(h) Bylaw No. 3568, fixing the assessment of The London Brass Works Company of London, Ontario, Limited, for the period of fifteen years from the 1st day of January, A. D. 1911, at $5,000, as therein provided, passed 5th December, 1910.

(i) Bylaw No. 3569, to provide for raising moneys to pay for the construction of cement sidewalks, cement curbs and gutters, therein referred to, and to levy the rates to meet the debentures to be issued therefor, passed 19th December, 1910.

(j) Bylaw No. 3571, to provide for raising moneys to pay for the construction of the sewers therein referred to, and to levy the rates to meet the debentures to be issued therefor, passed 19th December, 1910.

(k) Bylaw No. 3572, to provide for raising money to pay for the construction of the pavement therein referred to, and to levy the rates to meet the debentures to be issued therefor, passed 19th December, 1910.

(l) Bylaw No. 3573, to consolidate the several issues of debentures referred to in bylaws numbered 2630, 3571 and 3572, and to provide for raising by debentures the city's share of the cost of the improvements in the said bylaws mentioned which is to be raised by special rate, passed 19th December, 1910.

(m) Bylaw No. 3581, to provide for the construction of underground conduits for carrying Hydro-Electric and other wires and of cables and wires for electric light and power, on that part of Richmond street which lies between the Grand Trunk Railway Company's tracks and Fullarton street, passed 2nd August, 1910.

(n) Bylaw No. 3582, to provide for the construction of underground conduits for carrying hydro-electric and other wires, and of cables and wires for electric light and power on that part of Dundas street which lies between Ridout street and Wellington street, passed 2nd August, 1910.

(o) Bylaw No. 3588, to provide for the issue of $75,000 for the purpose of obtaining such real and personal property as may be required by the corporation for a city hall, and for electing upon such real property a city hall, passed 9th January, 1911.

The existing debenture debt of the municipality is $3,042,816.23, exclusive of its local improvement debenture debt, except such portion of which no portion of the principal or interest is in arrear, and thereof as is payable by the said corporation at large, the reason for requiring the above issue of debentures authorized by bylaw No. 3588, is the necessity for the construction of a new city hall, the reason of the present city hall being too small and unsuited for the present requirements of the city.

(p) Bylaw No. 3617, to provide for the construction of a pavement on Richmond street, between Fullarton street and the Grand Trunk Railway Company's tracks, passed 20th June, 1910.

(q) Bylaw No. 3618, to provide for the construction of a pavement on Dundas street between Ridout street and Wellington street, passed 20th June, 1910.

2. To acquire, and if it is necessary or expedient to expropriate and take possession of such lands with or without the erections thereon, within the city of London, as the council of the corporation may deem necessary or expedient for the erection of the new city hall, and to sell at such price and on such terms as the council of the corporation may deem necessary, the present city hall and the present police station, and the land upon which the same are situate, and to convey the same to the purchaser, purchasers thereof, at such time within five years from the passing of this act, as the said council may see fit.

And for other purposes.

The said bylaws may be seen at the office of the city clerk in the city of London.

Dated at London this twelfth day of January, A. D. 1911.

LEGISLATURE VOTE ON RECIPROCITY

The House Divides On Motion to Leave Federal Issue Alone.

MADE BY MR. MACKAY

Shows That Idea of Trade Following The Flag Is Fallacious.

Toronto, Feb. 15.—The debate on the budget was concluded this afternoon with vigorous addresses from the two leaders of the House and the first division of the session taken on an amendment proposed by Hon. Mr. Mackay, resulted in a vote of 80 to 16, in favor of the Government. Two members on each side were paired, and Mr. Studholme, the Hamilton Labor member, voted with the Government.

Hon. A. G. MacKay, leader of the opposition, spoke for nearly two hours, and devoted about an hour of his speech to reciprocity. He said the statement that trade followed the flag was not to be taken seriously, and as a matter of fact was a fallacy. He thought the Legislature should confine itself to provincial subjects and leave to the Dominion Government all subjects of direct interest to the Dominion as a whole. At the close of his speech he moved a resolution which, after censuring the Government for extravagant expenditures, for neglect of rural schools and technical education and failure to inaugurate a vigorous immigration and colonization policy, concluded with these words:

Federal Issues.

"This House deplores the growing tendency on part of members of this Government to introduce federal issues into our debates, and regrets that organized attempts of ministers and their supporters to discredit the agreement for better trade relations between Canada and the United States, which, if consummated, will prove so beneficial to Canada, and especially to the agriculturists."

In a speech lasting over an hour, Sir James Whitney stated his position and what he claimed to be the unanimous opinion of the Conservative party of this province on reciprocity.

To the statements made by the leader of the Opposition that the question of reciprocity should be left to the Dominion House and should never have
