FRANCE HAS GONE MAD IN WELCOMING KRUGER

And Incidentally to Say Offensive Things, as Far as Official Regulations Will Permit, Against Great Britain.

At Lyons Denunciations of the English Drowned the Shouts in Favor of the Boers—One Fool Correspondent Fears Anglo-French Complications May Result.

Dijon, France, Nov. 23.—Mr. Kruger has become for the moment at least the popular idol of the French. His triumphant progress northward thru the country from Marseilles to Dijon has placed this beyond doubt. He met with a tremendous reception in each town along the route where the train stopped, culminating in scenes of frenzied enthusiasm here this evening, calculated to turn the head of any man.

The population of Marseilles gathered in thousands this morning to escort him to the railroad station, and gave him a rousing send-off, while at Tarascon, Avignon, Valence, Lyons, Macon and Dijon, the inhabitants, who crowded the railroad stations, made the rafters tremble with enthusiastic shouts of "Vive Kruger!" and "Vive les Boers!"

Sowed Wind, Reaping Whirlwind!

Out of the most important phases of the demonstration was the turn it took in an anti-British direction.

The few Englishmen whose ill-timed levity at the Hotel Du Louvre, in Marseilles, exasperated the people in the streets there, never dreamed of the serious consequences of their act. They sowed the wind, and to-day the English people are reaping the whirlwind. The news of the supposed insult to Mr. Kruger seems to have spread across France, and at all stations, but especially at Lyons and Dijon, shouts for the Boers were mingled with loud cries of "Down with the English!" Indeed, at Lyons, the denunciations of the English drowned the shouting for the Boers.

A Fool Must Have Written This.

This is a disturbing feature, which is universally discussed. Fears are expressed that to-morrow's reception in Paris may assume a character calculated to arouse the feeling of Great Britain against France to such an extent as to result in unpleasant relations between the two countries.

THE DEPARTURE FOR PARIS.

People of Marseilles Gave the Old Man and His Party a Great Send-Off.

Marseilles, Nov. 23.—Hearty enthusiasm attended Mr. Kruger's departure from Marseilles to-day.

Mr. Kruger was up at an early hour, and was ready and waiting when his landau reached the hotel to convey him to the railroad depot. He was accompanied by Dr. Leyds and Messrs. Pearson, Wessels, Eloff, Fischer, Van Hammel, Rambaud and Heymens.

Kruger's Thanks to Marseilles.

Just before the departure of the train Mr. Kruger appeared on the steps of the railroad carriage in response to the shouts of the crowd, and said:

"Citizens of Marseilles: I thank the population of Marseilles for its warm welcome. I trust I shall find the same enthusiastic sympathy in all the cities which I am going to travel thru, and I hope it will be followed by actions which will continue to assist us, and result in abetting our cause."

Extensive police precautions were taken this morning, and there was no disagreeable incident.

Acclamations at Valence.

Valence, Department of Drome, Nov. 23.—The train having Mr. Kruger on board passed here at 12.45 p.m., and the Transvaler was acclaimed by a crowd of about 5000 persons.

The First Stop.

Avignon, Department of Vaucluse, Nov. 23.—Avignon, the first stop of Mr. Kruger's train, was reached at 11 a.m. He was greeted by throngs of people with shouts of welcome and a band of music. He received a basket of flowers, to which were attached the French and Boer colors.

The assistant Mayor made a speech, and Mr. Kruger responded briefly, showing signs of fatigue.

A Gold Medal Presented.

Lyons, Department of Rhone, Nov. 23.—There was a great demonstration here when Mr. Kruger's train arrived. The assistant Mayor welcomed the former President, and presented him with a beautiful gold medal, especially engraved for the occasion. On one side was the head of a woman, representing the City of Lyons, and on the reverse the words:

"The homage of the citizens of Lyons to President Kruger, in remembrance of his heroic defence of the South African Republics."

Was Profoundly Touched.

Mr. Kruger, replying to the speech on the presentation of the medal, said:

"I am profoundly touched at the homage, respect and sympathy coming from entire France. Give my thanks to the population of Lyons. It is a just cause which animates you, a cause for France and for all Europe to safeguard. I am firm in the conviction that our hopes will be realized. We are hoping with you."

The Boer statesman then descended from his carriage and walked towards the entrance of the station, which caused the cheers to be redoubled. The crowd eventually broke thru the police cordons, and Mr. Kruger regained his carriage with difficulty.

