EQUALS TRACK RECORD IN THE ROYAL HANDICAP

J. J. Lillis Beat Bringhurst and Pan Zareta at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 15.—Demonstrating that at the present time he is one of the best handicap horses in training over either the six furongs or mile route, J. J. Lillis, the Marrone stable's five-year-old Bannockburn gelding, won the Royal Handicap at three-quarters of a mile at the Fair Grounds today, and in so doing he equaled the track record of 1.12. This marked his third victory of the meeting to date, and the second track record he has touched, as he recently lowered the mile mark to 1.37 4-5. Today he defeated such crack sprinters as Bringhurst and Pan Zareta, which finished in the order named behind him, and he came from behind to turn the trick. Bringhurst set a fast pace, running the quarter in .23 1-5, and the half mile in .46 3-5, but he weakened toward the end. Pan Zareta was conceding too much weight.

NECK AND NECK FINISHES IN FAST TROT ON THE ICE

Indian Hill and The Judge Have Two Heats Each—Pace a Gift for Day Spring.

MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—(Staff Special.)—The ice racing at Delormier Park on the third day was a little more exciting than on the two previous days.

Again three races were carded, a local 2.35 class trot with five entries, 2.17 class pace with five starters, and the 2.14 trot with six scoring for the word. In the nine races in three days favorites have won all but two races, and the favorites in the 2.14 trot has a good chance for the race on Monday. In the local trot today Lina Peters, b.m., by Peter the Great, owned by Dan Donnelly of Montreal, was made almost a prohibitive favorite, she selling in the auctions for $20 and the balance of the field for $8. She won in straight heats in 2.24½, 2.24½ and 2.28¼.

The 2.17 pace was a gift for Day Spring, br.h., by Moko, owned by W. J. Parks of Belleville, and driven by Nat Ray, one of Canada's most successful reinsmen. He won in straight heats, and at no time was he extended at all. The first heat was won in 2.16¼, with Dick Bison, b.g., by The Bison, second each time. A few tickets were sold on Day Spring in the auctions but it was impossible to fill the field end. Later he was barred in the betting and Daisy C. was made the favorite, but the best she could do was get fourth money after losing a shoe in the first heat. The last two miles were in 2.19¼ and 2.18¼, with Day Spring always in front.

The 2.14 trot was the most exciting contest since the opening of the meeting, two horses having two heats each when darkness prevented the finishing of the race. Indian Hill, b.g., by Bingen, a full brother to the Great Uhlan (156), owned by Z. Corbeau, Montreal, was made a red hot favorite, selling in the auctions for $40 and the field for $18 and $20. He won the first heat in 2.22¼, with The Judge br.g., by Spotwood, from Malone, N.Y., a bang-up second. The second heat was a neck-and-neck finish between the Judge and Indian Hill, the former getting the verdict in 2.20½. In the third heat the Judge threw a shoe at the ¼ pole and was pulled up, Indian Hill winning the heat, with Lucy Van second. Time—2.24½. The fourth heat was called before sunset. The Judge won it after a very hard drive all thru the stretch with Magneto, A. B. Martin's Hoppeed trotter from Tweedsmuir finishing second and Indian Hill third. Time—2.21½. This race was carried over till Monday when it will be the first race called.

T. & D. Information

Soccer players in general and the Ulster Club in particular will be pleased to hear that Alec Bullock, who was wounded and captured by the Germans, has been exchanged, and is now in a hospital at Millbank, England. In a letter to a friend in this city he tells how he was wounded at Ypres and lay on the battle field for three days before being picked up. He is still hors de combat, but hopes after another operation to be able to get around again.

Clubs who are desirous of entering teams in the T. & D. F.A. are reminded that entries and fees are now due and should be forwarded to the secretary or treasurer as soon as possible. Nominations for directors and officers are next in order, and amendments to the rule should be sent in as soon as possible. Clubs who have not yet sent in their lists of members who have enlisted are requested to do so as soon as possible.

After the match the home club took the visitors to dinner at the Queen's Hotel, and many old acquaintances were renewed. Newmarket has now, like so many places of late, a most flourishing club, and is to be congratulated on the latter's victory.

English Soccer Gossip

LONDON, Jan. 15.—C. G. Webb, the well-known Brighton and Hove and Irish international soccer player, has been gazetted a second lieutenant to the 18th King's Royal Rifles. He is the second English professional footballer to obtain a commission.

The disastrous effects of the war on English soccer clubs has again been shown in the balance sheet of Manchester United, which has just been issued. The loss incurred last season amounted to $18,661, which compares with a profit of $9,687 for the year before. Gate receipts was the principal cause of the loss, showing a falling off of $36,580.

The temptations of good money for playing soccer in Scotland has proved too much for many of the English players, and a large number are crossing the border to sign on for Scottish League clubs. The latest transfers are James Hay of Newcastle United, who has been captured by Ayr United, John King of Newcastle United to Third Lanark, who have also got McLean, the Sheffield Wednesday crack. Phillips of Sunderland goes to St. Mirren, and James Marshall of Bradford City will turn out at centre forward for Partick Thistle.

The footballers' battalion, which is composed of soccer players recruited from the English league clubs, and 22 now on active service in Northern France recently turned out the following strong team of well-known players, who shared the points with a team of the 8th Royal Sussex Regiment: Summers (Grimsby Town), Gibson (Notts Forest), and Bullock (Huddersfield Town), J. Smith (Chesterfield), Hanney (Manchester City), and Baker (Plymouth Argyle), Sheldon (Liverpool), Bailey (Reading), Pike (Newcastle United), Barber (Aston Villa), and Goodwin (Exeter City).
