Notice—Township of Delaware.

Notice is hereby given that a court will be held, pursuant to the Voters' List Act, by His Honor Edward Elliott, the judge of the County Court of Middlesex, at the town hall, Delaware village, on the twenty-fifth day of September, 1897, at 10 a.m., to hear and determine the several complaints of errors and omissions in the Voters' List of the Municipality of Delaware for 1897. All persons having business at the court are required to attend at the said time and place. Dated the fourteenth day of September, 1897. W. C. HARRIS, Clerk of the Said Municipality. b

FAGGED OUT.—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

The Enemy Massed in Great Numbers—A French Review—Ex-Empress Carlotta Dying—Sara Bernhardt Has a Narrow Escape.

CARLOTTA DYING.

London, Sept. 15.—Carlotta, ex-Empress of Mexico, is so dangerously ill at Brussels that her death at any moment is feared.

DIDN'T SEE THE CIRCASSIA.

Queenstown, Sept. 15.—The Cunard steamer Aurania, from New York, to Liverpool, signaled that despite a careful lookout, no signs of the overdue and disabled Circassia were seen.

SARA'S GOOD ADVERTISEMENT.

Paris, Sept. 15.—The Figaro says that Sara Bernhardt recently had a narrow escape from death at Belle Isle-en-Mer, Department of Morbihan, while endeavoring to reach the seashore via the cliffs. After descending a short distance, Mme Bernhardt was unable to advance or retreat. Her shrieks for help attracted the attention of a bather, who climbed up to her side and seized her just as the boulder to which she was clinging broke away, and thus she was saved from being crushed to death. The actress and her rescuer lost their footing and rolled down the cliff to the sea, where they were rescued by a passing boat. While Mme Bernhardt was only slightly bruised, her rescuer was seriously injured.

CABLE NOTES.

Harold Frederic, the London correspondent of the New York Times, in an article in the Daily Chronicle, describes the prospects of famine in the county of Cork, and testifies to the "universal alarm lest the famine of 1847 be repeated."

President Faure and the King of Siam reviewed the French northern army at St. Quentin, Department of the Aisne, yesterday.

London Truth says: A great honor is reserved for Sir Julian Pauncefote, which was not conferred on any of his diplomatic colleagues. According to the regulations he would retire in 1898, but Lord Salisbury has extended his term of office at Washington for twelve months.

Col. Gustav Pabst, son of the Milwaukee millionaire brewer, was married on Tuesday at Ventnor, Isle of Wight, to Miss Lemp, daughter of the millionaire brewer of St. Louis. The bride wore a Worth dress of white satin and Brussels lace, and a tulle veil. The bridegroom was previously married to Margaret Mather, the actress, from whom he was recently divorced.

A blue book has been issued giving the replies of the colonial governors to the dispatch of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain in 1895, sent with the view of ascertaining the extent of the displacement of British goods by foreign goods. The main conclusions arrived at are that the British manufacturer is still supreme in the best classes of goods, with the exception of machinery and tools of certain patterns, in supplying which the United States is most successful, although Canada is often a successful competitor in these lines.

THE FRONTIER WAR.

Large British Force Ready for Active Operations.

Simla, Sept. 15.—Gen. Yeatman-Biggs, advancing along the Samana ridge to the relief of Fort Gulistan, found the enemy entrenched in considerable force in the Gozra hills. The Third Goorkha Regiment stormed the position. One Sepoy was killed and five were wounded. Gen. Yeatman-Biggs was relieved Sangar, one of the posts on the Samana ridge, which had been hotly attacked. The garrison had made a sortie and captured a standard. A mounted messenger was sent on by Gen. Yeatman-Biggs to inform the garrison at Fort Gulistan that relief was coming. The commander also sent guns to the foot of the hills, near Fort Gulistan, which shelled the enemy, and to some extent diverted attention from the fort.

The enemy is visibly strong in force at Saraghari, and it is feared that, flushed with their success in the capture of that police post, they may attack Fort Gulistan so fiercely that the small garrison will be unable to hold out till Gen. Yeatman-Biggs arrives.

