Detroit, Aug. 21. — Mr. Herman Shaefer, late of the team of Hughie Jennings, and appearing in Washington togs at Bennett Park for the first time since he allied himself with the forces of Joe Cantillon, struggled gloriously to beat his old team mates yesterday, but his efforts fell just a little short of accomplishing this purpose.

A Presentation.

And this after the ex-leader of the Champions had been accorded a huge ovation and had been enriched by the sum of $100 in yellow currency, the gift of "your old friends," so it read. It was very unbecoming of Herman, to say the least.

Had it not been for Dolly Gray's bad breaks in the eighth inning Herman might have succeeded in trimming the Tigers. As it was, Detroit won and the score was 3 and 1.

TOM JONES TRADED TO TIGERS FOR CLAUDE ROSSMAN—PLAYS TODAY

CLAUDE ROSSMAN.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Detroit, Aug. 21.—Reconstruction of the Detroit infield seems to be completed by the deal which was put through yesterday, by which Claude Rossman, first baseman for Detroit for three seasons, goes to St. Louis in exchange for Tom Jones, who has held down the same bag for the Browns for several years. It was announced as an even trade. Some of the St. Louis fans and newspapers have been after Jones for some time, and he was glad to get away, while his club, realizing that he could not do his best work there, was willing to make a deal that would give an experienced first baser who can hit.

Ever since early in the season, when various American League clubs who had been trying to beat Detroit for two seasons without ever learning that Rossman was a faulty thrower, began, as a result of Ira Thomas' tip, to run wild on him, the club has been planning a change. It has two young first basemen purchased, but wanted a man immediately, and naturally preferred an experienced one. The chance to get Jones came up and he was taken.

Each man has something on the other. Rossman is far and away a better hitter, and fully as good a receiver of thrown balls. Jones is a better all-round fielder, however, a skillful base-runner, and as good a sacrifice hitter as there is in the American League. He can throw as well as anyone. He is a right-hand batter, and thus fits in well on the local club. He will report for duty today, while Rossman left last night for St. Louis. This will give Jones a chance to break in with the club before the clashes with Athletics and Boston.

This is probably the last change to be made this season, barring such as are forced by accidents. The infield is now an almost entirely 1909 arrangement, Bush alone being here last season, and then only for the last month.

PETE. ALLEN A WINNER AT LONG BRANCH RANGES

Londoner Captures Many Prizes at Big Shoot Tournament—The Scores.

Long Branch Rifle Ranges, Aug. 20.—The fourth and last day of the Ontario Rifle Association shoot began with a fine morning, being cloudy and cool. A stiff breeze from the northeast made it rather trying on the marksmen, however. The shooting throughout the meet has been poor, not coming anywhere up to last year's scores. This is attributed entirely to the continuous winds which played. The attendance, however, has proven more of a success than in former years.

Following are the scores in the Tait-Brassey match:

First, Pte. F. Bibby, 77th, 100.

Second, Lieut. G. Mortimore, G. A., 99.

Third, Pte. B. Armstrong, 13th Regiment, 98.

Fourth, Capt. C. R. Brown, 30th, 98.

ELLEN SELECTED

To Compete Against the German Craft in Sonder Races.

Marblehead, Mass., Aug. 19.—According to the signals from the race committee's tug, it was learned unofficially that the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis, Jun., of the Boston Yacht Club, was selected this forenoon as one of the American team of three boats to compete against the German craft in the international Sonder races. The Ellen did not start in today's races, but was towed back in the harbor.

A GREAT GAME.

Wardsville, Aug. 20. — The fastest game of ball ever played in Wardsville was contested on Wednesday afternoon between Wardsville and Tait's Corners. Wardsville won 3 to 2. The pitchers did remarkable work, not a safe hit being made off either Wilson of MacIntyre, all the runs being due to errors. Batteries: Wardsville, Wilson and Heath; Tait's Corners, MacIntyre and Fennell. The return game will be played on Wednesday next at Tait's Corners, and will no doubt be hotly contested.

BATTING AND FIELDING RECORDS OF THE EAST END LEAGUE

Vice-President Alderman Moorhead, the Scorer, Compiles Averages —Luney, of the Ramblers, Wins Mayor's Watch, and Geo. Cochrane Gets Alderman Ferguson's Locket for Greatest Number of Runs.

Appended are the batting and fielding averages of the East End League for the season of 1909, prepared by Vice-President Ald. Moorhead.

The record includes the work in the field of the players, no matter whether they have played in one or more positions. This applies mostly to the pitchers.

Harry Luney, of the Ramblers, wins Mayor Stevely's gold watch for the highest batting average, with 464.

Cochrane, of the same team, takes Ald. Ferguson's locket for having the largest number of runs, 13, to his cred it.

Geo. Pirie, of the Cubs, wins Mr. T. Maker's cash prize for having made the most bases on hits, having 4 three-base and 2 two-base hits, or a total of 25 for 13 games.

Mr. Lui Paladino's prize for the best fielding averages will not be decided upon until that gentleman has been seen in regard to it.
