Can. Perm. v. Matthews, re Toronto Upholstering Company, Manchester v. C.O.O.F.

Non-Jury, 10 a.m.: Fierheller v. Billbrough (continued), Beatty v. Gregory, Pearson v. Harvey, White v. White, Stephens v. Molsons, Credit Foncier v. Laurie.

Divisional Court, 11 a.m.: Morning Journal v. Georgian Bay, Horsfall v. Parker, Ontario v. Citizens, Bank B.N.A. v. Walker, Thompson v. Doyle, Bryce v. Baillie.

With the Colonel Yesterday.

James Lynch bobbed up serenely in the Police Court again yesterday, this time on a charge of non-payment of $26 livery hire to T. Peacock, Kingstreet east. Lynch hired a horse and buggy on Christmas Day. It was returned some days later, the rig being badly damaged. His defence is that two men, who stole the horse and buggy, had given their promise that they would settle the damage. The case was adjourned till March 4, His Worship advising Lynch to effect a settlement.

Another case of non-payment of livery hire was that against Adolph Folger, the complainant being Stephen McInerney. The amount in question is $12, and an order was made for its payment within 20 days.

Arthur Stemman, accused of being concerned in the theft of a gold watch and chain belonging to old Florance O'Leary, was remanded till March 4.

William Tisdale, charged with stealing clothing from Mrs. Eagle's boarding house on Adelaide-street, was remanded for a week at the request of the Crown, bail being allowed.

A tramp named Thomas King preferred jail to the House of Industry, and was sent down for 30 days as a vagrant.

Hotelkeepers' Convention.

The annual convention of the Hotelkeepers' Protective Association will be held at Ottawa, March 25 and 26. It is expected that the decision of the Privy Council defining the rights of the Dominion and the Province, in reference to the liquor question, will have been received prior to the meeting. Mr. Dickey, the secretary of the association, has just returned from the Ottawa district, where the weather has been colder than it has been for years.

Business Embarrassments.

John McDonald, general store, Meaford, has assigned to W. A. Campbell.

A meeting of the creditors of the Presbyterian Publishing and Printing Company will be held on Friday.

T. Cleghorn & Son are offering creditors 25 cents on the dollar.

Louis Rajette, general store, Pembroke, has assigned to R. Delahaye.

Henry Proctor, drugs, Drayton, is offering to compromise.

W. J. Wilson & Co., general store, Greenway, are offering to compromise at 50 cents on the dollar.

E. R. Martin, auctioneer, Kingston, is offering to compromise at 20 cents on the dollar.

The creditors of Allen & Co., dry-goods, Ottawa, meet on March 4.

The statement of Toronto Upholsterers Company shows a deficit of $4000.

A dividend of 13 cents on the dollar has been declared on the estate of Fred Doggett, marble dealer of St. Thomas. An offer of 25 cents was refused by the creditors at the time of the assignment a year ago.

H. E. Thornton, general store, Tamworth, has assigned.

At the instance of George E. Brooks, of Wiarton, an order was granted today winding up the Georgian Bay Sawlog Salvage Company, whose head office is in this city.

Mrs. Nannie Field, wife of Marshal Field, the Chicago millionaire dry goods merchant, died at Nice, France, on Sunday. She had been in poor health for years, and had been constantly in Europe since 1891.

AN UNDERTAKER'S FEE.

The Funeral is Over, But the Collection of Expenses Only Begun.

Who shall pay an undertaker's bill? is one of the problems before the York Township Council. The bill amounts to only $10, but it has brought to light an interesting story:

An old man, William Williamson, formerly a druggist, but one of those natures who haven't the knack of succeeding at anything they undertake, drifted, finally, to the town line near Little York, and for ten years lived with and worked as a farm hand for a man named Armstrong. Armstrong, in turn, looked after him and paid the crippled old man of 75 years a wage that he could probably never make returns for.

About one and one-half months ago Williamson went to Orangeville to visit relatives there. On his return to Toronto, some three weeks later, he got hold of a glassful of something stronger that pop and when the time came to go home couldn't remember where he lived. The police, accordingly, took him in charge and a city magistrate sent him to jail until his memory returned. Here he fell sick and never left the walls again alive. The city, finding out where he lived, shipped what remained of Williamson to Little York, where Undertaker Hunter gave him Christian burial, and as he had, for so long, been a resident of the township, sent the bill in to the council. On receiving it, one or two of the members threw out a hint that Armstrong might have been charitable enought to bury the man who had "bunked" with him during 10 years, but it didn't get rid of the question, as the town line farmer felt that he had already done his share.

A Modern Factory.

If anybody doubts the practical value of space, light and ventilation in manufacturing premises, he should be made aware of the pains and expense to which intelligent proprietors go in securing these adjuncts. The new premises of the Gendron Manufacturing Company on Duchess and Ontario-streets in this city afford evidence of what its management deems necessary in the directions we have indicated. A hundred and fifty men, soon to be increased to two hundred, are now at work in these attractive premises, which on the four floors, 100 by 200 feet each, offer a space of 80,000 square feet for the various industries of this well-known company. One scarcely knows which most to admire: the laborious care with which the important parts of a bicycle are slowly built up at the forge, or the rapidity shown in putting together tricycle wheels, the wonders of chemistry, by which a roughened iron surface is transformed into tin, silver or nickel, or the wonders of manual skill and taste shown in rattan work or upholstery. A visit to the show-room proves that in design, in color, in pattern, good taste generally characterizes the products. A great variety of work is turned out from this factory. Here are produced not only the well-known "Reliance" and Gendron bicycles, but hammocks are woven, children's carriages and sleighs made, cane and rattan goods, boys' wagons, sleighs and tricycles turned out. A high class of labor is needed in many of the processes seen here for machinery has not yet been invented that will take the place of quick eyes and clever fingers in certain kinds of work. But machinery they have in plenty, and are putting in another steam engine to increase the power of the factory.

A Hamilton Film Flammer.

It would appear from The World's Hamilton despatches, published elsewhere in these columns, that the good people of the Ambitious City are being imposed upon by a "fakir" of the first water. There is no such publication in this city as The Toilette; neither is there such an institution as the Toronto Fashion Company, located at 115 King-street, east or west.

Granted Separation de Corps.

Montreal, Feb. 26.—(Special.)—Judge Archibald to-day pronounced separation de corps in the case of Madame Adelaide S. Gault and her husband, John S. Allan, the defendant being condemned to pay plaintiff $600 per month. It will be remembered that Jack Allan left Montreal three years ago in company with a well-known lady here, and the couple have since then been living in Australia.

What Shall Her Name Be?

The Niagara Navigation Co. invite suggestions for an appropriate name for the new steamer which is being built. It is a stipulation that the name be of three syllables and not more than 20 letters. Mr. Nicholas Wetherston has suggested "Conchia," which is the Spanish equivalent for Constance. Any other suggestions may be sent to The World. Here is a chance for ingenious readers. An Indian name would be preferred.

your child

You note the difference in children. Some have nearly every ailment, even with the best of care. Others far more exposed pass through unharmed. Weak children will have continuous colds in winter, poor digestion in summer. They are without power to resist disease, they have no reserve strength. Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, is cod-liver oil partly digested and adapted to the weaker digestions of children.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch to-day from Chicago:

There was a very fair speculative trade to-day. May sold off to 66½c. On announcement that 20 loads had been taken for export and the clearances at 378,000 bush, the market again rallied to