There are now 59,000 men and 90 guns, including maxims, mobilized on the frontier and in the garrisons. Everything is ready for the advance from Shabkadr. The men are in splendid condition. The lower Mohmands, on the border, are anxious to submit on any terms, but the main body is still determined to fight. It is reported that the Mullah of Hadda has failed to raise the gathering he expected, and will retire to Tirah.

The principal difficulty which the Mohmands punitive expedition has encountered thus far is in getting stores and transport animals to the front. The entire railway between Peshawar and Merut is practically blocked from lack of engines. Long lines of loaded trucks are waiting to be forwarded. All the available trains are being used to hurry the troops to the front. Sir Pertab Hingh, Maharajah of Patiala, has arrived at Peshawar.

Gangadhar Tilak, native member of the Legislative Council, and partner of Dshoo Madow Bal, publishing the newspaper Kesari, in Bombay, who was arrested with Bal on July 27 on the charge of inciting the natives to disaffection, was sentenced today to eighteen months' vigorus imprisonment. Bal, who was the printer of the paper, was discharged.

FATALLY SHOT IN HIS WOODEN LEG.

Bellefontaine, Sept. 15.—A shooting affray took place on a freight train on the Sandusky division of the Big Four between this city and Kenton. A brakeman attempted to put a colored man out of a box car, when he pulled a revolver and fired at the brakeman. There were several men in the car stealing a ride, among them Charley Cluck, a one-legged man from Dayton. He was standing back of the brakeman. The bullet took effect in his stump leg and, taking an upward range, lodged in the vital parts. Cluck was taken to Dayton, where it is thought he will die.

ORIENTAL HAPPENINGS.

Great Loss of Life and Property by Flood and Explosion.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 15.—The Northern Pacific steamer Tacoma arrived yesterday, bringing Oriental advices up to Aug. 27. By the recent floods in Nygata prefecture, over 100 houses have been destroyed and 56 lives lost in the Nishima district of the prefecture.

A tremendous explosion occurred at the camp close to the Chinese arsenal of Klangnan, near Shanghai. Forty bodies have been dug up out of the debris. Two fine Krupp field guns 1900, new pattern, single fire and magazine rifles, with 120,000 rifle cartridges, were destroyed.

The recent floods in Formosa were unprecedented in the history of that island. Subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers have been opened.

Amnesty has been granted to all the prisoners in Corea who were incarcerated upon civil charges and minor offenses.

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—Dispatches received at the Merchants' Exchange confirm the news of a terrific hurricane on the Japanese coast. The Norwegian bark Aletta, which sailed from Vancouver for Yokohama, was caught by the hurricane at Nithiska and wrecked. Some of the sailors were drowned. A part of the cargo may be saved. The hurricane struck heavily at Yokohama. The British ship Glenerich, bound for Oregon, and the British ship Lonsdale, for Victoria, were driven ashore. The vessels have been floated.

THE MINERS' TROUBLE.

Conflict Between Marshals and Strikers—Shots Exchanged.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 15.—A special from Oswego, on the Knoxville and Ohio Railroad, in the Jellico coal mining district, gives an account of an encounter last night between eight United States marshals and the striking miners.

Yesterday non-union miners were put to work and trouble came last night. A mob came marching toward the company's store. When they were ordered by the marshals to halt the miners answered with oaths. They were then ordered by the marshals to leave the property, which they refused to do. The marshals took refuge in a blacksmith shop and fired on the men. The miners retreated, but returned the fire with their Winchesters (?). None of the marshals are hurt, but as to the miners it was not known. The marshals, fearing serious trouble, have asked for assistance.

Hazleton, Penn., Sept. 15.—The work of collecting evidence for the inquest is already being prosecuted by the strikers' representatives and others, including the coroner.

A rather peculiar incident of the affair has come to light in the statement of Charles Kennedy and Mary McCarron, who say that the conductors of trolley cars passing the scene refused to take any of the dead and wounded to Hazelton unless fare was paid. The former is said to have paid 35 cents and the latter $1 to have them conveyed to town. Magistrate Gorman states that while no attempt will be made to serve the warrants on the deputies while the militia are here, evidence is being secured from every available source.

