SETS THE DISEASE TO FIGHTING ITSELF

Son of Senator Ross Secures Remarkable Results With a Vaccine Treatment.

Toronto, June 4.—Is a new era in the treatment of disease, especially tuberculosis, being entered upon by the greater use of vaccine? Dr. G. W. Ross, who read a paper before the Ontario Medical Association yesterday morning on "The Present Status of Vaccine Therapy," is confident that there is, and backed up his contention with a dozen cases of cures made by the use of vaccine, when the patients had been declared incurable by doctors using other methods of treatment.

The disease upon which Dr. Ross specializes is local tuberculosis, or tuberculosis of the glands, joints, bones, etc. Such disorders, however, as boils, acne, barbers' itch, erysipelas, and nearly all forms of skin disease, yield to the use of the vaccine. It has no effect, however, upon pulmonary tuberculosis, or consumption.

Set Disease to Fight Itself.

The theory, as explained by Dr. Ross, seems to be to set a disease fighting itself. An emulsion, or serum, is made from the dead germs of the particular disease to be treated, and this serum is injected into the arm of the patient. No discomfort or bad after results are said to follow, as in the case of ordinary vaccination for smallpox. This serum produces opsonins, which act upon the germs that cause the disease in such a manner as to make them more easily taken up by the white corpuscles whose duty it is to expel them from the system.

This method is not entirely new to the medical profession. It was first advanced by Sir Almoth Wright, of London, England, five years ago. Dr. Ross, who is a son of Senator Ross, went to England, and studied under Sir Almoth, becoming a prize pupil. He returned to Canada two years ago, and has been working to induce a wider use of the method since then. He has a laboratory at the General Hospital, where serums for the cure of different diseases are made. He is enthusiastic over the system, declaring that he has treated over 600 cases in the past two years, nearly all of which were abandoned by other doctors, and the majority of which have been completely cured.

Cured Barber's Itch.

As a proof of his statements Dr. Ross presented before the association a number of cases. One man had suffered from "barber's itch" in so bad a form that the whole lower part of his face was completely covered. He was treated in the London Hospital for three years, and discharged as incurable. He was so disfigured that he could secure no employment. After 18 months' treatment with vaccine there is scarcely a sign of the disease.

Another case was that of a woman whose foot was so badly affected with tuberculosis, that the hospital surgeons were preparing to amputate. She is now apparently perfectly cured.

"I PREFER MOSES TO THE HIGHER CRITICS"

Rev. A. K. Birks Elected President of London Conference.

REV. IS SECRETARY

Number of Young Men Will Be Sent to College—Important Reports Presented.

Rev. A. K. Birks, pastor of the Askin Street Church, was yesterday elected to the presidency of the London Conference on the first ballot. There were 261 votes cast, of which Rev. Mr. Birks received 131.

Rev. Reuben Millyard, of Victoria Street, Goderich, was second, with 33 votes, and R. D. Hamilton, of Listowell, third, with 27.

"It is my unique privilege," said ex-President Ford, "to welcome two new presidents to the chair, and as I hand over the symbols of office I know that you will exercise them firmly, but gently."

Rev. A. K. Birks, in his address of thanks, showed no inclination to compromise.

Straight to the Point.

After thanking the conference for the honor they had done him, Mr. Birks continued:

'I may be somewhat old-fashioned. I believe in the old Bible—the whole book from Genesis to Revelations. I don't cut out any eleven chapters, or any words anywhere. I prefer the authority of Moses to the statement of the best higher critic that ever lived. And when these men have accomplished as much good as the old Book, it will be time for them to set themselves up as authorities. There is nothing like the old gospel to save humanity. I don't intend to transfer my allegiance from the old doctrines that have prospered the Methodist Church to follow the standards of any man who happens to come into the country."

New Secretary Elected.

There were 257 votes cast in the election for secretary, 129 being necessary to elect. Rev. W. H. Graham, of Victoria Avenue Church, Chatham, received the overwhelming majority of 206 votes.

Rev. Jos. Elford, of Lebanon, was re-elected statistical secretary, and Rev. R. A. Miller, of Corinth, as journal secretary. Rev. R. H. Barnby, of Belmont, and Rev. J. E. J. Millyard, of Birr, were chosen assistant secretaries.

Year's Work.

Rev. Principal Warner, of Alma College, St. Thomas, reported on the year's work. He besought the co-operation of the conference to make possible even greater things.

Resolution of appreciation of Principal Warner's work was moved by Rev. Alfred Brown, of St. Thomas, and Rev. F. Salton, of Stratford. This was heartily passed.

Rev. George N. Hazen was appointed the representative of the London Conference on the Alma College board.

It was moved by D. N. McCamus, of St. Marys, and seconded by Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, of Clinton, "that the ministers of the London Conference, having heard the very satisfactory report of Albert College, offers congratulations to the principal, Rev. W. P. Dyer, D.D., and his effiecient staff."

"We cordially approve the purposes of the college and commend it with confidence to our people."

Young Men For College.

The following young men were recommended to be sent to college: E. J.
