IF YOU RECEIVE A SALARY

You know exactly how much is coming in each week, and how much you have to spend. But it is the height of folly to spend it all. It is an easy matter for you to arrange your expenses so as to leave something to put in the bank, and it is the only way to earn your independence. Surely you are not content to be "owned" by someone else all your life.

THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS

BEFORE TREATMENT

Peter E. Summers relates his experience: "I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indiscretion and excesses in youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, but received little benefit. I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through the nerves. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and continue to do so.

SEVEN KINGS AT FUNERAL

May 20 To Be a Day of Mourning Throughout the Empire.

ALEXANDRA'S PREMONITION

Queen-Mother Issues a Letter to World Giving Thanks for Sympathy Shown.

London, May 10. — The World, a society paper, claims to have the best of authority for stating that the queen mother, Alexandra, had a presentiment, which she was at Corfu, that her husband was on the verge of a dangerous illness. This presentiment was so strong that although she intended to stay another week she left at short notice for Calais. But for this premonition, she says, she would have hardly arrived in time to attend the final scenes at the deathbed.

In consequence of the continued circulation of rumors in regard to the health of the queen mother, an official statement was issued this evening, which states that she continues in good health, although she is naturally suffering great grief.

Day of General Mourning.

The Official Gazette publishes a proclamation appointing May 20, the day of King Edward's funeral, as a day of general mourning throughout the United Kingdom.

It is known now that seven kings besides George V. will attend the funeral of Edward VII. They are:

The Kaiser, Emperor William of Germany and King of Prussia.
Frederick VIII. of Denmark.
Haakon VII. of Norway.
Alfonso XIII. of Spain.
Albert of Belgium.
George I. of Greece.

Frederick of Denmark was King Edward's brother-in-law. The Kaiser is the late King's nephew, his mother having been a sister of his majesty. The King of Norway is a son of a brother of the queen mother, Alexandra. King Alfonso of Spain is married to a daughter of Princess Beatrice, sister to the late King. King George of Greece is a brother to Queen Alexandra. King Albert of Belgium is a nephew of the late Leopold II., who was an uncle of Victoria, King Edward's mother.

Other mourners will be the Queen of Norway, Archduke Ferdinand, representing the Emperor of Austria; Dowager Empress Marie Feodorovna Aosta, who will represent the King of Italy.

Earl Marshal's Order.

Following is the text of the earl marshal's order for general mourning:

"In pursuance of an order of his majesty in council, dated May 10, 1910, these are to give the public notice that it is expected all persons upon the present occasion of the death of his late majesty of blessed and glorious memory do put themselves into decent mourning, to begin, Thursday, the 12th day of this instant May."

King George has addressed the following to the army:

"My beloved father was always closely associated with the army by ties of strong personal attachment, and from the first day he entered the service he identified himself with everything conducive to its welfare. On my accession to the throne I take this earliest opportunity of expressing to all ranks my gratitude for their gallant and devoted services to him. Although I have always been interested in the army, recent years have afforded special opportunities of becoming more intimately acquainted with our forces, both at home and in India, as well as in other parts of the empire. I shall watch over your interests and efficiency with continuous and keen solicitude, and shall rely on that spirit of loyalty which has at all times animated and been the proud tradition of the British army.

"(George), R. I."

The Queen to the Nation.

The queen mother, Alexandra, has addressed the following letter to the nation:

"From the depths of my poor broken heart I wish to express to the whole nation and our own kind people as well my deep thanks for all their touching sympathy in my overwhelming sorrow and unspeakable anguish. Not alone have I lost everything in him, my beloved husband, but the nation, too, has suffered an irreparable loss by the death of their best friend, father and sovereign thus suddenly called away. May God give us all His divine help to bear this heaviest of crosses which He has seen fit to lay upon us. His will be done. Give me a thought in your prayers, which will comfort and sustain me in all I have to go through.

"Let me take this opportunity of expressing my heartfelt thanks for all the touching letters and tokens of sympathy I have received from all classes, high and low, rich and poor, which are so numerous that I fear it will be impossible for me ever to thank everybody individually.

"I confide my dear son into your care, who, I know, will follow in his dear father's footsteps, begging you to show him the same loyalty and devotion you showed his dear father. I know both my dear son and daughter-in-law will do their utmost to merit and keep it.

"(Signed) ALEXANDRA."

King George V. received Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador, this afternoon.

