Norris, Chaplain; E. C. Clarke, R. to G. L.

The undersigned will be absent for a holiday trip, but "biz" will be attended to as usual. Farmers and others are particularly reminded that there are many bogus Insurance agents travelling through the country representing third-rate Insurance Co's, who bore the people to such an extent that they give them risks to get rid of them. Set the dogs on them, and come to a first-class office to place your Insurance. None but first-class Companies represented.

26a. Lewis Bolton.

New Time Tables.—A new time table went into effect on the G. W. R. on Monday last. There are no changes in the running of trains on the W. G. & B. division. The P. D. & L. H. division of the Grand Trunk Ry. has also issued a new time card. The time for the departure of trains from Listowel is the same as heretofore. A slight alteration has been made in the time of arrival of trains from the south.

An itinerant street preacher held forth to a crowd which congregated on the street corner last Sunday evening. His tenets, we believe, are not of the orthodox order. They are said to partake of the "Wild" theory of the near approach of the millenium. Should he find himself encumbered in preparing for this event with the possession of any particular amount of unencumbered real estate, we suggest that he apply at this office immediately. We don't presume that he will obtain many disciples here willing to make this test of their faith, therefore it is scarcely necessary to make a suggestion in regard to the disposal of their worldly effects.

It is said that the recalcitrant chaplain of the Grangers, Mr. W. G. Hay, has become a patron of an institution where "free lunches" and "schooners" are provided every morning. Mr. Hay, it is said, considers this kind of treatment much preferable to being put upon an allowance of watered milk, and while his chaplaincy of the Grange may have been characterized by lukewarmness, mine host of the "American" can count upon him as a regular and enthusiastic patron so long as his "free lunches" and "schooners" hold out. Should his deserted brethren of the Grange be unable to comprehend the reason of Mr. Hay's estrangement, the above may explain to them the "wherefore of this thusness."

High School Board.—At the meeting of the Listowel High School Board on Saturday evening last a resolution was passed discontinuing the fee charged pupils in the third or lower division of the school. This has been done with a view to encourage those who have passed the entrance examination to take advantage of the facilities which the school will afford them in acquiring a knowledge of the English branches, to which it is proposed to devote special attention in this department. Several members of the Board being absent, no other business was transacted. The Board will meet again to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at 7 o'clock, when the question of assessing the municipalities included in the Listowel High School District will probably be brought before the meeting.

Sad Accident.—Mr. Frederick Lorch, an aged man who resides on the 3rd line, Wallace, met with a severe accident while in town on Tuesday afternoon. He had left his horse and buggy in front of Messrs. S. Bricker & Co's hardware store, and after having made his purchases, he attempted to get into his buggy. While endeavoring to do so, his horse became restless, and Mr. Lorch was jammed in between the wheels and the axle; the latter stricking him on the leg, fractured it above the knee. He was also bruised about the head and considerably stunned. When rescued from his perilous position, he was taken to the residence of his son-in-law, Nicholas Gumph, and medical assistance was procured. The limb was found to be badly fractured. Much sympathy is felt for the poor old man, who is about sixty years of age, and infirm. His recovery from this severe affliction is hoped for.

Christ Church.—For some time past the congregation of Christ Church have had under contemplation the improvement of their edifice, which it certainly stands much in need of. This week a meeting was called to take the matter into consideration, when it was decided to expend about $300 in renovating and making such repairs as are necessary. It is also contemplated to do away with the unsightly boxes which are at present used for pulpit and reading desk, and to introduce ornate lecturns in their stead. A committee was appointed, which it is hoped will be able to carry out the improvements contemplated. Although the present incumbent, Rev. H. Bartlett, has been but a comparatively short time in charge of the parish, he has through his indefatigable energy and more than ordinary ability succeded in very materially improving the congregation. No doubt a more attractive place of worship will enable the Rev. gentleman to further his labors which have thus far been very successful.

