Curling Chips.

The Hamilton Thistles and Oshawa will contest for the Governor-General's prize on Victoria ice to-morrow, starting at noon.

The semi-final for the Mowat Cups was played in the Mutual-street Rink last night, John Watson defeating A. D. McIntosh by 11 to 9. The winner plays off ice final with R. Rennie this week.

Lord Aberdeen will head a coterie of curlers in a match at the Victoria Rink to-night, their opponents to be selected from city curlers. A delegation from the Local Legislature, including Sir Oliver Mowat, Hon. J. M. Gibson, W. H. Biggar, President of the Ontario Curling Association, R. Ferguson and A. Miscampbell will welcome His Excellency.

The following is a list of the phrases used in curling that every brither must thoroughly understand before he can consider himself a master of the art: Patild, long guard, inwick, over the hog, see thae over, side stone guard, gie um cow, wick and curl in, soop um oot, raise yere sin, blin' the port, lift the guard, outwick, break an egg, in the parish, cats' teeth, even ice, guard the winner, brooms up, a side stone, rub the guard, build on, draw the port, a sparrow's egg, hide the pearle, over the hog, even, firm, on that, lift the swa, owre a' ice, chap and lie, the shot!

What a great thing it is that a pan of cake or biscuit properly mixed and baked will always come out just right. That's the case when baking is done with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

The Dakotah Won.

Cannes, March 4.—The first event in to-day's program, the race for the James Gordon Bennett and Ogden Goelet Challenge Cup, was postponed on account of the failure of some of the yachts which were expected to start to come to the line. Only two starters, the Britannia and Corsair, were ready The race for this trophy will probably be sailed after the arrival of the new yacht Ailsa, which is expected to-morrow night. The Dakotah easily won the race for the second Bennett-Goelet cup. The Winslow Cup was won by Delanagh. The weather was clear and there was a strong westerly breeze.

The Argonauts for Henley.

Capt. A. D. Crooks yesterday mailed the entry of the Argonauts four-oared crew to the Henley Royal Regatta committee. Messrs. E. A Thompson, F. H. Thompson, G. H. Muntz and R. G. Muntz are the well-known members of this champion crew. Although individually crack canoeist and single scullers, they will strive only to win in the senior fours and will start work as soon as the ice leaves the bay. The annual meeting of the Argonauts has been postponed from March 8 to March 22.

Headaches, Dizzy

Spells and faintness have been my afflictions for 12 years. Often I would fall in a sudden faint and several times narrowly escaped being burnt on the stove. No medicine gave me more than a few days relief, and I laughed when a friend urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. But I took it and in six months I was free from all headache trouble, faintness or dizziness. I am now perfectly well. I cannot say too much in praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is worth its weight in gold to me. Mrs. R. H. HANES, Paris, Ont.

The Veterans' President's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Jesse Butler, President of the Army and Navy Veterans, took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 102 Barton-avenue, and was followed by a large number of friends to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The Army and Navy Veterans, under Sergeant Griggs, paid their respects to the deceased by attending the services at the grave, but owing to the coldness of the weather the band was unable to assist in the services. The chief mourners were his brother Isaac, his two nephews and two sons-in-law. The casket was draped in the old Union Jack, and resting on top was a sash, the emblem of his order, which he so often wore. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Stewart, who now has charge of the Walmer-road Baptist Church. The pallbearers were: Lieutenant Rudge, William Symons, both of the Royal Navy; Sergeant Thomas Tyler of the 30th Regiment, Sergeant James Freeman, Rifle Brigade; Sergeant William Hall, Royal Artillery, and Sergeant Robert Leith. Ald. Bell, Ald. Bates, Lieutenant King of the Indian Navy and Sergeant A. W. Smith were also at the services.

Della Fox.

The star of the "Little Trooper" needs no introduction, although this is her first appearance here with her own company. As the principal support of De Wolf Hopper in "Wang" and "Panjandrum," she is an old favorite. Della Fox made her first appearance in this opera at the Casino, New York, in September, since which time it has proved one of the most successful attractions of the season.

The music of the opera is particularly pleasing, and has caught the popular taste. With a strong supporting company, with all the original costumes and scenery, a highly enjoyable entertainment may be looked forward to. The sale of seats begins this morning.

Toronto Opera House.

