Duncan, Aug. 21.—James Matland-Dougall, of Duncan, has been appointed chief constable, to be stationed at Hazelton. Three constables go to Hazelton under him, and their work will be to restore order among the Indians and safeguard the property of the settlers. A dinner was given to Mr. Maitland before his departure, by a number of his friends, and the prevailing feeling expressed by the speeches made was that the district was to be congratulated that one of its men should be chosen to fill such an important position and that from his previous experience as chief constable and his knowledge of the coast Indians, Mr. Maitland-Dougall would be quite equal to the situation. Mrs. Maitland-Dougall left Duncan on Wednesday morning to accompany her husband to the north.

A pleasant tea was given by Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Macneal at their home, Carradale, near Somenos, on Tuesday afternoon.

OLD HOSTELRY CLOSED.

Saracen's Head, London, Had Been in Existence for Over 400 Years.

The Saracen's Head hotel, Snow Hill, which celebrated its 400th birthday not long ago, has closed its doors forever, the proprietors giving as the reason for the closing the now fashionable and popular one of "increased taxation," according to a London dispatch.

The old hostelry had many claims on public interest and was a favorite resort of tourists. In the days of mail coaches it was of considerable importance, being one of the recognized stopping places. Coaches passed through the archway under the hotel and visitors stopping in the house were in the habit of gathering on the balconies surrounding the courtyard to watch the arrival and departure of passengers.

Lord Nelson, when he left his home as a youth to join the navy, broke his journey at the Saracen's Head and stopped the night in the historic building.

But it was Dickens who really immortalized the hotel. It was there that he had Squeers interview the students who were to be "accurately educated" at his school. It was there he met his pupils and took them down to Dotheboys Hall, with Nicholas Nickleby in attendance as teacher, already regretting that he had accepted the position.

The hotel will be torn down, to the despair of Dickens' lovers, who bewail the yearly destruction or public loss of places the novelist brought to the notice of England by weaving them into his stories.

BRITISH CHANCELLOR MAKES CONCESSIONS

Land Taxation Clauses of Budget Passed by Committee.

London, Aug. 23.—Having succeeded by means of an all-night sitting of the House of Commons Friday in passing through the committee clauses of the budget imposing a tax on land values, the government has given the members a week's release from their arduous labors, during which time less contentious measures will be considered.

The last of the land taxation clauses has been in committee, but their form in quite different from that originally introduced. The chancellor of the exchequer has made a number of very important concessions, chief among these being that in regard to the valuation of land. Under the bill, as introduced, the cost of the valuation was imposed upon the owners. This charge has been taken over by the state, however, which will be called upon to spend for this purpose $10,000,000. This is more than the tax will produce during the first year. The property of friendly societies, which own lands valued at upwards of $500,000,000, is also exempted under the new taxation. This is a concession to the labor unionists, who form a large majority of the shareholders of the societies.

Another amendment made to the bill came as a result of criticism by the Lord Chief Justice. It was originally proposed that the valuation placed upon property by commissioners appointed for that purpose should be final, but the Lord Chief Justice pointed out that this would be in direct contravention to the British constitution, which expressly gives the right of appeal in all cases. The government therefore amended the bill, allowing the right of appeal. Another much criticised provision of the bill, imposing a tax upon unmined minerals, was also withdrawn, and a tax of mining royalties and rents was substituted.

The government, however, maintained the principle of taxation on land values, and in the campaign throughout the country in which the cabinet ministers are taking part is attempting to justify its policy. The Unionists are just as busy in opposition to this policy.

Lewis Harcourt, first commissioner of works, in a speech Friday said that if the House of Lords, by refusing to pass the bill, plunged the country and the constitution into chaos, the cabinet could be depended upon to tender such advice to the sovereign as would best conduce with the immediate future predominance of the will of the electors. In some quarters this is taken as a threat to confer enough Liberal peerages to overcome the Unionist majority.

There are still many clauses of the budget to be dealt with upon which the opposition promises to continue its fight. These include the license duties, income tax and stamp customs.

"Life a Perfect Burden."

Untold Sufferings From Biliousness, Headaches and Indigestion.

CURED BY DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS

To produce such striking evidence, such satisfying proof as Mrs. E. D. Dupont gives in her letter, makes it self evident that in Dr. Hamilton's Pills every suffering man and woman is offered a real cure for all stomach ailments. From her home at Oak Point, Mrs. Dupont writes a vivid and touching account of her four years of torture with biliousness and indigestion.

"My trouble was first manifested with blinding headaches and feeling of dizziness and fullness in the head. such dreadful turns of giddiness came over me that at times I reeled and staggered. These attacks were accompanied with violent pains in the stomach and distension of the liver. Spots flitted before my eyes, and to think of eating made me miserable. I was unable to digest my food, lost weight and got sleepless. When so low spirited and despondent that I despaired of getting well, I read of how Mrs. Holton had been so wonderfully cured by Dr. Hailton's Pills, and got five boxes at once. To my delight the first box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills gave me relief. I began to eat, sleep and enjoy my meals. The stomach and liver pains passed away. I improved steadily and when five boxes of Dr. Hamilton's Pills were used I was a new woman, cured, happy, well and strong."

To regulate the system, to prevent and cure all disorders of the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys no remedy can boast of the number of successful cures accomplished by Dr. Hamilton's Pills; 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1. Beware of substitutes and imitations. By mail from the Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.