Open Lodge.—On Tuesday evening last a free musical and literary entertainment was held in the Listowel Oddfellows' hall, which was well attended by members of the order and their friends. The chair was occupied by Dr. Philp, who discharged his duties in his usual felicitous manner. The programme consisted of readings, recitations, music, etc., the participants being a number of ladies and gentlemen of the town. Rev. H. Bartlett, of Christ Church, gave a short and interesting address. A somewhat humorous diversity was occasioned by the chairman calling upon Mr. W. G. Hay for a song. That gentleman, with his characteristic modesty, declined to favor the audience with a specimen of his "orchestrion" vocal powers, but expressed himself as being at their service should the Oddfellows be in need of a chaplain, he having renounced the Grangers on account of their refusal to tolerate "water in there'n." It is not thought probable, however, that the Oddfellows will immediately avail themselves of Mr. Hay's services. The entertainment was altogether a very pleasant one, and no doubt the periodical recurrence of these "open lodges" will be looked forward to with pleasure by all who attend them.

High Court C. O. F.—The annual meeting of the Canadian Order of Foresters was held at Clinton last week. There was a large attendance of representatives from the various subordinate Courts, among whom were Messrs J E Clarke and R. Elliott from Court Royal Oak, Listowel. The Order was reported to be in an exceedingly prosperous condition, the number of members having increased from five or six hundred in November last to over one thousand at the present time. Several endowment calls of $1,000 each have been paid to the relatives of deceased Foresters during the past year, the most recent call being that paid to Mrs. Bennaweis of this town. New Courts are about to be formed in several districts, and the Order gives promise of rapidly becoming an institution of no little importance in the country. The following High Court officers were elected for the current year: H. C. R., Rev. G. G. McRobbie, Tilsonburg; H. V. C. R., E. C. Clarke, Listowel; H. Treas., N. Green Waterford; H. Sec. G. Lindley, Brantford; H. S. W., R. W. Abell, Toronto; H. J. W., Thos Bithray, Peterboro; H. S. B., Joseph Northwood, Senator, Chatham; H. J. B., —— Carpenter, Chatham. The next annual meeting will be held at St. Thomas.

The August Atlantic brings some chapters of Mr. Aldrich's "Stillwater Tragedy" so interesting as to make its readers forget the hot weather. Dr. Holmes in a characteristic poem, entitled "The Archbishop and Gil Blas," sings with a pathetic felicitousness of growing old. John Burroughs contributes "Pepacton: A summer voyage." Luigi Monti, the "Young Sicilian" of Longfellow's "Tales of a Wayside Inn," writes a very interesting article on "Sicilian Hospitality." Mark Twain has a very pungent tale entitled "Edward Mills and George Benton," which satirizes keenly certain forms of pseudo-philanthropy. F. D. Millet describes the method of teaching practiced by Hunt; Mrs. Wallace, wife of General Lew. Wallace, Governor of New Mexico, writes "Among the Pueblos;" F. H. Underwood has a curiously interesting paper on "The Preceptor of Moses;" Richard Grant White's English article is "Taurus Centaurus." "An Englishwoman in the New England Hill Country" is very well worth reading. The short story is "Sylvia's Suitors," by Louise Stockton. The political article discusses "The Republicans and their Candidate," whom it regards as wholly worthy of confidence and support. Col. Higginson and Susan Coolidge furnish poems; and reviews of new books and an attractive variety in the "Contributors' Club" complete a capital summer number of the Atlantic.

