Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS:—Holiday advertisers will receive special attention until the New Year.

LUMBER STOCKS.—The quantities of lumber to be held over this season on the North Shore—including Kent, Northumberland, and Restigouche—is about sixty millions.

HORTON'S CREEK BRIDGE contract appears to be getting interested parties into trouble. Mr. [illegible] is attempting to lock the stable door after the horse is stolen. Better late than never, however.

QUADRILLE ASSEMBLIES.—The first of a series of quadrille assemblies is to be held in Masonic Hall this evening. The committee of management is Messrs Thos. F. Gillispie, W. B. Howard, Rich'd Fairey, and M. S. Benson.

LONG VOYAGE:—The barque Hoppet, Capt. Hasselton, which arrived in port on Wednesday of last week from London, had a long passage—69 days—having sailed on the 4th Sept. last. She was built at Beaubair's Island, by Mr. Joseph Russell, and was formerly known as Zion's Hope.

SUPREME COURT.—Mr. Henry H. James who studied in the office of his father, James A. James, Esquire, at Richibucto, was admitted an Attorney of the Supreme Court at the last Michaelmas term, and was awarded a first class certificate by the Court for the highly creditable examination he passed.

COMPETITION.—The second competition of the Northumberland Rifle Association is to take place on Tuesday next, 25th inst., as will be seen by advertisement. We are informed that on some of the posters sent to down-river points the number of rounds at each range was stated to be two. It should have been five.

THE "SULTAN":—The date of the tug Sultan's loss, which we announced last week, was Tuesday 11th inst. She sprung a serious leak about 11 miles from the Nova Scotia shore in the Straits and the Capt. and crew escaped in the boat. The insurance was $6,000, instead of $4,000 as we stated last week.

PERSONAL—Mr. W. T. Connors, of Chatham, and Miss Emma Philips of Dalhousie—daughter of the late John Philips M. P.—were married at Dalhousie yesterday. Miss Philips numerous friends will wish her every happiness over the auspicious event, especially as she is so worthily mated.

Rev. Mr. Babineau of Tracadie was in town yesterday.

MILITARY.—Lt. Col. MacShane, Brigade Major, was in town yesterday. He is on a tour of Inspection of Active Militia corps not drilled during the present year. He inspected Capts. Fenton and McKnight's stores yesterday. Bt. Lt. Col. Gillespie's stores were inspected last evening. Col. MacShane is looking well and is always a welcome visitor to Chatham.

THE "CIRCULATION":—We discharged a hand from this office last week and the Advocate people boast of having had him in their office since and obtaining information from him in regard to our circulation. The result is that they back down entirely from accepting our offer to prove that we have two subscribers to every one of theirs in Chatham. Sic transit gloria mundi.

REBUILDING ON THE SITE OF THE LATE FIRE.—Mr. James Kerr, whose house was destroyed by the late fire on Water Street, has recently re-built his premises on the old site. The work was done by Mr. Geo. Cassidy and the house is a commodious one of 1½ stories with gable roof, 20x27ft with 3 rooms and hall on the ground flat, with kitchen attached. There are also 3 bedrooms up stairs. Mr. Kerr has set a good example, and it is to be hoped that others will be enabled to follow it.

AN INJUSTICE.—We are assured by Rev. Mr. Babineau that the letter with his name attached which appeared in yesterday's Advocate is not the letter, as he placed it in the hands of the editor's of the Advocate. He requested the Advocate people to publish the letter as it appeared in the ADVANCE, and in a form which showed that it was from the ADVANCE'S columns. It seems that our cotemporary is prepared to go to any lengths in its ill-treatment of those who have the respect of the community.

POLICE STATISTICS:—The number of arrests made by the Chatham Police during the past summer amounted to 72, divided as follows, viz:—

Drunk,	26
Desertion,	22
Theft,	6
Assault and Battery,	6
Refusing duty on board ship,	2
Burglary,	2
Wife Beating,	2
Abusive and insulting Language,	2
Not appearing in answer to summons,	2
Drunk and Resisting Police,	1
Vagrancy,	1

There were 12 persons sued in name of Police,

Five persons received food and shelter at Lockup during the summer.

