Topics of Today.

January thaws come altogether too often.

* * * *

Premier Laurier was entertained to dinner by Quebec Garrison Club last night.

* * * *

The Quebec Legislature was prorogued today. A general election campaign will begin at once.

* * * *

Senator Cox has consented to preside at the coming great Methodist missionary conference in Toronto.

* * * *

Winnipeg Conservative correspondents profess to believe that Hon. Jos. Martin will be the Liberal candidate in the coming bye-election. If he is, he will be elected. Mr. Martin would have carried Winnipeg at the general election but for the corrupt influences used to secure the triumph of his opponent. Whether Mr. Martin is or is not the candidate, however, our advices are that the Liberal nominee will carry the city.

* * * *

After all the denials made, it turns out that Barney Barnato, the Kaffir King, has really invested heavily in Canadian mining property, knowing a good thing when he sees it. The South African millionaire has acquired absolute possession of over 100 prospects in the Lake of the Woods, Rainy River and Seine River districts, most of them lying in the last-named section of the country.

* * * *

The Cultivateur, Hon. Mr. Tarte's paper, referring to the situation in Quebec Province, says:

"The school question, important though it may seem, is thrown back in the public mind since the publication of the collective letter of the five prelates of the Archdiocese of Quebec placing L'Electeur under the ban. All sincere and enlightened Catholics, we will even say all good citizens, no matter to what creed they may belong, will deplore the crisis towards which we are rapidly advancing. We advise calmness, moderation, and temperate language. These are the most powerful arms of right. Mr. Laurier has given in his Windsor Hotel speech the watchword for the party of which he is the leader. The events which follow each other so rapidly in this century of electricity will not long delay in bringing to him and to his policy a startling justification."

The counsel given here will doubtless be taken by the supporters of Premier Laurier. Civil liberty must be maintained at all hazards.

THE MEDICINE FOR LIVER AND KIDNEY COMPLAINT.—Mr. Victor Auger, Ottawa, writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending to the general public Parmelee's Pills as a cure for Liver and Kidney complaint. I have doctored for the last three years with leading physicians, and have taken many medicines that were recommended to me without relief, but after taking eight of Parmelee's Pills I was quite relieved, and now I feel as free from the disease as before I was troubled."

Senor Sarasate has been offered the munificent sum of £6,000 for the splendid Stradivarius which he uses for concert playing. The Belgian violinist has, however, directed his agent to reply that the instrument is not for sale.

SAM JONES says that hell is within half a mile of Boston, and all of Boston's suburbs within that radius are holding indignation meetings.

SOLD AT A LOSS.

In order to convince the public that Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills are far superior to any liver pill ever placed on the market, the manufacturer has for the past six months sold them at 10 cents for a vial of 40 doses; or at a clear loss of 50 per cent of their cost price. The truly wonderful merit of Dr. Agnew's Pills is now recognized in three-fourths of Canadian homes, and from this time on the retail price for a vial of 40 doses will be 20 cents, or 5 cents a vial less than is charged for other brands of liver pills. They are the smallest, cheapest, best. t

Conditions on Which the Insurgents Would Be Pacified.

The London Times Correspondent Hears That Maceo Is Alive.

New York, Jan. 8.—A special to the World from Washington says: "Gen. Maximo Gomez, commander-in-chief of the Cuban army, has sent through an intermediary to Senor Sagasta, the Liberal leader in Spain, the conditions on which the Cuban insurgents are ready to treat with Spain for peace. These conditions are: 1. The recall of Gen. Weyler. 2. Restriction of the present almost autocratic power of the Governor-General. 3. Election of all ministers and municipal officers on the island by the people. 4. A new postal system. 5. A new system of internal taxation. 6. An increase in the Cuban representation in the Spanish Cortes. 7. An embodiment of these concessions in the form of a treaty with the United States Government as a guarantee that they will be carried out after the insurgents lay down down their arms.

The London Times publishes a dispatch from its Havana corespondent, dated Jan. 6, who says he learns from a private and trustworthy source that Antonio Maceo, who was reported to have been killed at Punta Brava through treachery, is still alive, and is making favorable progress. The correspondent adds that he himself thinks it unlikely that Maceo is alive, but says that it is not impossible.

He also says that the return of Captain-General Weyler to Havana without forcing the rebels in Pinar del Rio to surrender may be regarded as proof of his failure.

It is officially reported that Gomez, with a large force of rebels, is in the Province of Santa Clara, advancing westward. Insurgents completely destroyed the town of Bainoa, Province of Havana, on Jan. 4.

Rescue of a Starving Sailor at Sea in a Yawl.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 8.—As the United States revenue cutter Boutwell was approaching the mouth of St. John's River late last night, the look-out discovered a cat-rigged yawl flying a flag of distress. One of the Boutwell's boats, sent to investigate, found a sailor in the bottom of the yawl unconscious. He was wasted to a skeleton, and his mouth was on his naked forearm, as though he had tried to drink his own blood.

He proved to be Capt. Charles Herman, of Providence, R. I., who left that place Nov. 1, accompanied by Charles Gladding, in the yawl Cocheco for a cruise along the coast of Florida.

When they left Charlestown on Dec. 26 they were blown out to sea. Their provisions and water were soon exhausted. Last Friday, Herman thinks it was, the lighthouse on Anastia Island was sighted. By this time Gladding was crazy, and put off for shore on a boat attached to the Cocheco, and undoubtedly was lost.

Herman remembers nothing else, and must have become unconscious shortly after Gladding left. The Cocheco then drifted up the coast with the unconscious master, until discovered by the Boutwell.

Herman weighed 180 pounds when he left Providence. He now weighs only 110, and is so weak he can hardly raise his hand.
