Line Was Busy.

A young lady telephone operator, recently, attended a watchnight service and fell asleep during the sermon. At the close the preacher said: "We will now sing number 341—341."

The young lady awakened just in time to hear the number yawned and said, "The line is busy."

There's plenty of room at the top—but more company below with the crowd.

APPRECIATION OF PRESIDENT COAKER'S WORK

Dear Mr. Coaker:

My pen fails to express the honor due you for the noble work you have accomplished in so short a time. None but a sincere worker for right, justice and truth could accomplish so much in so few years. When I say the noble work you have accomplished my heart is throbbing to think that the great giver of all good have called one from amongst our ranks to be a defender of right, liberty, justice and truth which is found in you, W. F. Coaker. Although you have not heard much from my pen, my heart has been uplifted to God that your great undertaking might be a success which I believe it surely will. My prayer is still that God will give you health and strength and will-power to fight to a finish. God is our great Commander and you our leader, and we as a body of Unionists will not fear our oppressors with so high and great a commander and so able a leader.

The fishery is very poor here this season, lots of people will be hungry the coming winter unless there is a lot of labor in some way. You may not think it but nevertheless it is true.

Yours sincerely,

E. H. GIBBONS.

TWO YEARS OF WAR

Two weary years have passed away,
Two years of sunshine and pain,
And hundreds of Newfoundlanders
Have been numbered with the slain;
But still the Old Flag is flying
On land and on the sea,
But the war it still is raging,
None knows when the end will be.

CHORUS:

Though there's homes that's filled with grief
There's no heart filled with fear.
We yet shall gain the victory,
Be the end for off or near.
For Briton nere will give in.
Only one end can be:
The downfall of William, the Kaiser,
And the crushing of Germany.

Two years ago brave Belgians
Tried hard their homes to save,
But by thousands they were outnumbered.
They still proved true and brave,
And in the East gallant Russia
The Germans have held at bay,
Although Warsaw has fallen,
They are coming back to-day.

So here's to our soldiers and sailors,
Our brave lads who do and dare,
Here's to the French and Belgians,
Here's to the Russian Bear.
And may the God of battles
Protect our brave heroes' lives,
For the sake of those left behind them,
Mothers, sweethearts, children and wives.