Fines were imposed amounting to over $150 dollars.

"GRACE EGERTON."—Mrs. and Mr. Geo. Case, with their little daughter, "Dolly Dot," appeared at Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening. The performance consisted of character delineations, songs, concertina and violin playing by Mr. Case, two legerdemain tricks by Mrs. Case and two short sketches "Sairey Gamp" and "Married and Settled." Those who had witnessed "Grace Egerton's" performances when she was in the Province seven or eight years ago, were very much disappointed on Tuesday night. She appears to have lost the vivacity and finished style which won the reputation on which she is now continuing before the public. At all events the performance was, both in quality and artistic merit, below what was anticipated. Mrs. Case's song "Down in a Coal Mine" was well rendered and as "Brittannia" with the song "Here stands a Post" she received a deserved encore, but she was disappointing in nearly all her other efforts. Mr. Case's imitation of the bagpipes with the concertina was clever and his violin playing very good, but he is in not a pleasing general performer by any means. "Dolly Dot's" singing was not equal to that of many local children of her age who have favoured audiences in the same hall, besides which the poor child was so tired as to render it evident that she should have been abed and not on the stage.

Some excuse may be made for the poor performance on account of the performers having arrived on the evening train and being obliged to go immediately to the hall, but that is their affair and persons who take the money, of the public for entertaining them should not incapacitate them.

"ME TOO!"—It appears that when the local Protectionist party find their views as expressed in their "ready made" sheet unnoticed, they instruct their "second fiddle" in Newcastle to repeat what they have produced and the result is some wonderful original articles. Like Mr. Sargent's Indians, when one of them hears of another obtaining something from the Government the Advocate cries out "Me Too"! "Me Too!"—and this week it has caught a smelt cast up by the "ready made." It says the ADVANCE, last Spring, proposed to prohibit bag-nets entirely above Middle Island. So we did, when there was danger of the Inspector having them prohibited over the whole river, as he threatened to do. It was on the principle that half a loaf is better than no bread, that we made the proposition. Since that the ADVANCE has also said:—

Such a prohibition, if imposed when times were better, would not produce the misery and want that will be felt this season on account of it, and whatever may be the arguments—and they cannot be strong—in favor of its ultimate propriety, the present time is a most inopportune one for commencing its enforcement. When the leading industry of the river is restored to its former prosperous condition there will not be so much of absolute want among us as now exists, and Chatham, above all other places, can afford to forego its people's legitimate fishing privileges. Now, however, is no time for interference with any natural privilege which is calculated to bring income to an almost destitute class.

The Inspector who evidently wrote the Adovcate's little article, seeing that it was promised last week, will have to try again before showing any inconsistincy in this quarter.

Entertainment of the Chatham Temperance Reformers.

On Tuesday evening the Chatham Temperance Reformers held their weekly entertainment in the Temperance Hall. Vice president Alexander Cantley presided and the meeting was opened with prayer by Mr. Robert Gordon. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. A. W. Paterson, R. Gordon, Adam Shirreff and Alex. Cantley A glee was sung by Misses. Maggie Johnson, M. Anderson, M. Johnson, and L. Vaughan, and a solo by Capt. Brown, with choruses by the choir. Miss M. Anderson presided at the piano.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The installation of officers, which was postponed from the previous Tuesday evening, was now announced by the Vice. President as next in order on the programme.

The Secretary then read the list of Office Bearers for the ensuing quarter as published by us last week. There was, however, an alteration in the ladies Executive Committee as follows:—

In the room of Mesdames Snowball, Murray and Merserean, who were unable to attend to the duties of the office, the names of Misses Marquis, McLachlan, L. Stapledon and Lessie Bain were substituted.

The installation, in the unavoidable absence of the clergymen was conducted by Adam Shirreff Esq., who briefly addressed the new officers, adverting to the want of interest manifested in the society by those who ought to lend their efforts to promote its welfare, and expressing the hope that the new officers would be enabled to infuse new life into it. He also announced that there would be a meeting of the gentlemen's Executive Committee at his office on the following evening to make arrangements for the ensuing quarter.

