DEPLETION OF THE BOERS!

Several Districts Are Now Clear of the Enemy.

Food Supplies Scarce—Increased Difficulty in Maintaining Them Causing Anxiety to the Commandants.

Pretoria, Nov. 30.—The depletion of the Boer forces continues at about the average rate. Several districts are practically clear. There has been much progress in the last fortnight, notably in the southeast of Orange River Colony, where nearly 200 of the Boers are accounted for. Commandant Ackermann alone lost about ninety men, and only stragglers remain in that district. The Boers' difficulty in maintaining their supplies of food and ammunition are increasing and causing anxiety to their leaders.

BOERS WORE KHAKI.

Somerset East, Nov. 30.—Forty-seven men of the district mounted troops attacked 30 rebels in the Zuurberg, after a 50 miles night march. The rebels retreated, leaving six dead and some wounded. The enemy lost nine horses killed and five captured. Some of the enemy wore khaki.

Pretoria, Nov. 30.—A further list of banished Boer leaders, 12 in number, is published. It includes Landrost Kelly, of Zoutpansberg.

SCOUTS OVERWHELMED.

Standerton, Nov. 30. — Walden's Scouts, while reconnoitering to the south of the Kling River, came across a herd of cattle, which they were proceeding to drive away, when they were attacked by two parties of Boers. They had to leave the cattle and a sharp fight ensued. A third party of Boers coming up, the men who formed the Scouts' rear guard were surrounded and overwhelmed, losing one killed, seven wounded and four prisoners. The prisoners were subsequently released. The enemy state that their loss was 8 killed and 17 wounded.
