

Personal Mention

Mr. M. W. Graves went to Canning Monday.

Pte. Percy Norman was a passenger on Weymouth Saturday.

Miss Odessa McGowan was a passenger to Windsor Monday.

Pte. Harvey Hearn returned to Halifax via Friday's express.

Mrs. (Dr.) Goodspeed, of Paradise, was in Bridgetown Monday.

Mr. George Dixon returned home Friday from a trip to Digby county.

Miss Louise Ruggles was among the passengers to Halifax yesterday.

Dr. T. H. MacDonald, of Meteghan, was in Yarmouth Thursday evening.

Dr. Hall, of Lawrenceport, was in Bridgetown Saturday between trains.

Mrs. Robert Shaw, of Annapolis, has been spending a few days in Middleton.

Miss Alice Fennerty, of Brickton, spent Sunday with friends in Bridgetown.

Rev. W. A. Langille passed through Bridgetown Saturday from Halifax for Yarmouth.

Miss Lila Goucher, of Digby, was in Bridgetown this week, registered at the St. James.

Mr. Judson Shaw, who spent Sunday in Bridgetown, has returned to Windsor Forks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dodge are moving into Mrs. John Lockett's house, Granville street.

Mr. W. F. Kempton, of Yarmouth, passed through Bridgetown Monday en route to Halifax.

Miss Todd arrived here Saturday from Cambridge, Kings Co., to visit her brother in Dalhousie.

Capt. W. R. Longmire has returned from his trip to Parrishboro and other N. S. and N. B. towns.

Pte. L. R. Reese, of Granville, was a passenger to Halifax the 4th to report for Military Service.

Mr. Charles Trask, of Nictaux, was in town this week on business in connection with the foundry.

Mr. Horace Bishop, of Lloyd's machine shops, Kentville, spent Sunday at his home in Bridgetown.

Stewart Dent and Joseph E. Steadman were passengers from Young's Cove for Halifax Wednesday.

Mr. S. S. Bauld, of Granville Ferry, was among the guests at the St. James hotel Monday evening.

Mr. E. B. Elderkin, of Halifax, was a passenger through Bridgetown via yesterday's west bound express.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Thies, who were passengers to Halifax via Wednesday's express, have returned home.

Mr. G. E. Banks, one of Bridgetown's popular plumbers, returned Saturday from a business trip to Halifax.

Capt. W. M. Tupper, of Tupperville, returned yesterday for Parrishboro in connection with some vessel property at that port.

Mr. and Mrs. Young Anthony, who spent the winter in Florida, arrive today en route to their home in Port Lorne.

Mr. G. E. Tupper, of South Brookfield, Queens county, is visiting his father, Mr. C. B. Tupper, Granville street.

Miss Gladys VanBelskirk, of Middleton, spent Sunday in Bridgetown, the guest of Mrs. Hector McLean, Queen street.

Mr. John Simpson, of Kennetcook, Maine county, who has been visiting Arthur T. Marshall, returned home Monday.

Miss Mildred McNeil, trained nurse, who spent Sunday at her home in North Range, returned to Bridgetown Monday.

His many friends were pleased to see Mr. Arthur T. Marshall on the street again Saturday after his recent accident.

Mr. Melbourne Wentzell returned from Halifax Saturday and is visiting his father, Mr. James Wentzell, at Granville.

Pte. Howard Carey and bride, who were recently married in Annapolis, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart, Annapolis.

Miss M. Tupper, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Fitz-Randolph, returned to Round Hill Saturday.

Miss Harriett Allen, of Nictaux, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Wheelock, Clarence, was in town Wednesday.

Capt. E. H. Lewis and crew of the steamer Valinda, were passengers to Annapolis Friday to join the boat at that port.

Nursing Sister Miss Eva Miller, of Bridgetown, has arrived safely in France and is now at General Hospital No. 6.

Mrs. Charles Parker, formerly a resident of Bridgetown, is moving from Clarence to her new home in Deep Brook.

Messrs. L. M. Trask and H. E. Clave are here clearing up the interior of Mr. Trask's foundry and removing some of the machinery.

Miss Vera Ruffee left for Halifax on Monday, where she has accepted a position as stenographer with Messrs. A. J. Bell & Co.