A. W. Paterson, Esq., the new President, briefly returned thanks for his election, and particularly addressed the boys, expressing a hope that they would abstain from the unnecessary practice of stamping with their feet, though they might applaud with their hands as much as they liked. He hoped they would set an example of good order and do all they could to aid the society. In conclusion he said he would be glad if as many of the members of the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Executive Committees as could attend, would meet at his house on Thursday evening, to talk over the prospects of the society. He also hoped that the Treasurer would provide a quantity of ribbon for badges before the next meeting, as there would probably be an accession of new members.

The proceedings then closed with the National Anthem.

St. Andrew's Church new Sunday School Building.

At a congregational meeting of members of St. Andrew's Church held last spring, it was decided to erect a Sabbath School Hall for the use of the Church. A Building Committee was accordingly appointed, consisting of the Hon. Wm. Muirhead, Dr. J. S. Benson, Messrs, W. S. Loggie, William Sinclair, and Duncan Davidson. A Financial Committee was also appointed, consisting of Messrs. Wm. Johnston, A. J. Loggie, J. Nicol, Geo. I. Wilson and John Galloway. The latter committee immediately proceeded to raise the requisite funds in addition to a sum of $478.26 in hand, consisting of $400 with interest, the proceeds of a bazaar held by the ladies of the congregation some years ago, the original amount having been deposited in the bank and kept there up to the present time. The estimated cost of the building was $1,500, and the amount now collected in subscriptions is $327.

The building is situated at the south west corner of the church lot, immediately in the rear of the church, fronting upon Henderson Street,

The contract for the carpenter's work of the new school house was given to Mr. John Cassidy, architect and builder, who also furnished the plans and design, the latter on a small scale, being closely modelled, upon that of the church. The stone foundation was commenced by Mr. Anthony Forest the 1st of last May, the masonry being "quarry faced" on the outside, giving a basement 5½ feet clear, lighted by two windows on the North side, with a door at the East end.

The frame was commenced by Mr. Cassidy 1st June, and the exterior completed on the 1st September. The dimensions are 68x31 ft., and 21 ft., post. The building is erected in a substantial manner, and is, as already stated, a repetition of the design of the church in minature. It has a gable roof, covered with sawn cedar shingles; and the walls are pierced on each side with 3 long windows surmounted with hooded mouldings. At the front of the building, approached by steps, is the entrance, the doors opening in the centre and having a large fanlight above them. There are three windows, at the front similar to those in the sides of the building, one on either side of the door and one above it. These are for the purpose of lighting the library and class room.

The entrance to the interior is from a vestibule 13 ft., long by 6 ft., wide. On the left is a room 12x14 ft., intended to be used as a library from which a winding staircase—the work of Mr. Burdick—leads to a class room overhead, which is 24x14 ft. On the right of the vestibule is another class room of the same size as the library,

The main hall is 55x30ft. with a height of 21ft. It is lighted by three windows on each side; when finished the walls will be wainscoated and painted and the room will be furnished with reversible seats. Mr. Cassidy, in addition to the carpenter's work, afterwards contracted for finishing the interior of the building including the plastering and painting, the former of which was executed by Mr. Wm. Burbridge, and the latter by Mr. John Bell.

A very neat fence has also been placed around the south west faces of the building.

The congregation of St. Andrew's Church are to be congratulated upon the completion of their handsome school house, an undertaking which is the more creditable to them when the prevailing commercial depression is considered. Much credit is also due to Mr. Cassidy, the contractor for the satisfactory manner in which the work has been executed.

Address to a Teacher.

Mr. Jas. McIntosh, who has taught the Chatham Head school for the last three and a half years was, on the eve of his departure to take charge of Clifton Superior School, Gloucester County, presented by his pupils with an inkstaud, and the following address:—

To Mr. James McIntosh, Teacher:

Dear Sir:—We, the undersigned pupils attending your school, cannot permit you to depart from among us, without some mark of our respect. Your very great pains taken to forward us in our studies, and the deep interest you have taken to cnitivate a kindly feeling among us have aroused a sentiment among us which will not soon fade away.

