£100 REWARD.

WHEREAS some malicious person or persons have circulated a REPORT that SEVERAL HUNDRED CHESTS OF DAMAGED TEAS, had to undergo, and (from the effects of salt water) pronounced to be unfit for sale in this City, when purchased by me, I hereby offer a REWARD of £100 to any person who will bring to evidence the author or authors of such a base, and malicious report to injure my business.

It is well known that I and I alone have been the purchaser of the Tea and Coffee Trade in Canada, that used (the Company) to buy and, consequently the sale of Teas and Coffee to retail the Upper Province, and, by my energy in new trade, succeeded in forcing the great public, which it now claims, successfully to the great profit of merchants, who, I trust, will feel to my interest. It is one way of merchants, I have to contend with, which is, that I have to deal with known fact of the world, that facility of buying, if you in a proper condition, where importers, &c., are anxious to get rid of their property, &c., &c., one buy; but when any good, cheap, or valuable, &c., one buy; but in this case, I cannot overlook it, and have risk to my, that I may have expended the money by purchase, the Damaged Teas, where I could not sell, to make up any loss, as I legally expect, no man shall injure with my hard-earned reputation with impunity.
