LOCAL NEWS

Rev. H. Girling addressed a large gathering in Trinity school room yesterday on his experiences in the Arctic. The lecture was illustrated by lantern slides.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mont Jones will be glad to learn that their little daughter, Margaret, who was operated upon at the General Public Hospital last Friday for appendicitis, is doing as well as could be expected.

An enquiry has been received in this city as to the whereabouts of Harry Stonehouse, or Mitchell, son of the late Emma Stonehouse, or Mitchell, who came to New Brunswick some years ago with his mother. Stonehouse is believed to be in the engineering or electrical trade. He formerly lived at Birkenhead, England, where a brother, John, is anxious to locate him.

SAYS BACK BAY CENTRE OF RED ACTIVITIES

(Special to Times.)

Boston, Dec. 30—Secretary of State Langtry in Lynn on Sunday evening declared that the central spot of Bolshevist activities in Boston was the Back Bay section and that the chief exponents of the propaganda were college professors and students.

In classing all such breeders of unrest as traitors to their country he said that they had associated with them the teachers in the government schools, men in the army and navy and workers in the mills and stores.

"We have too many traitors of that kind in the United States and are facing a very acute situation," said he. "If I had my way about traitors I would take them out in the yard and shoot them and the next day would have a trial to see whether or not they were guilty."

RECENT WEDDINGS

At Ottawa on Christmas Day, Miss Millicent Burtt, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Titus Carter, 68 Echo drive, was united in marriage to Lieutenant-Commander J. S. Davis of Norfolk, Va. Rev. Mr. Holmes of Holy Trinity church, performed the ceremony. At the wedding luncheon Hon. F. B. Carvell proposed the toast to the bride's health.

THE FAITH JESUS TAUGHT

Elder Jensen Says:

"Faith is Sufficient," is a phrase often upon the lips of modern theologians. The statement is only a half truth. "Faith is sufficient" if you have sufficient faith.

How much faith is necessary to save a soul today? As much as was needed nineteen hundred years ago. One-tenth of the faith Jesus taught will not do today what ten-tenths of that faith did in the days of God's power.

In Hebrews, eleven, Paul cites Abraham as a type of a faithful man. As descriptive of Abraham's faith, Paul says that the "Father of the faithful accounted," that God was able to raise "Isaac even from the dead." If our faith is less than Abraham's, will it save us? If we stagger at the thought of God healing the sick and raising the dead today, can we truthfully say we believe in the litteral resurrection of the body?

It takes more faith to lift a soul up to the right hand of God than it does to heal a bodily infirmity. The Apostles were accused of being a "faithless and perverse generation" because they failed to restore reason to the lunatic (Math. 17:17). What would Jesus say of the present generation?

Elder Nephi Jensen

I am deeply thankful that I represent a church which inculcates and exemplifies the faith that "makes men more than conquerors." In the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, the "signs follow the believers (Mark 16), the sick are healed, the blind made to see, and the lame to walk.

Elder Jensen speaks in Queen Square Theatre Sunday, January 4, three p.m. Seats free.