We therefore tender to you our best wishes, and wherever your lot may be cast we wish you prosperity and happiness, and may a kind Providence watch over and protect you. In conclusion receive this token of our respect and may the liquid you use from this little phial always bring to your mind the little group of scholars left behind in Chatham Head.

(Signed)

William Condren,	Ellen Coughlin,
Mary Creighton,	Maggie Bryce,
Henrietta Nowlan,	Jenny Bryce,
David Sullivan,	John Bryce,

Bessie Jackson,	Kate Jackson,
Bessie Connell,	Mary E. Rogers,
James Jackson,	Maggie Pickett,
John Jackson,	Frank Connor,
Hannsiel Carvell,	Herbt. Baldwin,
	Louise Vye.

Mr. McIntosh replied briefly, thanking the pupils for their expression of good-will and hoping that they would evince the same good feeling towards his successor as had always characterized their intercourse with himself.

Chatham Head Lodge also sent the following address to Mr. McIntosh:—

CHATHAM, Nov. 10th, '79.

TO JAMES MCINTOSH:—

Dear Sir and Brother: Permit us through this medium to tender you our sincere regrets for your departure from among us. As, a member of our Lodge we have always found you ready to promote our interest and the cause of Temperance generally, and therefore Chatham Head Lodge United T. A. has sustained a loss which will not be easily replaced, and we feel justified in asserting that the County Lodge has lost one of its great supporters and a good officer. But if we feel the loss in our associations, we trust others may feel the gain and reap a lasting benefit from your counsel.

In behalf of the officers and members of Chatham Head Lodge, we tender you our best wishes for your future welfare and may you enjoy good health, peace and prosperity, and may an all wise Creator guard and guide you and enable you to further the best interest of all Christian Associations.

William P. Connor, Edward Rogers, Eliza Jackson, } Committee.

Mr. McIntosh replied as follows:—

CLIFTON, Nov. 12th, '79.

To the President, Officers and members of Chatham Head Lodge, U. T. A. Brothers and Sisters:—It was with feelings of both surprise and pleasure that to day I received your very complimentary address. In thanking you for your good wishes I feel that I have not always been as active a worker in the cause of Temperance as I should have been, but I hope I may always adhere to, and promote whenever I can, the principles which first I professed in Chatham Head Lodge, and may it continue to prosper, and be the means of causing many young men to abstain from the use of alcoholic liquors.

In conclusion I assure you the many pleasant evenings I have spent in your midst and the courtesies I have received at your hands will not soon be forgotten by me. Yours very truly,

JAMES MCINTOSH.

Lumbering in Gloucester.

We take the following from the Advocate:—During the winter of 1879-80 Messrs. Burns, Adams & Co., will have engaged in logging operations fully 300 men, and 40 pair of horses. The slight improvement in the business has brought about an increase in the wages, which are from $2 to $3 better than the pay of last season. For the Bathurst mill supply logging operations for 1879-80 are being conducted principally upon the Big Nepisignit River, and for the Caraquet Mill on the Caraquet River. It is expected that a sufficient quantity of logs will be obtained, with stock on hand, to keep the mills running steadily next season. A considerable portion of the logs to be cut on the Big River will be of pine, which for size and quality are perhaps the best in the Province. The firm will carry over, in connection with their two mills, about 1,500,000 sup. feet of logs. We hope that next season will witness a revival in the business, so that this firm as well as others of our enterprising capitalists engaged in the lumber trade, may be in a position to prosecute their business with more profit to themselves and with more advantage to those who are indirectly and directly concerned in their prosperity.

The operations of the new firm of Thos. Temple & Co., will improve business matters in St. Peter's Village. This firm—which has at its head a gentleman who is widely known and highly respected in the Capital and throughout the Province,—commenced business in Gloucester in August last, when they purchased the milling property at that time owned by Messrs, Ferguson, Rankin & Co. Since that time the new firm have been actively engaged in making necessary repairs and improvements. The Steam mill is being thoroughly overhauled, and in the course of a few days will be in good condition for next season's sawing. With reference to logging operations, the firm have in the woods at present about a dozen teams, and at least one hundred men, and expect to send in more teams and men shortly. It is expected that they will get out them selves about five millions sup. feet of logs, and have contracted for about three millions more, making in all eight millions. We wish the new firm every success in their operations.