FIVE MEN LYNCHED.

Angry Hoosiers Hang a Quintet of Burglars Caught in the Act.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 15.—A special to the Evening Post says five men were lynched last night at Osgood, Ind.

They were caught in the act of burglary and strung up by a crowd of angry citizens.

Many burglaries in the neighborhood had stirred the people to a frenzy and the determination to make an example was carried out, the dispatch says.

Versailles, Ind., Sept. 15.—The mob on horseback entered the town an hour after midnight and called out Jailer Nan, who upon refusing to give up the keys, was overpowered. The mob soon pushed its way into the cell rooms, and in their impatience first fired on the first prisoners, and then dragged them to a tree a square from the jail door, and hung them up. Two of the prisoners were dead from the shots fired by the mob when taken out of the jail. None of the lynchers are known.

NOT MRS. LUETGERT.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—The woman who was found wandering around near Melrose Park yesterday, and who, it was claimed by Luetgert's lawyers, was Mrs. Luetgert, was last night identified as Mrs. Caroline Johnson, of this city.

SUICIDED AT THE AGE OF 81.

Sturgis, Mich., Sept. 15.—Charles G. Merchant, a veteran, 81 years old, committed suicide at his boarding house. Continued ill-health was the cause. Mr. Merchant went about it methodically. He sat down in a chair, placed a wash-bowl on another chair, then leaned over the bowl so the blood could run into it, and blew his brains out.

Worth $10 a Bottle.

Any person who has used Nerviline, the great pain cure, would not be without it if it cost $10 a bottle. A good thing is worth its weight in gold, and Nerviline is the best remedy for all kinds of pain. It cures neuralgia in five minutes; toothache in one minute, lame back at one application; headache in a few minutes, and all pains just as rapidly.

The Premier in St. John.

Great Crowds Welcome Sir Wilfrid in New Brunswick.

His Ambition Is to Greatly Increase Canada's Commerce Over Her Own Lines.

St. John, N. B., Sept. 14.—The city is in holiday attire in honor of a visit of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Mr. Tarte, and Hon. Mr. Fielding. The trip of the premier through this province yesterday was one of enthusiasm along the whole line. At McAdam Junction he was met by Dr. Ellis and Col. Tucker, M.P. A great crowd had gathered from St. Stephen and St. Andrew's. At Fredericton Junction, the exhibition directors greeted Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and Capt. Chipman's and Capt. Hart's companies were drawn up in line and presented arms to the premier. At Fairville, a couple of miles from St. John, the school children gathered around the car and cheered. Sir Wilfrid came to the front and cordially greeted them. When the car rolled into St. John thousands of people were present. The streets were lined with people, and bunting was displayed profusely. As soon as the premier made his appearance cheer after cheer rent the air. On the railroad platform were the mayor and common council, and a number of distinguished citizens to bid Sir Wilfrid Laurier welcome. While the vast crowd of men women and children kept continually cheering, the premier bowed right and left. The band played the national anthem, and Mayor Robertson stepped to the front and read an address. His worship congratulated Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his efforts to promote trade with the mother country, and called his attention to the Maritime Province ports as an outlet for Canadian products. "We welcome you," said his worship, "not only as Premier of Canada, but also on account of that spirit of conciliation which you have infused into sectional councils, and for the urbanity which you have invariably shown to all with whom you have been brought in contact both in private and in public life. We deside also that you would bear with you on your return our warm remembrances to Lady Laurier, for whom our people have the highest respect."

"Our Own Canadian Home" was played, after which the premier replied by thanking the citizens for the honor bestowed upon him. The cheers showed that the unification of the country is ever steadily advancing. At the close of his speech the premier was again heartily cheered.

