Japan:
THE LAND OF THE MORNING.

—BY—
REV. J. W. SAUNBY, B.A.

Cloth, Illustrated, $1.00.

CONTENTS: The Land—Myth and Tradition—In the Ancient Days—The Scholar and the Priest—The Struggle for the Mastery—The Samurai and His Lord—The Trader and the Missionary—Tokugawa's Triumph—Daybreak—Sunrise in Sunrise Land.

"This is the best recent book on Japan that we have seen. Mr. Saunby was a successful missionary of our Church in that country for several years. He understands its history, its institutions, its people. He gives a graphic account of the land, its myths and traditions, its ancient condition and emergence into modern civilization, the advent of the Western trader and missionary, and the recent causes which have led to the wonderful national development which has astonished the world. The chapters on 'Daybreak' and 'Sunrise in Sunrise Land' are of marvellous inspiration—a sort of new 'Acts of the Apostles.' The book has numerous engravings and a very handsome symbolical cover."—Methodist Magazine.
