One Year for Bigamy.

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—Arthur Godin of Hull, who married Elizabeth Gardiner of Ottawa on Sept. 22 last, tho he already had one wife, was to-day sentenced to a year in Central Prison by Magistrate O'Keefe.

O'Keefe's

"Gold Label" is just the kind of Ale that you would expect The O'Keefe Brewery to brew—a rich, creamy, delicious old Ale—that is wonderfully wholesome and nutritious.

No cork screws needed to open the bottles—they are sealed with Crown stoppers.

HIGH PARK CURLING CLUB

Will Be In Operation This Winter With Rink on Indian-road.

The charter members hope to have the new High Park Curling Club in operation the coming winter. The proper cognomen, as given in the prospectus, is: The High Park Curling and Lawn Bowling Club. The share capital is to be $40,000, $20,000 of which is preferred. The qualifications of members will be, for bowling, $25, being one share of common stock. The qualifications for curling will be one share of common stock, $25. The annual fee for the year for the former will be $10, for the latter, $20. The subscriptions will be limited to 150 for each, that all members may have abundant opportunity for enjoyment. The preferred shares, $20,000, will be sold for the purpose of developing the propositions of the club. The club has an option on land on Indian-road, 103 feet frontage, running thru to Keele-street, with a frontage there of 114 feet facing High Park. In addition to the above sports there will be six or seven lawn tennis courts, which will be rented in the summer, and in the winter flooded for skating.

It is hoped that the club will be ready with its equipment for the coming seasons of sport. The directors are busy at work with this end in view, and they are now open with their books for subscriptions. The prospectus is filed with the provincial secretary, which complies with the rigid rules of that department. There will be a club house with billiard room and parlors with all modern comforts. There will be no license—therefore no liquor sold or allowed on the premises. The approximate cost of the land and improvements is $22,500. Shares to the amount of expenditure only will be issued.

Swansea Curling Club.

The old Caledonian Curling Club will continue as last year on the open ice on the Rennie property at Swansea, tho the name may be changed to that of the Swansea Curling Club. This was decided at a special meeting last night with President L. Howard in the chair. An adjournment was made till next week, when the officers will be elected.

Varsity Rooters' Club.

The Varsity Rooters' Club is again in full swing, and there will be some noise up at the Rosedale grounds next Saturday, when Varsity meet Queens.

The first practice of the Rooters' Club was held last night in Convocation Hall, and the walls fairly shook with the vibrations. The program consisted of songs, parodies and yells.