The King and the Navy.

The King addressed the following message to the navy:

"It is my earnest wish on succeeding to the throne to make known to the navy how deeply grateful I am for its faithful and distinguished services rendered to the late King, my beloved father, who ever showed the greatest solicitude for its welfare and efficiency. Educated and trained in that profession, which I love so dearly, my retirement from active duty has in no sense diminished my feelings of affection for it. For 33 years I had the honor of serving in the navy, and such intimate participation in its life and work enables me to know how thoroughly I can depend upon the spirit of loyalty and zealous devotion to duty of which the glorious history of our navy is the outcome. That you will ever continue to be, as in the past, the foremost defender of your country's honor, I know full well, and your fortunes will always be followed by me with deep feelings of pride and affectionate interest.

"(Signed) GEORGE, R. I."

Women

Cannot be Strong and Healthy Unless the Kidneys are Well.

Weak, lame or aching backs are the first sign of Kidney Trouble.

Under ordinary conditions they ought to be strong and ready to bear the burdens of life.

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back. Backaches come from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered that they get out of order.

Weak back is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you in the same way as they have cured thousands of others.

Miss Alberta B. Clarke, Stoney Creek, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with kidney trouble for several years; my back was weak, I had such terrible headaches, and was so restless I could not sleep at night and tried everything without any benefit. Meantime a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got four boxes and they completely cured me. I now feel as well as I ever did and would advise everyone suffering from Kidney Disease to try them."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"YORKSHIRE TOM" TOLD THE STORY OF HIS LIFE

Son of a Methodist Clergyman, He Is Now a Convert in the Salvation Army.

Three weeks ago "Tip" Lady, better known as Yorkshire Tom, staggered into the local Salvation Army Citadel, drunk. He was converted and last night he arose and told his life story. This is not by any means the first time that Yorkshire Tom has been converted, and has turned his back on the red, red wine, but he thinks that he has now found a lasting cure, and bears the light of his conviction in his eye.

Time and again he has professed conversion, signed the pledge and sworn to total abstinence, only to fall from grace and return to his old habits.

His career has been a checkered one, the drink demon gradually dragging him down in the mire, from a position of trust and responsibility.

His story told to the little gathering in the Salvation Army Citadel last night was an interesting one of a constant struggle against the debauching influence of the liquor, which had got control of him.

"I was born in the little village of Skelton," said Yorkshire Tom, "on the Yorkshire coast. My father was a primitive Methodist minister."

His early career embraced a multitude of occupations. At 13 he entered a wheelwright's shop. After 18 months here he ran away, and carried bricks and mortar for a time. After working in a factory for a short time, he entered a wholesale grocery to learn the business. Three years later he became a teamster, and he was not at all modest in informing his audience that he gained a reputation as being the most obliging teamster in Bradford, where he was then working.

A Commercial Traveller.

He gradually rose to a high position, finally drawing $1,500 a year as a commercial traveller. With prosperity came the beginning of his downfall. Not until 28 did he know the taste of liquor. Roisterings and debauches of all kinds became a daily routine with him. With short intervals he worked in the iron mines, in a flour mill and in a quarry.

"Eventually I came to Canada, about three years ago," said the Yorkshireman."

While in a Toronto saloon he was reclaimed by a Salvation Army lassie selling the War Cry. He devoted his attentions to the Salvation Army in Seaforth. Coming to London he fell into his old habits and was later converted.

Yorkshire Tom is now working for a market gardener in East London, and appears to have successfully broken away from drink.

He told his story fearlessly last night. He possesses the Yorkshireman's happy wit, and kept his audience in good humor. Speaking of his start at the teaming business, he said:"

"I was very green, and had never driven a horse but once, and that was a mule."

WOMAN SHOT DEAD

Waitress in a Montreal Saloon Instantly Killed.

Montreal, May 11.—Another fatal shooting affair occurred here last evening, when a waitress at Brisson's saloon, on St. Paul street, was shot dead. A man named Joseph Rondeau was in the office at the saloon with the proprietor, dickering to buy a revolver, from which the cartridges had been extracted. Later the proprietor put the bullets back in the revolver. Rondeau did not know this, and picked the weapon up again. He snapped the trigger just as the waitress, Bertha Seers, was passing, and the bullet struck her in the side, passing clean through her. She died a few minutes later, and Rondeau was arrested and held to give evidence at the inquest.