Cricket.—A friendly game of cricket was played here on Friday last between the Palmerston cricketers and the Listowel club. This was a return match between the clubs, and in accordance with the fitness of things, the victors in the former match became the vanquished in this. The game was decided in a single innings apiece, and resulted in favor of the Palmerston team by a majority of some thirty odd runs. Following is the score:

The Forepaugh Humbug.—Some six or eight thousand people turned out on Friday last to see "the greatest show on earth," and just about that number of people came to the conclusion, after seeing the show, that they had been humbugged. About the only part of the exhibition which approached the magnitude announced in the truly "great" advertisements was the street parade, and even in this particular the "gorgeous pageant nearly a mile in length" diminished to about one eighth of a mile; and the lives of the onlookers were not endangered by any exhibition of "living lions loose in the streets." When we give Mr. Forepaugh credit for possessing a fine array of horses, a passable managerie of animals and an almost unlimited supply of canvas, and employing almost a regiment of men, among whom sharpers and swindlers predominate, we have complimented his show to the extent of its merits. In regard to the rest, we endorse the opinion of the Guelph Herald, feeling that it is incumbent on the press to denounce such frauds upon the public. The Herald says: The performance last evening was, excepting the trained elephants and the Herbert brothers, one of the tamest that has ever visited Guelph. Instead of fifteen elephants as advertised, only eleven were brought into the ring. "The Human Being shot from a monster cannon," the act that drew the crowd, was for some unaccountable reason omitted altogether. The balloon ascension did not come off. The "six famous clowns" were represented by half the number of a poor quality. Zuila, the female Blondin, forgot her wheelbarrow and sack act. The "one hundred great actors in the gigantic circus, exhibited in two separate rings," as per posters, were not there—one small ring, and about twenty-five acrobats and entry riders filled the bill. If Mr. Forepaugh ever visits Guelph again he must bring a better show, or empty seats will be the order of the day.

Every dog will have his day, beginning July 24th.

Lord Palmerston once said that Gladstone would raise a revolution in England and die in a mad house.

By-laws to grant bonuses to the Georgian Bay and Wellington Railway will be voted on in Mount Forrest on August 10 and in Egremont on Aug. 12, the first for $4,000 and the other for $7,000, in addition to bonuses already voted.

The weather in England during the past week has been unusually adverse to business and agriculture, and considerable damage has been done by the overflow of rivers. In Ireland the bad weather seems to have broken up.

The Guelph Herald says:—The Huron, Stratford and London Districts, uniformed patriarchs, I. O. O. F., intend visiting Guelph on the 12th of August—civic holiday. They will be accompanied by their bands, and will take part in the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. proceedings.

Application is to be made this week for Ontario letters patent incorporating the Toronto Iron Company. The object of the company will be to smelt iron and other ores, and to acquire and work mineral lands. The capital stock will be $150,000, and the head office at Toronto. The first directors are to be Messrs. H. S. Howland, A. W. Humphreys, C. J. Pursey, K. Chisholm, and Peleg Howland.

The Times states:—Even those who expressed a conviction five days ago that Dr. Tanner was trying to deceive the public, have now abandoned that view and are taking real interest in his case. The surveillance is more vigilant than at the beginning and there is no opportunity to deceive even if the fasting man were inclined to attempt it. Yesterday his person showed none of the usual signs of emaciation. He said he had lost all sensation of hunger and was not suffering at all from want of food.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry."—G. W. Sears, St. Catharines. "I would advise any one suffering from summer complaint to give Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry a fair trial."—Carman M. Gould, M. D., Castleton. "Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry gives perfect satisfaction."—Thomas Douglas, Cambry. "Can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry with confidence."—Judge S. S. Peck, Minden. "My customers bear high testimony to the virtues of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry."—T. Stevenson, Orangeville.

The KIRBY

AGAIN

VICTORIOUS!

A. HARRIS, SON & CO.,

GENTLEMEN:—After testing your No. 3, B Reaper along with one made by J. Bricker, of Waterloo, and represented by Conrad George, I have no hesitation in saying that your Machine is far superior to the Bricker Machine, as it makes a sheaf without any twist in the bottom; will cut without choking in any kind of grain; lighter draft; easier handled over rough ground; more durable; in fact will cut where the Bricker Machine will not work without choking, as the Bricker Machine was useless on my farm.

I can conscientiously recommend the Kirby Reaper to the farming community, as it is better than your agent (A. S. Deavitt) represented it.