Preparations at Paris.

Paris, Nov. 23.—The peaceful but enthusiastic manner in which the people of Marseilles greeted the arrival of Mr. Kruger yesterday, and the warm welcome extended to him in the cities he passed thru to-day, all occurring without any anti-British demonstration of any consequence, have made the authorities here feel confident that his reception here to-morrow will not result in any unpleasant incident.

Anti-Britishers Warned.

M. Lepino, the Prefect of the Police, said to-day: "We have full confidence in the people of Paris, and count upon them not to do anything likely to cause diplomatic complications. However, the police have the strictest orders to permit only cries which are complimentary to Mr. Kruger and the Boers. They will not tolerate any cries uncomplimentary to a neighboring friendly country. Any persons uttering such uncomplimentary cries will be arrested."

Londoners Are Unconcerned.

London, Nov. 23.—The morning papers devote an unusual amount of space to Mr. Kruger's arrival at Marseilles and his doings, but are inclined to treat the matter editorially with comparative indifference, in the conviction that nothing can alter the course of events in South Africa.

No resentment is displayed at what is regarded as "the harmless enthusiasm of Frenchmen."

KRUGER'S LAST CARD

Will Be to Lay Bare the Whole of the Secrets of the War and Request Mediation.

Brussels, Nov. 23.—The Soir this evening says: Mr. Kruger on his arrival at The Hague will ask for mediation, and if unsuccessful he will make public all the documents of State in his possession, showing the secrets of the war. The paper adds that Mr. Kruger believes that when Europe knows the truth, it will produce such an outburst of public opinion that Great Britain will be compelled to be less harsh.

The Soir adds that, failing this, Mr. Kruger will return to the Transvaal.

Cork Council Pro-Boer.

Cork, Nov. 23.—As a protest against the refusal of the Lord Mayor of Cork to entertain a motion to confer the freedom of the city upon Mr. Kruger, the corporation adjourned to-day, the adjournment resolution being adopted by a large majority after an exciting debate.

VERY SERIOUS DIVERGENCE

The Powers Have Taken Sides in Regard to the Punishment of Chinese Officials.

JAPAN, U.S., RUSSIA AND FRANCE

Favor a Lenient Policy, While Britain, Germany, Austria and Italy Demand Death.

London, Nov. 24.—"A serious divergence has arisen in Pekin," says the Tien Tsin correspondent of The Daily Mail, wiring Wednesday. "Japan, the United States, Russia and France favor demanding a milder punishment than the execution of Prince Tuan and the others, while Great Britain, Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy deem anything less than the death penalty useless.

"An important decision has been arrived at, however, that this divergence is not to interfere with the general peace negotiations.

"Another remarkable feature of the situation is the sudden volte face of Russia, who now declines either to withdraw her troops from the Province of Chili or to hand over the railway as promised."

What Does Russia Mean?

Tien Tsin, Nov. 23.—The Russian military authorities announce that the order to hand over the railway has been rescinded, but no reasons are given for this step. Until Tuesday last civilians had been allowed to travel free. Since that date, however, fares have been charged and the passage tickets issued are printed in the Russian language.

The Times is Incredulous.

London, Nov. 24.—The Times this morning comments editorially in a somewhat incredulous tone upon Secretary Hay's fresh note to the powers, saying that "it cannot imagine Secretary Hay as objecting to the execution of the guilty officials, after, as was understood, assenting to the French proposals." It admits, however, that so far as outsiders can form an opinion, "the United States appeared to be the leading obstacle to the working of the concert of powers in China."

With reference to Mr. Wu Ting Fang's speech in Cincinnati, promising the United States better commercial chances when peace is restored, The Times says: "We would not advise Chinese Ministers in Europe to venture upon such a line of argument, as there are countries where so gross a proposal would be resented as an injury."

BANQUETED THE WARDEN.

Annual Jolly Gathering of the County Councillors at the Clyde Hotel.

Last evening the banquet to Warden Reesor took place at the Clyde Hotel, where an excellent table had been prepared by Mine Host Lemon. Mr. J. D. Evans presided and with him at the festive board were members of the Legislature, county officials and invited guests.