After dinner the premier proceeded to the exhibition grounds, where a guard of honor was drawn up. A salute was also fired by the artillery. The premier and party were escorted to the grand stand, where President W. C. Pitfield delivered an address. He paid the following tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier:

"The honor I appreciate to its fullest extent is that I have the privilege, as chief executive officer of this association, to introduce to my fellow-citizens Canada's gifted, eloquent and loyal son. In his own words, he comes not on political lines, but as the premier of us all. After his tour of the past summer to the great motherland, his royal reception in the greatest empire the world has ever seen; after his recent honors from her most gracious majesty the Queen; after his tour through the land of his ancestors; after receiving honors and hospitality in Paris the magnificent; after his tour under the azure-hued skies of Italy, his reception by the holy father, his holiness the Pope, at the head of a great Christian church; after all the pomp, the grandeur and magnificence he has seen, he returns to us with memorable words, worthy of a place in history and worthy of acceptation and emulation by the Canadian people—he says he 'loves Canada best of all.'"

Premier Laurier, on rising to reply, was loudly cheered. He spoke briefly. Referring to the reception accorded him, and the great assembly before him, he said that if there was no prize in the exhibition for beauty there should be, as he saw many beautiful women. He did not come to speak on politics, but he regretted that the population of New Brunswick did not increase. Continuing, he said it was his ambition to see all the trade of Canada for Europe transported through Canadian ports, and as much of the United States trade as possible. It could easily be done, as we had the shorter routes. (This declaration was loudly cheered.) He spoke of his trip to the old country, but he loved Canada best of all, and it was the greatest country, richest in mineral wealth, having the best climate, and an energetic people. The premier declared the International Exhibition open. Cheers were given for the premier, Hon. Mr. Tarte, Hon. Mr. Fielding, and Lady Laurier.

The levee held by Premier Laurier in the exhibition building last evening was attended by thousands of people. It was in every respect successful. Hon. Mr. Fielding, Sir Louis Davies and Mr. Tarte were also in attendance.

100 Per Cent Better.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are curing heart and nerve troubles in every city, town and village in Canada. Mrs. F. Abbey, Toronto, says: "Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cured my husband, who had for fifteen years suffered with weak nerves caused by heart trouble. He was subject to pains in his head, dizziness, fainting spells, sleeplessness, etc. He is now free from these troubles, and feels 100 per cent better than when he began using the pills."

Directors' Meeting.

Proceedings at the Western Fair Board Meeting.

More Light for the Stage in Front of the Grand Stand.

The directors met this morning, with Allan Bogue (chairman), Capt. A. W. Porte, Col. Lewis, W. R. Hobbs, W. Yates, George Taylor, W. M. Spencer, Ald. Bennet, Wm. Moore, John Laidlaw, Ald. Nutkins, A. M. Smart, D. McKenzie, W. J. Reid and Secretary Browne in attendance.

The reception of the Hon. George W. Ross and the Hon. John Dryden was discussed. Mr. W. M. Spencer's duties prevented him from acting on the committee, and Mr. W. R. Hobbs was appointed in his place. Mr. Allan Bogue was also appointed to act instead of Mr. W. J. Reid, who will likewise be too busy. Hon. M. Ross was expected to arrive at 11 a.m., and Hon. Mr. Dryden at 5:50 p.m.

R. Farrell, of Woodstock, wrote stating that some of his horses had received injuries, and requesting that his entrance fee be refunded. Filed.

Wm. Gray & Sons, of Chatham, carriage makers, asked that an award be given their exhibit.

Mr. Smart said that some time ago the exhibitors in the carriage department requested that no awards be given there, and Messrs. Gray & Sons will be written to that effect.

The lighting of the platform in front of the grand stand is to be improved.

A protest against the decision of the judges was received from John Campbell, an exhibitor in the sheep department. Mr. Campbell gave as his reasons that a very slight examination had been made, and that the prize had been awarded to an inferior animal.

Mr. John Laidlaw said that in his opinion the judge did his duty very fairly.

The secretary said the responsibility of appointing the judges rested with the Dominion Sheep Breeders' Association.

Messrs. Trebilcock, Kennedy, Laidlaw and Moore were appointed to report upon the protest.

Mr. Bogue was called away before the close of the meeting and ex-President Capt. Porte was asked to take his old position for the time, which he did much to the pleasure of the members.

Capt. Porte expressed his deep interest in the proceedings of the board.

A committee of directors were at the station to welcome the Hon. G. W. Ross on his arrival.