Miss Edith Reese, of Bear River East, was a guest at the home of Mrs. J. H. Reese, Granville, to spend the Easter holidays.

Wolville Acadian: Rev. G. W. Miller spent a few days at Bridgetown this week as a representative of the Halifax Presbytery.

News has been received of the safe arrival in Hamilton, Bermuda, on Tuesday last of His Grace Archbishop Wrenn and Mrs. Wrenn.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Underwood were passengers to Digby Monday to attend the Rural Deaconry meeting which is now in session in that town.

Mrs. O. A. Price, who has been spending the winter in Bridgetown, has returned to her home in Bridgetown East, for the summer.

Mr. W. C. Archibald, on his return from St. John, spent several days in Bridgetown, leaving for Wolfville via Saturday's express.

Messrs. I. J. Whitman, of Torbrook, and R. J. Sheffer, of Lawrenceport, were among the guests at the St. James Hotel, Thursday night.

Kentville Advertiser: Miss Ethel McNeil came to her home at Aylesford to spend Easter, from her school duties, at Hampton, Annapolis Co.

Mrs. Peter Smith and daughter, Grace, who have been spending the winter in Nulty, N. J., return today to their home in Port Lorne.

Hon. S. W. W. Pickup, of Granville Ferry, and Hon. H. M. Robichaud, of Cheticamp, passed through Bridgetown Monday en route to Halifax.

Rev. D. K. Grant, M. A., of Middleton, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church in Bridgetown Sunday, returning via Monday's express.

Berwick Register: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Adams, and Miss Connie, left Wednesday morning for Annapolis Royal, where they will spend the summer.

Middleton Outlook: P. R. Bentley returned Thursday from Berwick after a very successful show of ready to wear goods, which he held in that town.

Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Templeman, who spent the winter in Bridgetown, have returned to Port Lorne to open up their summer hotel in that village.

Mr. Frank Dodge, the hustling salesman for Hall & Fairweather, St. John, was in Tiverton yesterday, calling on the enterprising merchants of that town.

Mr. R. V. Arnold, the popular and obliging manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Bridgetown, spent Sunday in Sussex, N. B., owing to the serious illness of his mother.

Miss C. M. Hall, a member of the nursing staff of the County Hospital, St. John, who had been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. V. Jones, returned to the city on Monday.

Mr. E. R. Machum, the popular maritime manager of the Manufacturers' Life Insurance, spent the week end in Bridgetown, the guest of Mr. E. C. Hall, Granville street.

The friends of Miss Nellie Bent will be glad to hear that she is doing well since being operated on in the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax. She expects to return in two weeks.

Mrs. (Major) Parker, of Middleton, spent the Easter holidays in Wolfville, a guest at the Acadia Villa, while she visited her daughter, who is a student at Acadia Seminary.

Rev. F. H. Bone, Baptist, who, since his graduation at Acadia three years ago, has labored with much success on the Canning field, has accepted a call to the church at Bear River.

Messrs. Geo. E. Graham, general manager, and R. U. Parker, general passenger agent of the D. A. R., were in Bridgetown Monday afternoon, returning from a trip to Yarmouth.

Pte. John Hamilton, who recently returned from overseas, has been honorably discharged and left Monday for Noel to join the Bridgetown sch. Mayflower, which has been frozen in at that port for Boston, and will sail as soon as the ice permits.

Middleton Outlook: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Day have just taken possession of their new bungalow just completed at Aylesford by L. Durling and F. Charlton. The buildings are very neatly designed and take the eye of all passers.

Mr. D. G. Denton, of Little River, the hustling salesman for the Delco electric lighting plants, was in Bridgetown Wednesday and Thursday. He has recently sold a private lighting plant to Mr. J. A. Goodwin, proprietor of the well known Goodwin Hotel, at Weymouth.

Yarmouth Herald: Miss Margaret Reop, of Clementsport, Annapolis Co., who year or so ago, was stenographer for William Law & Co., has just accepted an excellent position with Stanfield's, Limited, of Truro, and left her home Monday for that town to assume her new duties.