The feature of the banquet was the presentation of a gold-headed ebony cane to the warden. The presentation was made by Councillor Hall, who took the opportunity, whilst addressing his colleagues and speaking of old associations, to say that this was his last session in the County Council. Warden Reesor made a fitting reply and said he should always prize the cane for the manner and spirit in which it was given. Very shortly, he said, the last session in the 19th century would close, and in years to come, when he held the cane in his hand, it would carry his thoughts back to the days he spent in the old Court House.

The toast of "The Empire" was responded to by J. K. Macdonald and T. F. Wallace, who both gave speeches ringing with patriotic sentiments.

Mr. J. W. Moyes and John Richardson, M. L.A., spoke on behalf of "The Province." James McDougall responded for "The Learned Professions," and ex-Wardens Evans, Stokes, Russell, Pugsley and Reeves, Duncan and Milliken answered for "Municipal Institutions."

W. H. Johnston spoke on behalf of "Manufacturing Interests," and among the "Prospective Wardens," who answered were: Messrs. Chester, Baker, Hartman, Norman, Lundy, Johnston and Boag. "The Press" and "The Ladies" were responded to enthusiastically and the assemblage broke up with Auld Lang Syne and God Save the Queen.

BRITISH PREFERENTIAL PLAN IS TO TAX ALL AMERICAN GOODS

And Make the American Manufacturers Contribute Largely to the Exchequer of the Britons—Sir Howard Vincent Outlines His Scheme.

London, Nov. 23.—"We wish to make American manufactories contribute annually several millions sterling to our national exchequer," said Sir Howard Vincent, M.P., to-night.

Sir Howard, who is the honorary secretary of the United Empire Trade League and an influential member of Parliament, will bring forward in the coming session a scheme to impose upon imports into the United Kingdom other than those from the British colonies a certain ad valorem tariff. He explained his purpose further as follows:

Outlines His Plan.

"Our Empire should seek unity thru unified commercial interests. Our colonies should constantly be reminded of their daughterhood by reciprocal preferential imposts. Canada favors imports from the Mother Country to the extent of making the duty upon them one-third less than that upon imports from foreign countries. When the Australian Commonwealth is well under way we hope that it will make a similar concession in favor of the manufacturers of England. Before a great while South Africa, federated under the British flag, will probably follow the lead of Canada and Australia.

Britain Must Reciprocate.

"The Mother Country cannot with good grace accept these advantages while denying reciprocal preferences. Furthermore, this is a time when the central government has need for revenue. We have two wars upon our hands—one in China and one in South Africa. The latter has already cost us heavily, but I think it will prove to have been an excellent investment, even if it finally entails an outlay of £100,000,000 sterling ($500,000,000), for it has given a great and enduring impetus to Imperial Federation.

New Sources of Revenue.

"Still, such outlays require a full treasury, and we must find new sources of national revenue. Preferential duties would help us tremendously. They would make Americans pay something for the use of our rich markets. The Americans charge us about 40 per cent. ad valorem for the privilege of selling our goods in America, and we commit an egregious folly in admitting their goods free of duty. Americans are great competitors; their energy and skill cannot be surpassed. We should protect ourselves against their shrewd, sleepless commercial aggression by every legitimate means at our command. My plan, of course, contemplates harking back to the times when the dominant statesmanship of England decreed that free trade was the proper fiscal policy of this country."

CROOKEDNESS OR BUNGLING

On the Part of Some of the Deputy Returning Officers in the Riding of East Simcoe.

THE DECLARATION POSTPONED.

Notwithstanding All the Juggling, However, Bennett Has a Clear Majority of 79.

Orillia, Ont., Nov. 23.—The declaration was to have been made in East Simcoe to-day, but owing to the deputy at Hillsdale having failed to place the names of the candidates before the figures given by him in his certificate, which showed a majority for one of the candidates of 29, Mr. Grant, acting for the Liberals, objected to the return being counted, altho Mr. Bennett produced the deputy's certificate showing a majority of 29 for Bennett at this poll. At No. 6 Tiny the deputy failed to place a certificate showing the result in the box, but Mr. Bennett produced a certificate sent to him from the deputy, showing a majority at this poll of 7 for Bennett. This, too, Mr. Grant objected to, being allowed. At No. 3 Tiny the deputy's certificate showed a majority for Mr. Chew of 124, altho the certificate sent by the deputy to Mr. Bennett showed only 84 of a majority for Mr. Chew at this poll. The question turned on whether the deputy's figures were 171 or 131, the middle figure looking more like a seven than a three. The result was not in winding, but only figures. The return showed that the deputy had only received 250 ballots, so had there been 171 cast for Chew, instead of 131, having regard to the number of ballots cast and returned by the statement, there would have been more ballots used than given to the deputy. The addition of 47 votes for Bennett, 131 for Chew, 3 rejected and the 60 returned, made exactly the 250 ballots issued to the deputy. The returning officer, Mr. McKay, declared an adjournment for one week to secure the correct returns from these three polls, altho from the agreed-upon returns a majority of 3 was apparent for Mr. Bennett, even allowing 124 majority instead of 84 at No. 3 Tiny for Chew. The full returns from the three polls and all others will give Mr. Bennett a clear majority of 79. Mr. Bennett expressed his full confidence in Mr. McKay's action as returning officer, and appreciation for his impartial and courteous conduct.

