There is nothing later from Havana. It seems to be generally conceded that the Virginius was owned by Cuban insurrectionists, and had no right to fly the United States flag. A strong United States fleet will soon rendezvous in Cuban waters.

The gale, yesterday, in various sections of the West, caused great destruction; many buildings were levelled with the ground.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.

A HITCH IN THE VIRGINIUS MATTER.

The Spanish Government requested the United States yesterday to modify the protocol in the Virginius affair so as to provide that instead of being surrendered to our authorities the vessel may be delivered to some neutral power, to be agreed upon by Spain and the United States, and held until its real character is determined by a competent tribunal. This Government replied at once, refusing to accede, and there the matter rested at last accounts.

FORT GARRY, Dec. 5.

A FIRE

last night burned the Parliament buildings. All the books and official documents were saved.

TORONTO, Dec. 5.

THE GALE AT TORONTO

and vicinity was very destructive. The gas works, General Hospital and Normal School were seriously damaged. Loss $100,000.

The Spanish Government intends to push the bombardment of Cartagena.

It is reported that a disagreement has occurred between Castellar and Salmeron.

The Government Squadron has not been seen in the vicinity of Cartegena.

The Insurgents, in its absence, procured fresh supplies and captured several provision boats.

OTTAWA, Dec. 5.

Yesterday a tremendous gale swept over Ottawa doing a large amount of damage. Several buildings in course of erection were blown down. Two men are reported killed. The gable end was blown out of the new Catholic Church. One church spire was blown down. The slating was blown from the Parliament buildings in large quantities. The wires are blown down both East and West.

Heavy contracts on the Welland Canal are to be let next week.

A deputation from the Local Government of Manitoba will visit Ottawa soon to secure the co-operation of the Dominion Cabinet in carrying into effect the legislation of the Manitoba Legislature and enlarging that Province. It is proposed to extend it easterly to boundaries of Ontario.

A clerk in a dry goods store, named Evans, attempted suicide yesterday. He had been representing himself as a Lord Granville, and had been a visitor at Rideau Hall. Enquiries showed him to be a thorough impostor. The shame of discovery led him to make the attempt upon his life. He left Ottawa to-day.

NEWPORT, RI, Dec 3d—Stmr Old Colony, when nearing this port this morning, fell in with the Brenton Reef light-ship, adrift. The steamer succeeded, after about two hour's work, in securing her and towed her into this port. There has been a heavy sea on for some days, which accounts for the accident. The vessel will be replaced immediately, as the locality where she is stationed is a dangerous one for sailing craft.

Special Telegram to the Tribune.

The Definite Abandonment of the Eastern End of the Canada Pacific —The Storm—Riel to be Outlawed.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6.

The McMullen-Mackenzie plot for the relief of the Northern Pacific Railway is opening out gradually. The Toronto Globe is busy writing up the Northern Pacific, overrating its facilities, etc., and it is believed that the members of the Reform Ring are largely interested in it. The Times, which was bought up in the interests of the Grit Government, and is their semi-official organ, has a long article strongly endorsing the proposed railway policy of the Government, and arguing against the feasibility of the link to the north of Lake Superior. This portion of the line is condemned as ruinously expensive, and the arguments used prove beyond a doubt that it is intended to forever abandon it and continue to make use of the Northern Pacific and other lines in the United States.

Further accounts from the surrounding country show that the ravages of the gale were very severe. Numerous barns were blown down, and a farmer near Ottawa was killed by his barn door blowing in upon him.

The Ministers are all expected at Ottawa soon.

The Manitoba Court has issued a writ of Capias ad Respondendum in Riel's case, and he not having appeared for trial, he will soon be declared outlawed.

Lily Lake.

The ice on Lily Lake is now as smooth as glass. An immense crowd of skaters have gone out to-day to enjoy it.

Portland Police Court.

The only prisoner arrested last night was Thomas McColgan, charged with being drunk in Mr. McJunkin's hall. He was sober enough this morning to deposit $4 and leave. Not putting in an appearance the $4 was declared forfeited and court adjourned.

Auction Sales.

Messrs. Lockhart & Chipman opened the ball at Chubb's corner this noon by selling 9 shares of Skating Rink stock—8 shares were sold for $20.50 and 1 for $21—par value $20.

Messrs. Stewart & White sold 6 shares Bank of New Brunswick stock at $163 per share to Messrs. Kinnear Brothers.

$5000 in St. Stephen School debentures were offered. As the highest bid was $90 the lot was withdrawn.

The Lower Cove Boiler Shop and lot, owned by Mr. J. W. Fleming, was then sold. It was purchased by Mr. Charles Hilyard for $2,950.

A Plea for the Regatta Stewards.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

DEAR SIR: It appears to me that considerable unnecessary excitement is being made because the good and faithful Stewards of the late Regatta, feeling that they had been overworked and needed a little something to "brace on," thought fit to give themselves a "free lunch" at the Victoria Hotel.

If they felt hungry and had not enjoyed "a good square meal" for some time, or if they were thirsty and thought they needed a little "Moet and Chandon" at somebody else's expense, or if one of them happened to be a Director for a first class hotel and wanted to "ring in" a little business for the house, whose business (as one of the Stewards very properly remarked) is it?

If the surplus had been large enough. the generous hearted Stewards would liked to have invited all the subscribers, and oarsmen who took part in the Regatta, but how could they do that when there was only $800 and the dinner to cost $5 a head? Even the new Finance Minister has brains enough to calculate how many they could feed at that rate.

Some poor idiot, who probably became morose through losing on Biglin, wanted to know why they did not give the surplus to the poor? To which they replied "The poor ye have always with you, but us ye have not always."

In the language of the late lamented "Paul Pry" "I hope I don't intrude." As a small subscriber of Five Dollars I felt called upon to say something on behalf of the poor persecuted Stewards—and if called upon on any future occasion I shall always be found ready and willing to subscribe

NARY CENT.

Owing to the large amount of travel between this city and St. John, much of which comes from the westward on the Maine Central day trains, the Directors of the E. & N.