Our Richibucto Letter.

It really seems that the County of Kent is doomed to suffer all the calamites that can possible befall a people. Can it be that Kent is like unto that man in the land of Uz? Within a year we have been smitten with a tornado and hurricanes; our bridges have been swept away, our houses unroofed or razed to the ground, our wharves sent to take swimming lessons, and quite a number of our coasting fleet wrecked; and now, as a last scourge, we have had

A PUBLIC DEFAULTER.

It would be tedious to mention all our misfortunes. I have omitted the National Policy. To return to the defalcation, for to that I would specially allude. The Collector of taxes in District No. 2, of the Parish of Richibucto, has taken flight and carried away with him about three hundred dollars of the public money.

In seeking a cause for these effects, it would of course be childish to father all these evils on the white elephant—the adored idol of Conservative devotees—but, having been promised that if we bowed our faces in the dust before the Brahman symbol we should be blessed with the rich fulness of Kulbha, it is not a slight disappointment to find that, to pay their taxes, the people have figuratively to "drop their blood for drachmas," and that office holders, to keep up appearance are forced to commit the vilest robberies.

WHAT SHALL WE DO TO BE SAVED?

Our promised hymn of joy has become a litany of groans. When, in answer to "what shall we do to be saved;" the Conservative spokesmen pronounce the questioners an army of hypochondriacs, they should remember that their promised panacea was to cure all our ills, and that their deception sickens us the most. A country is seldom fancy-sick. When trade falls off at a time when it is promised most to increase, faith in the promises is generally at a discount, and the means to prosperity which they so glowingly pictured, in failing to produce the promised results, prove themselves as great frauds as their success-seeking inventors. We have yet to see those factories which were to outweigh in benefits any sacrifice we might have made for their establishment. We plainly see a decreasing trade, dearer living, and the false Conservative echo to the country's complaint is "be patient, or you are troubled with cataract". We may have been troubled with cataract, friends, but we thank you for that, before the next election the dire experience we gain from the N. P. shall have given us clearer vision.

A CONCERT, ARBITRATION ETC.

Some of the amateurs of Richibucto intend giving a concert in the Temperance Hall on the evening of the 26th inst. The proceeds will go towards defraying the expenses attending the building of the Chancel of St. Mary's Church. The entertainment will, no doubt, be highly enjoyable.

The cause, Keswick vs McLeod, which was left to arbitration was settled to day and the arbitrators and lawyers lose their anticipated fees.

It is rumored that the election of the Councillors from the parish of St. Mary's is void and also the election of one of the Councillors from Wellington, but the rumors can scarcely be correct, as able hands guided the election in St. Mary's and it has passed into a proverb that Buctouche can take care of itself.

A Dreadful Sovereign.

The Freeman says of an item of news recently published:

The Christians of South Africa appear to be rather a mixed lot. One of the queerest is that so called Roman Catholic Governor of Lagos, who presided over a Missionary meeting held in a Baptist Church, at which the Anglican Bishop, Methodist and Baptist clergymen spoke.

It struck us, when we first read the statement on which this is based, that the event was a most interesting, and, to all professed christians, a satisfactory one. It is queer in the sense of being an unusual and marked evidence of the spread of charitable sentiment and non-sectarian spirit.—Sentinel.

The Freeman is well versed in church history and knows that it is the policy of all the churches which assume that Christ is their head, to tolerate, when they are not strong enough to successfully persecute each other. What they believe will come of such a spirit and policy in the next world it is difficult to conjecture, and it is be hoped that those whose ideas of a future state are based on the "New Commandment" will not, when they get to heaven, be troubled with such surroundings as the settling of worldly church politics must involve.

COTTON WARPS.—The price of cotton warps was advanced a few days ago to $1.25, an increase of 20 cents since the N. P. went into operation. Raw cotton now sells at about 13 cents per pound.—Freeman.

Letter from Mr. Loggie.