Pte. Leng Cared.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the residence of Mr. George Stewart, Maud street, last evening, the occasion being a reception given by the non-commissioned officers of G Company, Royal Grenadiers, to Corporal James Leng, one of the South African heroes. One of the most pleasing features of the evening was the presentation to Corporal Leng of a very handsome cane. Sergt. Brimley made the presentation, which was responded to by Corp. Leng in a neat speech and who interested the party with innumerable yarns of the war in the Transvaal. Among the guests of the evening were: Sergt. Brimley (late of the 3rd Lancashire Artillery, England), Sergt. Menzies (late of G Company, R.G.), Sergt. Mortimer, Pte. Vodden (late of G Company), Mr. George Leng, and Mr. Reinbolt. Pte. Beaumont and Pte. Newton contributed to the enjoyment of the evening by instrumental music.

SIR ADOLPHE CARON DYING

The Ex-Minister of Militia and Ex-Postmaster-General, Who Has Been Unwell for Some Time,

HAS HAD A TURN FOR THE WORSE.

His Condition Was Considered So Serious Yesterday That the Last Rites Were Administered.

Montreal, Nov. 23.—(Special.)—The friends of Sir A. P. Caron, in both political camps, will regret to learn that the ex-Minister of Militia and Postmaster-General, who has been receiving treatment of late in the Royal Victoria Hospital, took a turn for the worst this afternoon, and, in fact, his condition was considered so serious at a late hour that the last rites of the church were administered.

Care of the Lunatics.

What to do with the large number of lunatics in Ontario is a question that is worrying the Provincial Secretary. Mr. Stratton has decided to make no additions to the Toronto Asylum, as it is now sufficiently large, and to add to it might conflict with the present architecture. What will be done, however, is that a new asylum will be built, possibly in Oxford County.

Recently Dr. Beemer and Inspector Christie visited the Toronto Jail in pursuance of a report presented to the City Council and found 27 male lunatics in custody. One had been removed to the asylum, one had died, two had been discharged and 23 left. Of these only seven were suitable for asylum treatment. The others were idiotic and feeble-minded. Of the seven three have been removed to the asylum, and the other four will be provided for shortly.

DEWET IS A GOOD LIAR AND FOOLS HIS MEN

Told His Bandits the British Would All Leave Africa By December 10 and Urged Them to Keep Up the Fight.

Said Also the Queen Had Been Driven From London to Cape Town, That Roberts Was Dead and Buried, and Other Fairy Tales—Some British Victories.

Kornspruit, Orange River Colony, Thursday, Nov. 22.—General Bruce Hamilton's column arrived here yesterday after securing the Lindley and Heilbron districts. The troops brought in a number of prisoners. The latter relate the remarkable assurances they received at Thabanchu from General Dewet a fortnight ago. Dewet, they said, urged the burghers to hold out till Dec. 10, when "all the British were going home." He added that the British had the permission of Russia to fight for a year only. Queen Victoria was at Cape Town, whither she had fled to escape the Chinese, who had captured half of England; General Botha had driven the British out of the Transvaal, and had taken Pietermaritzburg; Dewet himself was fighting in Cape Colony, burning farms, and Lord Roberts, wounded by three bullets, had been taken to Heilbron to die, and had been buried there beneath the Town Hall.

Losses to the Boers.

