Weakness in Montreal Tel. Stock—Improvement in Cattle and Hogs.

TUESDAY EVENING, Feb. 18.

Speculation was active on the stock exchange this morning, the deals of the forenoon alone exceeding 1200 shares. In bank stocks, Imperial was a little stronger, buyers advancing their bids with no sales. The remainder of the bank stocks were either stationary or a shade weaker. A few shares of Ontario changed hands at 123, sellers having conceded a point since yesterday. British American was stronger, and wanted at 104¼; Northwest Land Co. continued active with sales of nearly 800 shares at 83, 82½ and 81¾. Nearly all the Loan Co. stocks were firmer; 101½ was bid for Canada Permanent with no sellers. Buyers of London & Can. increased their offer ½ and 70 shares changed hands. There was a lively enquiry with several transactions in People's Loan. At the afternoon board there was little change. B. & L. was a shade weaker, with sales of 40 shares at 105½. Canada Permanent showed more buoyancy, 10 shares being sold at 201¾. Total sales of the day 1360.

THE STREET MARKET.

Marketing small and prices unchanged, enquiry fair with steady quotations.

Wheat—200 bushels; white 87c, red 85c, spring 83c, goose 69c.

Barley—About 1000 bushels brought 38c to 46c.

Oats—None offering; would bring 32c to 33c.

Peas—54c to 55c.

Dressed hogs—Continued light deliveries sent up the price slightly to-day, a couple of loads of extra lights realizing $6.50; ruling quotations for this class $6 to $6.50. Heavy varieties also show an advance and are now quoted at $5.50 to $6.

Hay—Fair offerings, with figures unchanged at $10 to $12.50 for timothy and $6 to $7 for clover.

Straw—$6 to $7.

FOWL ARE STILL SCARCE AND CHICKENS bring your own price for good stock. Eggs took a further drop, and are now moving lively at 17c. Butter is in about the same position, with fair demand for nice, small, fresh lots; choice tub is getting scarce; for medium and poor there is still scarcely any demand. There is a demand for good yellow or red onions. Consignments of above solicited. We have for sale fresh eggs; choice butter in rolls, pails, tubs, and crocks; finest cheese from the Highlands of Canada; dried green peas; white beans, split peas; Canadian and American lard, for which we solicit your orders. YOUNG, ANDREWS & CO., Produce and Commission, 74 Front-street East.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.

There are few changes to note in the St. Lawrence market. Butter is still worth 18c to 20c at farmers' wagons, and in view of an active enquiry is not likely to drop in the meantime. Eggs are cheaper, selling at 14c to 15c. The supply of poultry was so limited that dealers secured practically anything they chose to ask, the high prices of the past few days not only having been maintained but in some instances enhanced. Turkeys may be quoted at 11c to 14c per lb., geese 8c to 11c and chickens 70c to 90c per pair. Meats are unchanged, although the carcases offered to-day were in some respects an improvement on Monday; beef is worth 6c all round, forequarters selling at 4½c to 5½c and hindquarters 6½c to 7c; lamb brings 10c and mutton 8c.

AMONG THE PRODUCE DEALERS.

The outside demand for the better grades of butter continues good. Large rolls bring 15c to 16c per pound, and dairy tub, choice, 17c. Inferior is not wanted, even at 10c. The egg market is less active and enquiry is slow. Fresh eggs have fallen in price to 15c per dozen, and limed are quoted at 10c to 11c, but owing to the large arrivals of fresh laid pickled are practically unsaleable. The cheese market is flat and sales slow at 9c to 10c. Some lots touched as low as 8½c. Fine new creameries of small weight bring 19½c. Holders of cheese think prices have touched bottom and are looking hopefully forward to a reaction in the market with advanced prices. A few are holding back in anticipation, while the remainder are holding because they cannot unload. There is a fair enquiry for potatoes and apples at unchanged prices. Lard, bacon, etc., at previous quotations.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

OSWEGO, N.Y., Feb. 18, 11 a.m.—Barley quiet; No. 2 Can. held at 55c; No. 2 extra Can. 57½c; No. 1 Canadian 61c. No shipments.

OSWEGO, N.Y., Feb. 18, 3.45 p.m.—Barley unchanged; No. 2 Can. held at 55c; No. 2 extra Can. 57½c; No. 1 Canadian 61c.

PETROLEUM.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Petroleum closed at 105⅛ to 105⅝.

The Cattle Market.

There were 53 loads on the Western Cattle Market to-day, including about 150 sheep and 100 hogs. The arrivals for the past week were 1447 cattle, 337 sheep and 643 hogs. Prices were well maintained and an active trade was done. In sympathy with the lower tendency of both Buffalo and Montreal markets, buyers were chary of paying higher figures than those of last week.

Cattle—There was a fair supply of butchers' cattle, and more first-class beeves were to be found among them than for some time. Shippers find it impossible to secure a load of export stock and pick out lots of two or three, paying 4c to 4¼c per lb. But two buyers bought for export. Pretty good steers and fat cows sold to butchers at 3½c to 4c, bulls at from 3c to 3¼c, and a few leanish beasts went at 2½c and 2¾c. One lot of 19 fat cattle sold at $30 each, fine stock milch cows at $42 each, 10 head butchers and steers at $27 each, and one load at $38 each. These prices can be accepted as about the average for ordinary and medium grades of butchers' stock.

Sheep and Lambs—There was a good demand for mixed lots with the supply about equal to enquiry. Purchases were on butchers' account, no shipments being made at this season. Good to choice are worth $5 to $6, with $6.50 paid for a few extra. Common to fair lots drag at $4.50 to $5.25. Representative sales were 74 head at $4.80, 8 head at $5, 30 head at $5.70, 47 head at $5.50, and 10 (extra) at $6.50.

Hogs—The market is stronger with a demand in excess of the supply, outside markets being stronger, with a brisk enquiry. One dealer endeavored to secure three double decks to fill an eastern shipment but was unable to do so; there were only about 100 marketed and these were picked up before 11 o'clock. Good to choice light mixed are worth 4½c, and heavy medium and stores 4¼c.

Calves—There were very few calves offered and they were sold at high rates. The demand continues good and all offered are cleaned out early. One buyer paid $10 each for three, $7 each for two and $13 for a couple of others. A lot of five brought $46.

THE HORSE MARKET.

The horse market is dull and the tendency is towards lower prices. Of 100 general purpose animals offered at Grand's to-day 75 were disposed of at prices ranging from $80 to $140 each. A number of French-Canadian horses and ponies, ranging in size from 14.2 to 15.1, were sold at $80 to $115.

Business Embarrassments.

William Palmer, general merchant, Gravenhurst, is offering his creditors 60 cents on the dollar.

J. Goulnock & Co., wholesale furriers, Front-street west, have decided to go into liquidation, with assets of $30,000.

The stock of Cummings & Co., general merchants, Ridgetown, invoiced at $8000, was sold by Barker & Co. to-day at 70c on the dollar.

A meeting of the creditors of Dart & McKelvey of Habburton was held at Barker & Co.'s to-day and adjourned for a week to allow the firm to make an offer. The liabilities are $5000, with assets nominally the same.

Ontario assignments reported to-day include John Farquharson, insurance agent, Whitby, missing; Walker & Co., woolen manufacturers, Alvinston, who have assigned, and Ryan & Phelan, dry goods merchants, who offer a compromise of 40 cents to creditors.

Bower & Co., grocers, 380 College-street, are offering to compromise at 45 cents on the dollar.