To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance,

DEAR SIR.—I would like, through the columns of your valuable paper, to contradict a statement made in the St. John weekly Sun of the 12th inst., which in speaking of the late storm states that Messrs. Loggie of Black Brook had a narrow escape on Egg Island where they were camped and gunning, etc; also a statement made in your issue of the 6th inst. that Mr. Alex. Loggie, Rock Heads, Chatham, with his two brothers were at Egg Island gunning on Wednesday, etc. On Wednesday afternoon and evening of the storm referred to I was at a wedding at Mr. Alex. Loggie, Sr's. house and spent a very happy time, and I might further say that there were no Messrs. Loggie of Black Brook at Egg Island on that night.

I would therefore advise you and other editors to be a little more careful and not publish even one lie out of ten from your down river correspondent.

Yours respectfully, ALEX. LOGGIE.

Black Brook, Chatham.

[We are obliged to Mr. Loggie for correcting the inaccuracy of our report, although he might have done so without making so rude and uncalled for a reference to our down-river correspondent. The statement we made came from a Hardwicke gentleman who never corresponded with the ADVANCE in his life.

The gentleman who left the above letter at the office of this paper informs us that the three Loggies who were gunning at Egg Island on the night of the storm live at Napan—some two miles from our correspondent.—ED.]

Ludlow Letter.

LUDLOW, Nov. 8th. 1879.

To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance:

As an occasional correspondent I drop you a few notes from up river, the purport of which speaks hard against the morals and integrity of our people who have been put in places of trust.

Mr. William Carroll, the Collector for the Parish of Blissfield, absconded with the money he had collected belonging to the Parish. Being a blacksmith, he took with him his bellows and anvil which must have impeded his flight, it being in the night that he took his departure, but that gave him the advantage of a good start which carried him across the boundary line before people were sure that he had actually gone.

Mr. James O'Donnel By-Road Commissioner also absconded for the States, that Asylum for rogues, taking with him a portion of our By-Road money. R. D. Robinson, Supervisor of the road leading from Doaktown to the Grand Lake, proves also to be in default about $30, which has not been forthcoming.

Much surprise is evinced and many comments are made against the perpetrators of the above misdeeds. We hear others spoken of up this way whose accounts have fallen short, but it is to be hoped the facts alleged will not prove true.

Robbery was attempted on some loads of dry goods belonging to John Fairley Esq., left standing at the Doaktown Hotel. The teamsters, in going out to feed, discovered two men breaking into some boxes of dry-goods with an axe. They took flight, being hotly pursued by the teamsters across the Bridge, but eluded them in the darkness. Either hard times or depending on such things being hushed up by friends has made men reckless of that which is harder to win than money.

OBSERVER.

A Clergyman's Mistake.

Another unusual case has just been concluded before the Superior Court at Springfield, Mass. It appears that Rev. Andre B. Dufresne was sued by one of his parishioners for breaking up his business by maliciously telling his flock that they must not patronize him, and forcing them to obey his commands by threats of excommunication, purgatory and other pains and penalties.

Judge John W. Bacon, before whom the case was tried, instructed the jury that, while a church may excommunicate a man, no ecclesiastical power could, under Massachusetts laws, pursue him afterward, or wantonly and unreasonably interfere with his business when it is not connected with the church from which he has been expelled. No ecclesiastical authority could interdict a man from pursuing his ordinary business, or prevent even members of the same denomination from which he has been expelled to deal with him. If the defendant only forbade the plaintiff's customers employing him to bring them to the church, and to take some part in the proceedings and offices of the church, then the plaintiff could not recover damages. There must have been malicious threats, and injury must have been done to the plaintiff's business to entitle him to recover. If any ecclesiastical authority in the United States undertake to interfere with an excommunicated man's business, it was an unlawful act.

The jury which included two Catholics, were out only an hour. During their absence the defence is said to have tried to settle the case. Damages awarded to plaintiff for $3,433. The case will be carried to the Supreme Court on exceptions taking during the trial.

No family in this broad land should undertake to keep house without Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, many have tried to but failed. It is worth more to a family than a whole medicine chest.

The most contemptible fraud that has been practiced upon farmers and others in the last few years is the selling of immense packs of worthless horse and cattle powders. There is only one kind now known in this country that are unadulterated and those are Sheridan's.