Halifax Herald: W. H. Smith, of Bear River, a leading officer in the Masonic order in Nova Scotia and president of the Maritime Travellers' Association, I, at the Halifax. Among the knights of the grip, Mr. Smith is probably the most widely known of them all in the three provinces.

The Rev. B. C. Borden, D. D., President of Mount Allison University, spent Sunday in Bridgetown, the guest of the Rev. C. Jost, D. D. Dr. Borden preached on Sunday at Granville, Bentville and Bridgetown. A large congregation greeted the Doctor at Providence Methodist church in the evening and heard with deep appreciation the thoughtful and scholarly sermon which he delivered.

Maritime Baptist: Rev. A. S. Lewis is meeting with continued success in his work with the First Church of Regina. Last year there were sixty additions to the church. The finances also showed healthy growth, the total receipts exceeding twelve thousand dollars. At present a ten weeks' campaign of personal evangelism is being carried on. It will close the first Sunday in May. The church has voted a substantial increase in the pastor's salary. (Mr. Lewis above referred to was a former pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church.)

Halifax Herald: W. H. Smith, of Bear River, a leading officer in the Masonic order in Nova Scotia and president of the Maritime Travellers' Association, I, at the Halifax. Among the knights of the grip, Mr. Smith is probably the most widely known of them all in the three provinces.

The Rev. B. C. Borden, D. D., President of Mount Allison University, spent Sunday in Bridgetown, the guest of the Rev. C. Jost, D. D. Dr. Borden preached on Sunday at Granville, Bentville and Bridgetown. A large congregation greeted the Doctor at Providence Methodist church in the evening and heard with deep appreciation the thoughtful and scholarly sermon which he delivered.

Maritime Baptist: Rev. A. S. Lewis is meeting with continued success in his work with the First Church of Regina. Last year there were sixty additions to the church. The finances also showed healthy growth, the total receipts exceeding twelve thousand dollars. At present a ten weeks' campaign of personal evangelism is being carried on. It will close the first Sunday in May. The church has voted a substantial increase in the pastor's salary. (Mr. Lewis above referred to was a former pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church.)

Halifax Herald: W. H. Smith, of Bear River, a leading officer in the Masonic order in Nova Scotia and president of the Maritime Travellers' Association, I, at the Halifax. Among the knights of the grip, Mr. Smith is probably the most widely known of them all in the three provinces.

The Rev. B. C. Borden, D. D., President of Mount Allison University, spent Sunday in Bridgetown, the guest of the Rev. C. Jost, D. D. Dr. Borden preached on Sunday at Granville, Bentville and Bridgetown. A large congregation greeted the Doctor at Providence Methodist church in the evening and heard with deep appreciation the thoughtful and scholarly sermon which he delivered.

Maritime Baptist: Rev. A. S. Lewis is meeting with continued success in his work with the First Church of Regina. Last year there were sixty additions to the church. The finances also showed healthy growth, the total receipts exceeding twelve thousand dollars. At present a ten weeks' campaign of personal evangelism is being carried on. It will close the first Sunday in May. The church has voted a substantial increase in the pastor's salary. (Mr. Lewis above referred to was a former pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church.)

Halifax Herald: W. H. Smith, of Bear River, a leading officer in the Masonic order in Nova Scotia and president of the Maritime Travellers' Association, I, at the Halifax. Among the knights of the grip, Mr. Smith is probably the most widely known of them all in the three provinces.

The Rev. B. C. Borden, D. D., President of Mount Allison University, spent Sunday in Bridgetown, the guest of the Rev. C. Jost, D. D. Dr. Borden preached on Sunday at Granville, Bentville and Bridgetown. A large congregation greeted the Doctor at Providence Methodist church in the evening and heard with deep appreciation the thoughtful and scholarly sermon which he delivered.

Maritime Baptist: Rev. A. S. Lewis is meeting with continued success in his work with the First Church of Regina. Last year there were sixty additions to the church. The finances also showed healthy growth, the total receipts exceeding twelve thousand dollars. At present a ten weeks' campaign of personal evangelism is being carried on. It will close the first Sunday in May. The church has voted a substantial increase in the pastor's salary. (Mr. Lewis above referred to was a former pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church.)