The Toronto Opera House was crowded last night, when Mr. Charles L. Davis began a week's farewell engagement, presenting his old-time drama, Alvin Joslin. Mr. Davis has appeared in this play seventeen consecutive seasons, and if one may judge by last night's audience it is as popular as ever. There are four acts in the piece, with the action taking place in New York city, among the scenes presented being the Grand Central Depot, Baxter-street, the Bowery, Brooklyn Bridge and a Concert Hall. Mr. Davis plays in his usual happy way, and is inimitable in his portrayal of a rustic's visit to the great city. The cast is a strong one, and in their hands "Alvin Joslin" is sure to draw well all week.

Westminster Choir Concert

There are still some good seats to be had at Nordheimers', and there is a great demand for general admission tickets. Durward Lely will sing four Scotch songs and Adelaida, by Beethoven. This will be the first opportunity in a year of hearing Lely.

THE DEPARTMENTAL STORES

ANIMATED DISCUSSION IN COUNCIL LAST EVENING.

Retail Grocers Will Interview Sir Oliver Mowat for Amendment of Assessment Law—Sympathizers Among the Aldermen—Special Meeting of Council Will Discuss the Subject on Friday.

In council last night, on motion of Ald. Davies, it was resolved that a deputation be heard on the question of departmental stores.

Mr. C. A. Morrell emphasized the injury which mammoth places of business are doing to hundreds of small shopkeepers.

Mr. James Stewart said that the council could enact legislation which would be fair to the smaller shopkeepers. These were being gradually squeezed out of business and city revenues thereby suffered.

Ald. Jolliffe said that he had procured a report of the assessment of the Eaton Company. They were only assessed at a small amount, whilst they had a stock of $750,000. The gallery applauded the alderman when he characterized this as a "crying shame."

Ald. Davies said that, as the retail grocers had arranged for an interview with Sir Oliver Mowat, he would like an expression of opinion by the council. He hoped a petition would be presented to the Legislature signed by members of the council.

Ald. Hubbard concurred and also gave figures showing the small amount of taxes paid on personalty, compared with the immense stock in trade they possessed.

Ald. Allen also spoke in similar strain.

A motion for an amendment of the assessment law, to be approved of by the City Solicitor, was proposed by Ald. Davies.

Ald. Hallam deprecated the passing of any resolution on the subject at midnight, when many aldermen had left.

Ald. Scott said it was a very large question, and he hoped it would be postponed for further discussion. If the departmental stores had not been properly assessed, it was the fault of the city officials.

Ald. Shaw thought a meeting of the Executive should be held.

Ald. Bell and Leslie moved that a special meeting of the council be held on Friday afternoon for a full discussion of the question.

This was carried amid cheers from the gallery.

Expert cooks use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, because it insures their success in cooking. Physicians recommend it because it adds to the wholesomeness of food.

In the East End.

Princess Mary of Orange Lodge of the Lady Orange Association held their annual concert last night in Dingman's Hall. There was an excellent attendance, the room being comfortably filled. Mr. W. W. Hodgson presided, and among others present were: Captain Vennell and Mr. L. G. Cross. The program was a lengthy one, consisting of vocal and instrumental music with recitations, and the performers acquitted themselves admirably.

At First-avenue school room there was a large gathering of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Society, the occasion being the reading of selections of prose and poetry by various members. Rev. P. Clifton Parker and Mr. Langley were both present and gave the readers some excellent advice on the art of reading. Mr. Langley speaks with care and thoughtfulness and people of all shades of opinion wish he would give them an opportunity to hear him oftener.

The Y.W.C. of St. Matthew's Church met in the parish room last evening. As usual there was a good attendance. This society is accomplishing a useful work among the young women of the East End.

Household Linens.

Notwithstanding the stormy weather of yesterday a number of ladies visited the rooms of Dickson & Townsend to view the consignment of Irish linens and Manchester quilts, towels, sheetings, table napkins, doylies, etc., etc., which are advertised to be sold on Wednesday afternoon. A finer assortment of this class of goods has not been offered for public competition in this city, and those who require a supply of really first-class goods should certainly attend the sale, as every article will be sold positively without reserve. The sale commences at 2.30 p.m., and goods are on view to-day.

Young Liberals.

At the meeting of Young Liberals yesterday evening Mr. H. G. Hargrave brought forward the revolutionary motion, "That private property in land is unjust, and should be abolished." After a long debate, taken part in by Messrs. McLaughlin, Ogilby, Faulds, Hocking and Atkinson, the resolution was carried without dissent.

