500.000 Subscribers Wanted.

The new volume of Scribner's Monthly will present a more brilliant array of contributors, a wider and more thorough discussion of the topics treated in its Editorial Departments, finer illustrations, and more uniformly good printing than any which has preceded it. The List of Contributors just published contains nearly one hundred of the brightest names known to our literature. Among the features of special interest will be Dr. Holland's splendid serial, "Arthur Bonnicastle," a story of American life. Also a series of brilliantly illustrated papers by Edward King, under the title of "The Great South," which will be alone worth the price of the Monthly. There will be also entertaining Papers "About Authors, their friends, Whims, and Ways." Papers on "The Decoration of "American Homes." "Sketches, with Portraits of Living American Writers." Also "The Best Short Stories" by the best living story writers. There will be descriptive articles, tales of travel and adventure, the choicest poems, the most brilliant essays, editorials, reviews and art critiques, departments relating to home and society, nature and science, and culture and progress, amusing and interesting etchings, etc., etc., presenting nearly 2000 pages of the choicest illustrated literature by the best writers in the English language

Scribner's Monthly has obtained something more than national recognition. An eminent English author, in a note to the publishers, says: "It is incomparably better than any Magazine I have come across." It claims to be "the foremost magazine of its class in the world." Subscription price $4 a year, payable in advance. November and December numbers sent free to all subscribers for 1873. Scribner & Co., 654 Broadway, New York.

The circulation of the DAILY TRIBUNE is rapidly increasing.

Parliament assembled to day.

The Queen in her speech first alludes to the mission of Sir Bartle Frere for the suppression of the slave trade on the east coast of Africa. The decision of the Emperor William in the San Juan boundary question is touched upon. The Queen expresses her acknowledgments to the Emperor of Germany, and the Geneva arbitrators, for the pains bestowed upon the work assigned them. Correspondence with Russia in regard to the boundary line of Affghanistan, will be laid before Parliament. Although this harvest has been, to some extent deficient, the general condition of Great Britain is satisactory. A measure will be submitted at an early day for settling the question of University Education in Ireland.

Sir Alexander Cockburn has refused a peerage, and received the Grand Cross of the Order of Bath.

Lord Orrington is seriously ill.

The schooner James Bagley was wrecked on the Anlesea (Wales) coast, and eight of the crew perished.

LONDON, Feb. 5.

THE OPENING OF PARLIAMENT—RUSSIAN AGGRESSION TO BE STAYED — DISCUSSION OF THE GENEVA SETTLEMENT.

In the House of Lords among distinguished persons present at the opening of the session were the Prince of Wales, Duke of Edinburgh and Prince Teck.

When the reading of the Queen's Speech had ended the Earl of Clarendon moved the Address in reply. He congratulated their Lordships on the removal of the long standing difficulties with the United States. In regard to the Eastern Question, he declarod the Government would deal with it in a prompt, decisive and, at the same time, dignified manner, because England witnesses with regret the encroachments of Russia, whose further movement would tend to the diminution of the harmony which has long prevailed between the two powers.

Lord Monteagle seconded the motion for the address in a short speech.

The Earl of Derby criticized the Government and maintained that the effect of the Geneva decision would be that England would hereafter be liable for damages in matters wherein she could make no claim on others.

Lord Granville defended the Government in bringing about the settlement of the Alabama claims. The condition of the question which had arisen concerning Central Asia did not justify the sensational telegrams which created alarm here and elsewhere. It was not probable that the affair would lead to serious complications.

Mr. Gladstone defended the royal speech, replying to the criticisms on the manner in which disputes with America had been settled. He declared if a similar case should arise arbitration would again be resorted to. Honor was not sacrificed and the fearful horrors of war had been averted. No alteration of the Municipal law was required.

In the Commons the address in reply to the Queen's speech was moved by Charles Lyttleton, member for East Worcestershire, who congratulated the House and country on the settlement of disputes with the United States, although the decision was unfavorable to England there was not the slightest ground for impugning the judgment of the Geneva arbitrators or the German Emperor. No nation should be slow to follow England's example.

William Stone, member for Portsmouth, seconded the motion.

Disraeli addressed the house at considerable length in opposition to the general policy of the Government.

And at my side the gas is lit;
All in the cold shade of the night,
I'll try a card in rhyme to write.

I do not aim at poetry or prose,
But write about materials for making clothes,
That is, Shawls, Sacques, Scarfs, Gloves and Laces,
Hats and Flowers to ornament the ladies faces,

Silks, in black, drab, steel, brown and blue,
In the windows of King street, number two;
Dress Reps, Black Lustres, Chignons and Switches to braid,
All in new colors, the best that's made,

Showed to be admired by the pasters by,
All at prices low, if they want to buy
Hollands, Prints, Tweeds, Skirts, Nets and Hose
Collars, Cuffs, and Ribbons for making Bows

To all the Ladies that may come to town,
Give me a call when you're looking 'round,
Money you can save if you buy here
Both good and cheap—you need not fear.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the article known as OLD TOM GIN, being a Sweetened Spirit, cannot be accurately tested for by strength by Syke's Hydrometer in the mode prescribed by Law for testing Spirituous Liquors, and it is expedient with a view to uniformity in the collection of duty thereon, that an average strength should be adopted as the rule governing entries thereof.

His Excellency, on the recommendation of the Honorable the Minister of Customs, and under the authority given by the 4th section of the Act 31 Vic., Cap. 6, intituled: "An Act respecting the Customs," has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that in collecting Customs Duty on the importation of OLD TOM GIN, the same be dealt with and treated as a Spirit twenty-three per cent. under proof, or containing seventy-seven per cent. of proof spirits.