Halifax Herald: W. H. Smith, of Bear River, a leading officer in the Masonic order in Nova Scotia and president of the Maritime Travellers' Association, I, at the Halifax. Among the knights of the grip, Mr. Smith is probably the most widely known of them all in the three provinces.

The Rev. B. C. Borden, D. D., President of Mount Allison University, spent Sunday in Bridgetown, the guest of the Rev. C. Jost, D. D. Dr. Borden preached on Sunday at Granville, Bentville and Bridgetown. A large congregation greeted the Doctor at Providence Methodist church in the evening and heard with deep appreciation the thoughtful and scholarly sermon which he delivered.

Maritime Baptist: Rev. A. S. Lewis is meeting with continued success in his work with the First Church of Regina. Last year there were sixty additions to the church. The finances also showed healthy growth, the total receipts exceeding twelve thousand dollars. At present a ten weeks' campaign of personal evangelism is being carried on. It will close the first Sunday in May. The church has voted a substantial increase in the pastor's salary. (Mr. Lewis above referred to was a former pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church.)

Halifax Herald: W. H. Smith, of Bear River, a leading officer in the Masonic order in Nova Scotia and president of the Maritime Travellers' Association, I, at the Halifax. Among the knights of the grip, Mr. Smith is probably the most widely known of them all in the three provinces.

The Rev. B. C. Borden, D. D., President of Mount Allison University, spent Sunday in Bridgetown, the guest of the Rev. C. Jost, D. D. Dr. Borden preached on Sunday at Granville, Bentville and Bridgetown. A large congregation greeted the Doctor at Providence Methodist church in the evening and heard with deep appreciation the thoughtful and scholarly sermon which he delivered.

Maritime Baptist: Rev. A. S. Lewis is meeting with continued success in his work with the First Church of Regina. Last year there were sixty additions to the church. The finances also showed healthy growth, the total receipts exceeding twelve thousand dollars. At present a ten weeks' campaign of personal evangelism is being carried on. It will close the first Sunday in May. The church has voted a substantial increase in the pastor's salary. (Mr. Lewis above referred to was a former pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church.)

Palmolive

Soap Deal

Have you taken advantage of your opportunity to get 3 cakes of Palmolive Soap for 25 cents. If not come at once and get it. War times. This is one of the real bargains. You know soaps are not getting any cheaper.

W. A. WARREN, Phm. B.
ROYAL PHARMACY

The Rexall Store

New Ads. This Week.

J. W. Beckwith...House Furnishings Strong & Whitman...Suits and Coats J. H. Hicks & Sons...Roofing J. E. Lloyd...Flour and Feed Karl Freeman...Stable Supplies Bentley's, Limited...White Wear Mrs. S. C. Turner...Dishes, Etc. Georgia Cunningham...Photos A. W. Phinney...Pure Milk and Cream McClary Mfg. Co...Furnaces Abram Young...To Let X. Y. Z...Wanted Star Fruit Co...For Sale John L. Amberman...For Sale Mrs. A. F. Pollard...For Sale W. A. Warren...Notice MONITOR Office...Notice J. S. MacAndrews...For Sale

Classified Ads

Advertisements not exceeding one inch will be inserted under this heading at the rate of 50c for the first insertion, and 15c per word until ordered out, cash in advance.

LOST

ON Monday, between the D. A. R. railway station and Granville street, a moose gate brooch. Will the finder please leave the same at the MONITOR office?

TO LET

HOUSE TO LET. Apply to J. B. HALL, Lawrenceport.

FIRST OF MAY, tenement on Queen Street. ABRAM YOUNG, Bridgetown.

WANTED

FIRST OF APRIL, a smart boy for chores on a small farm. Apply at office of this paper. Feb. 24, 1918, -43 tf

A HOUSEKEEPER, middle aged woman preferred. Apply by letter addressed X. Y. Z., MONITOR OFFICE, Bridgetown, N.S.

FOR SALE

ONE new milch cow. Apply to J. S. McANDREWS, Granville Centre.

TWO GOOD COWS; one new milch and one to freshen last of April. Apply to H. T. PHINNEY, Lawrenceport.

A LARGE stock of new wall papers to select from, also last season's patterns at reduced prices. F. MAX BISHOP, Lawrenceport.