A motion of Mr. H. N. Gross condemning departmental stores was laid over until March 11.

Vice-President S. E. Bruce occupied the chair.

Young Conservatives.

The Young Conservatives yesterday evening debated the resolution of E. Dumas, placing upon record their adherence to the National Policy. Dr. Wilson presided and the speakers were: A. E. Hern, East, W. H. Scott, J. Van Lomer, James Boddy and R. F. J. Hassard.

The debate was adjourned.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

"I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs, and I did what is often done in such cases, neglected it. The medicines he gave me did not seem to do any good, and I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. THE BON MARCHE

FOR THE DOCTORS.

The Patrons Want to Amend the Ontario Medical Act.

The first direct work of the Patrons in the Local Legislature will be to amend the Medical Act. Leader Haycock yesterday gave notice of a bill with this object in view. The details of the bill have not yet been arranged; but it will be on the lines of the resolution adopted by the party last year, taking away from the Medical Council the power to annul the certificate of any physician regularly authorized by the faculty of any recognized college to practice medicine, and giving the courts power to investigate all charges of fraud and wrong-doing.

The session of the House yesterday lasted but five minutes, the only business being the receipt of a few unimportant petitions.

The debate on the budget will be continued to-day by Mr. Howland. Hon. Mr. Gibson will follow him on the Government side. He will be supported by Messrs. Awrey, Wood and Davies, whilst for the Opposition Messrs. St. John, Meacham, Willoughby and Whitney.

The Speaker will entertain the members at dinner to-night.

Mr. Ferguson will ask if it is the intention of the Government, as promised last session, to make provision during the present session for the settlement of the claims of certain townships to rebates on their indebtedness under the Government Drainage Act, owing to defective or faulty construction of the original drains?

Mr. Ferguson will also ask if any action has been taken since last session to secure a settlement of the disputed jurisdiction between the Dominion and the province as to ditches or drains crossing or running along railway lines; also as to the powers of this Legislature to make provision for the protection of the public at railway crossings?

Local Jottings.

Anna Eva Fay, the famous London spiritualist, opens a three-night engagement at the Academy of Music to-night. Final appearance in Canada.

H. W. Barlow, convicted for assaulting a young girl, received 12 lashes at the Central yesterday. Eight years ago he received two doses of the cat for a similar offence.

Seventy-five cases were on the Police Court docket yesterday.

Thomas Williams, 103 Jarvis-street, was given 30 days for stealing a gold ring from Mrs. Eliza Broadstock, his paramour, while she was in a fit.

Edward Stephens, charged with robbing T. W. Hawley, was remanded until to-day for further evidence. On a charge of theft he was convicted.

Rebecca Pearson, an alleged shoplifter, will be tried to-day on charges preferred by T. Eaton & Co.

Richard Lewis and T. J. Allen, Minnie Lewis, Isabel Oliver and Julia Stewart were remanded until Wednesday. The charge is stealing furs from store doors and of receiving.

The executors of the late P. Higgins' estate sold the stock of boots and shoes in detail at Suckling's auction rooms last Thursday, Messrs. S. M. Clapp & Co. buying the bulk of the goods. Mr. Higgins carried a fine grade of goods. Some big bargains can be had all this week at 232 Yonge. The stock will be sold at 50 per cent. discount off Higgins' price.

He Did Not Drink Enough to Hurt Him, and Could Stop When He Liked.

Go out looking for a liquor-drinking man who will not claim the above and it will be a long hunt. The one who is just acquiring the habit and the moderate drinker have the fullest confidence in themselves and will not entertain the thought of such a thing as their ever becoming inebriates, and with the kindest sympathy they deplore the lot of the poor fellow who cannot control his appetite; still the latter was once as moderate a drinker as they, while he that is subject to the utmost depravity of drink will tenaciously cling to the old, old story that he, too, can brace up and eternally leave it alone, and will refer to times when for days, weeks or months he has gone without tasting liquor. Finally to stumble again and land a little further down the ladder of his physical, financial and moral standing. Why? Because the habit had become a disease. He fought the craving until the resisting power was exhausted, and right here is where the double chloride of gold treatment as given at Lakehurst Sanitarium, Oakville, imparts its protecting influence. It absolutely eradicates every particle of the diseased craving; you do not want it; no desire for it, and will not have it, because the senses of taste and smell and the healthy tissues of the body unite in rebellion against it.
