KAZOO RACE MEETING HAS RECORD FIELDS

Big-Line Horses Will Perform There This Week.

TRACK IN A1 CONDITION

Entry List Exceedingly Large One, With All the Fast Boys Signed Up.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

What looks to be one of the best race meetings ever held in this country will take place on the fast Kalamazoo track this week, starting on Monday. It is the fourth week of the grand circuit, and with the improvement which has marked the campaign, Kalamazoo should hang up a few new track records, and perhaps some which are the best of all times.

The entry to the Kalamazoo meeting is a big one, containing all of the horses which raced at the other towns, and a few additions to lend flavor to the sport. Secretary Engleman has had men and teams at work on his track, and reports from there are to the effect that it never has been as good as it is this year.

There are several features of the Kalamazoo meeting this year. Not the least of these is the Horseman futurity, which is to be raced in three divisions on Tuesday. It will be the first time this year that the colt trotters and pacers have gone for the big money, and there is a great deal of interest in all divisions. While fifteen are eligible to the three-year-old trot, which is for $10,000, the field probably will be made up of Albella Watts, Lady Wanetka, Lee Axworthy, Lucille Spier, Ortolan Axworthy, Peter Volo and W. J. Leyburn, although one or two of the others may take a shy at it.

The Paper Mills purse of $10,000 on Wednesday again brings together the M. and M. trotters, and a few additions. On Monday the 2:24 trotters' race for $2,000, and on Thursday there will be a big pace for the Chamber of Commerce horses. The free-for-alls are left for Friday, the trot to be a handicap, and the pace to introduce William into this society. It is a well-balanced card.

Manager—"You've been drinking.
Player—"Not much. I took a nip of English ale and a glass of German Pilsner—and they got to fighting."

DETROIT, Aug. 9.—Wretched fielding by Detroit in the seventh inning allowed the visitors to take the third game of the series today, 8 to 6. Cobb's steal of second and third, and Burns's home run drive over the left field wall, were noteworthy. Score:

Oh, you old jimmy pipe!

"Lead me to it" say millions of men since they've found out that Prince Albert tobacco can't bite the tongue and can't parch the throat.

"Lead me to it" you'll say just as quick as you invest in a tidy red tin and find out first-hand just why P. A. has become the largest selling pipe and cigarette tobacco in the United States.

PRINCE ALBERT

the inter-national joy smoke

brought thousands and thousands of old jimmy pipes out of the garrets. It has revolutionized pipe smoking! Today three men smoke a pipe where one smoked before.

That's because Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out the "grouch" and just lets in the sunshine! Never in your life have you hit such flavor and fragrance and freshness!

Play P. A. in a jimmy pipe or roll up the corkingest makin's cigarette you ever put fire to. It's all one and the same thing—just good for what ails your smokappetite! And it rolls up so dead easy. Being mighty fresh, it just stays put and doesn't blow away or run away like the dust-brands.

And, you know, today's the day!

Prince Albert is the largest seller in the United States. It is now being imported into Canada by wholesale dealers and is sold by all of the leading retail dealers. In one-eighth-lb. red tins.

With the Trotters and Pacers

The Kalamazoo Grand Circuit meeting opens today.

The colts will race for $15,000.

Walter Cox was going to purchase Lassie McGregor last fall, but when he saw the condition of her legs he passed her up, and instead he bought King Couchman for $2,250—some cheap horse.

They did some real racing during the Grand Circuit meet at the Rapids.

William, that wonderful pacer, will race in the free-for-all at Kalamazoo. He will stack up against such good horses as Frank Bogash Jr., Earl Jr., and a few more of the very best.

The 2:08 trotters, an uncertain lot of veterans, will mix it up at Kalamazoo today. Oakdale won at Cleveland, Grand Marshall at Detroit, and Omar at Grand Rapids. Next!

Tuesday is Futurity day at Kalamazoo and the three divisions of the Horseman stake, worth $15,000, will be raced during the afternoon. The main event, which is for three-year-old trotters, will be raced on the three-heat plan, which Mr. Campau thinks is the best kind of racing.

The Paper Mills purse of $10,000 is carded for Wednesday at Kalamazoo, and Lassie McGregor, King Clansman, Peter Scott, Margaret Druien and the lesser lights will be on the job.

King Couchman is a peculiar faded-out color, and the book gives him as a brown. They were figuring it out in the press stand at Grand Rapids when James Clarke, of the Horse World, put this one over the plate: "I'll tell you what it is, boys; he's a circassian walnut." And the shade is just about right.

Snow thinks he would have won with Thistle Patch if he had not got pinched at the head of the stretch in one of the heats, which forced him to take back and come around King Couchman.

Short shippers are at Findlay this week, and then they come into Michigan via Jackson. Entries to the Jackson meeting close on Tuesday, and, as no fee is charged to start, there ought to be plenty of horses to make fun.

PALMERSTON WON OUT

PHILLIES LOST TO PIRATES

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 8.—Both McQuillan and Mayer weakened after pitching wonderful ball for six innings today, and Pittsburg won, 4 to 3. In the first five innings both teams were retired in order, the only man to reach first base being Becker, who singled in the first, and was caught trying to steal second. In the seventh, Pittsburg scored four runs on two errors by Luderus, and one by Mayer, two passes, two singles and a steal by Carey. This proved enough to offset rallies by the home team.