FEED OATS, Barley Meal and Feeding Flour. Warehouse open Saturday afternoons. STAR FRUIT & PRODUCE COMPANY, Ltd. Paradise.

A small farm situated about a mile west of the village of Granville Ferry. For particulars apply to JOHN L. AMBERMAN, Granville Ferry, N. S.

ONE of the nicest, newest, up-to-date homes in Lawrenceport, offered at a bargain for a prompt buyer. MRS. A. F. POLLARD, Lawrenceport.

PULLET MATING. Barred Rock Eggs for hatching, $1.50 for 13. First prize Lawrenceport, 1917; 2nd prize 1918. Apply to VAUGHN YOUNG, Middleton.

ONE double-barrel Stevens 12-gauge hammer gun, new, guaranteed, $20.00. One double-barrel 12-gauge Newman Bros. gun, good condition, $15.00. One single barrel 12-gauge, $3.00. Apply to ALBERT J. BURNS, Bridgetown.

DESIRABLE RESIDENCE situated on Granville Street, Bridgetown, in excellent repair, with all modern improvements. Good stable. Also one tent, 8 1/2 x 12 1/2 ft. Two feather beds. Apply to owner MRS. J. W. ROSS, or W. A. CHESLEY, Bridgetown.

42 3mths The Shelburne Gazette says the lumber cut in that county will reach 9,000,000 feet.

The Bridgetown Importing House

Now that Spring is here the housewife begins to look for New Furnishings to brighten and refreshen her home.

Curtains and Curtain Material

For those new Curtains we have Marquissette, Scrimm and Lace ready to hang. Voiles, Scrimms, Marquissettes, Nets, Lace and Muslins by the yard in White, Cream and Ecru. Curtain Rods and Fixtures. Also Blinds.

CARPETS

For the floor we have CARPET SQUARES AND RUGS. LINOLEUMS in two and four yard widths. OILCLOTHS, in a variety of patterns, from one to two yards. CONGOLEUM FLOOR COVERING, by the yard, two yards wide. CONGOLEUM RUGS, 1 yard square, 1 x 1 1/2 yards, and 1 x 2 yards.

RUG BORDER

PARQUET RUG BORDER in a neat hardwood design, 24 x 27 inches wide

CRETTONES, ART SATEENS and MUSLINS for Draperies, Furniture Covering and Cushions.

WALL PAPER in neat and attractive designs

J. W. BECKWITH

All Kinds

-OF-

Family Groceries

-AT-

Right Prices

J. I. Foster

Telephone No. 48-3
GRANVILLE ST.

Any Person Wishing a Piano

would do well to call and see the one in our store on Queen Street, placed there by J. A. MacDonald & Co., Halifax.

EDWIN L. FISHER

FARM FOR SALE

FOR SALE, the Karakule Sheep Farm situated in Clarence, Annapolis Co. This farm is the best in the Annapolis Valley, is beautifully situated at the foot of the North Mountain, 3 miles from Lawrenceport and 1 1/2 miles from Brickton station. It consists of 200 acres of fertile land. Cuts annually 150 tons hay, averages 1000 bbls. apples, with a large number of young trees just coming into bearing. Excellent tillage land, good pasture is well watered and has abundance of wood and timber. A fine large barn 100 x 45, good outbuildings and comfortable house. Price $13,000. Part of purchase money may remain on mortgage. For further particulars apply to FREEMAN FITCH, Trustee. Bridgetown, March 18th, 1918, 50-51

FOR YOUR ROOF

Cedar Shingles
Spruce Shingles
Paroid Roofing
Eastlake Steel Shingles

It will be to your advantage to see our stock and obtain our prices. WE HAVE A LARGE STOCK.

J. H. HICKS & SONS

EASTER

The day you should wear your

NEW SUIT OF CLOTHES

We are prepared to give them to you made up in the latest style. A call will convince you that we have the largest assortment to choose from that we have ever shown.

EASTER HABERDASHERY for every man.

GLOVES in good variety.

NECKWEAR in abundance.

HOSIERY in Cashmere, Lisle threads and Silks.

UNDERWEAR in spring weights in many qualities.

NEW HATS and CAPS.

J. HARRY HICKS

'Phone 48-2

Corner Queen and Granville Streets

Subscribe for the Monitor