London, Nov. 23.—A special despatch from Middleburg, Transvaal Colony, says that in the surprise of the outposts of the "Buffs" (Third Infantry) southwest of Balmoral, Nov. 10, the Boers lost 60 men killed and wounded. The burghers, the despatch added, simultaneously attacked a garrison of Fusiliers on Wilge River, but were beaten off with the loss of 120 men killed and wounded.

FRENCH AT JOHANNESBURG.

Report Says He Was Pursued by Botha and Had a Narrow Escape.

London, Nov. 23.—The Star to-day, commenting on the report that Gen. Botha, with his commando, is close to Dewetsdorp, regards the news as most disquieting, and says:

"We have heard many strange and unverifiable stories, but one thing we know, that French was pursued all the way from Middleburg to Standerton, and got thru the terrible neck of the mountains only by the skin of his teeth."

Proceeding, The Star suggests that Gen. Botha pursued the British, marched south and joined hands with Gen. Dewet, and that thus Bloemfontein is endangered and the Orange Free State will have to be reconquered before the subduing of the Transvaal can be commenced.

In connection with the above, a belated telegram to-day announces that Gen. French arrived at Johannesburg Nov. 17.

Britain's Position Upheld.

Berlin, Nov. 23.—In the Reichstag to-day, replying to a question regarding the expulsion of Germans from the Transvaal, Baron von Richthofen, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, declared international law justified the British authorities in removing from the seat of war undesirable persons; but Great Britain had given assurance that she was prepared to compensate those who had been unjustifiably expelled.

Canadian Invalids at Liverpool.

Liverpool, Nov. 22.—A number of Canadian soldiers, invalided from South Africa, arrived here yesterday en route to Canada. They were warmly received by the citizens and were entertained by the Lord Mayor of Liverpool.

Kitchener to Be Promoted.

London, Nov. 23.—The Cabinet to-day decided to recommend Queen Victoria to make Major-General Lord Kitchener a lieutenant-general, so as to enable him to take over the supreme command in South Africa when Lord Roberts shall leave the country.

THE RETURNING CANADIANS

Will Be Lavishly Entertained in England by a Private Committee Under Lord Grey.

London, Nov. 23.—The returning Canadian troops on board the Hawarden Castle, due here next week, will be lavishly entertained by a private committee, of which Lord Grey is chairman. Three hundred seats have been secured at the various London theatres for each night the Canadians are here. They will be quartered at Kensington Barracks, whence there will be excursions to Brighton, Woolwich and other points of interest, including a probable visit to the Queen.

Lord Grey said to a representative of the Associated Press: "They will not exactly be the guests of the nation, as that is reserved for the five thousand colonial troops who are coming later. But we are trying to make the short stay here of these Canadians as enjoyable as possible, as a slight token of our appreciation of the magnificent work they have done. It will be carried out with as little formality as possible."

BURNHAM'S GOOD SCOUTING.

The American Scout Has Received a Complimentary Letter From Lord Roberts.

London, Nov. 23.—The Daily News publishes this morning an interview with Mr. Burnham, the American scout, who was on the staff of Lord Roberts, regarding the importance of scouting under the modern system of warfare, which puts a premium on individuality.

Mr. Burnham recently received a letter from Lord Roberts testifying that, in his opinion, no other man could have performed the services rendered by Mr. Burnham, "services requiring such peculiar training, skill, courage and endurance."

Big Steamer Ems to Run Between Canada and Liverpool—Elder-Dempster Co. in Line.

Liverpool, Nov. 23.—The North German Lloyd steamer Ems made its first appearance in the Mersey yesterday, having crossed from New York under easy steam with 500 bales of cotton as ballast. The Ems has been purchased by the Elder-Dempster Company for fast Canadian mail service between Liverpool, Quebec and Montreal, and also to check the flow of Canadians thru Boston and New York. This purchase was intended as a counter-stroke to Mr. Peterson's visit to Ottawa to try to secure the new mail contract from the Dominion Government, which, however, gave it to the Elder-Dempster Line, mainly thru the influence of Mr. Chamberlain.

The Automobile Craze.

Everything in fashion's book has to-day a smack of something modern. Perhaps the newest thing on the list is the automobile coat. It does not mean that you should have an automobile to wear one; but that the coat is ultra-stylish. Dineen is offering a line of them made of all shades of light colored, fashionable cloth, fur-lined throughout, high storm collar, with revers of striped mink. They sell for $55. The automobile is just one of the latest fashions, but Dineen handles every other reliable creation. Send for catalogue. Store open until 10 o'clock to-night.

Rain or Sleet.

Meteorological Office, Toronto, Nov. 23.—(8 p.m.)—A moderate westerly gale has prevailed to-day in the Maritime Provinces, and a strong northwest gale is now blowing on the Gulf. The weather continues very cold in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, and from present indications wet, stormy weather is probable in the lake region.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Victoria, 38—52; Calgary, 26 below—10 below; Prince Albert, 28 below—4 below; Winnipeg, 18 below—zero; Port Arthur, 2—24; Toronto, 36—44; Montreal, 32—42; Quebec, 24—38; Halifax, 32—52.

Probabilities.

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Increasing northeasterly and easterly winds; rain or sleet before night.

Upper St. Lawrence and Ottawa Valley—Winds shifting to northeast; fair most of day, followed by rain or sleet to-night and to-morrow.

Lower St. Lawrence and Gulf—Decreasing west and north winds; fair.

Maritime Provinces—Decreasing west and north winds; fair.

Lake Superior—Increasing northeasterly winds; fair at first, followed by snow.

Manitoba—Easterly winds; fair and cold; snow to-night.

SOME GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON ABOUT JOINT HIGH COMMISSION

The United States Politicians Have No Definite Knowledge as to a Reassembling This Winter—They Will Have Their Hands Full With Affairs of Their Own.

Montreal, Nov. 23.—(Special.)—The following is from the resident correspondent of The Herald:

Washington, Nov. 23.—Despite the reports that have been circulated that the Joint High Commission appointed to adjust differences between Canada and the United States was preparing to assemble during the present winter, it cannot be learned that any definite or conclusive steps to this end have been taken. To the best-informed persons in Washington the gossip is interesting only as calling out expressions of opinion as to the advisability of bringing the commissioners of the two countries together again.

What Fairbanks Says.

Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, chairman of the American branch of the commission, is authority for the statement that no immediate meeting of the commission is to be held. Mr. Fairbanks says that the statement that correspondence on the subject has passed between Washington and Ottawa is correct to this extent: Mr. Fairbanks has exchanged personal letters with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, chairman of the Canadian branch of the commission, from time to time, ever since the adjournment was taken many months ago.

There has always been a hope expressed that the commission will reassemble, but Mr. Fairbanks asserts firmly that no date has been set, and that there is no immediate prospect that a meeting will be held.

Congressmen Will Be Busy.

It is believed in Washington that the numerous and important measures to be brought before the coming short session of Congress will preclude the idea of having further meetings of the Joint High Commission during the next three months. The session will expire by constitutional limitation on the 4th of March next, and in the meantime the services of all the leading members of Congress, several of whom are members of the commission, will be needed on the floors of the Senate or House. That the commissioners will come together next spring is admitted as a possibility, altho there is no very high authority even for this.

Secretary Hay is Uninformed.

Secretary Hay makes the statement that he knows of no definite preparations for renewed negotiations of the Joint High Commission, and he believes that no meeting will be held in the near future. That the Alaskan boundary question will be omitted from the list of subjects to be discussed by the commission is admitted, and it almost goes without saying. It was accepted as a fact when the modus vivendi was arranged on this question that negotiations looking to a permanent settlement would be carried on hereafter directly between Washington and London. The recent elections in Canada, endorsing, as they did, in a very decisive way, the Administration of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, are regarded here as removing any doubt that may have existed in the Premier's mind as to the approval of his course in the Joint High Commission negotiations by the Canadian people.

The Greatest Obstacle.

It is taken for granted, therefore, that Sir Wilfrid has no objection to a reopening of the negotiations. The opinion prevails here that the greatest obstacle to an immediate resumption of deliberations is the pressing need for services of all the republic's leaders in Congress in connection with important matters of legislation during the short session.

Another Scare Report.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 22 (Thursday).—It is rumored here this afternoon that Emperor Nicholas is threatened with pectoral complications, which, if they exist, would materially diminish his chances of recovery. Inflammation of the lungs is a common complication of typhoid fever in Russia. Thus far there is no official confirmation of the rumor.

His Mind Endangered.

Paris, Nov. 24.—(5.30 a.m.)—"A diagnosis of the Czar's malady," says a despatch from St. Petersburg to The Siecle, "shows that he has typhoidis enteritis. His brain is affected, and his intellectual powers are endangered."
