C. Allison Peck, of Hillsboro, made a business trip to St. John on Monday, returning on Wednesday. The woodworking factory at Hillsboro, owned by Mr. Peck and Mr. Duffy, furnishes considerable stock for building operations in St. John.

The Albert train on the down trip yesterday killed a fine heifer near Turtle Creek. The forward trucks went over the animal.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Stiles returned to Hillsboro today after spending a week with friends at Albert.

Harry Collins, of Albert, returned yesterday from a few weeks' visit to St. John.

Hopewell Hill, Oct. 17—Unfavorable weather interfered somewhat with the attendance at the Albert county Teachers' Institute, which was held at Elgin last Thursday and Friday. The following programme was carried out: Address by the president, A. W. Seaman; lesson on plasticine, by Miss G. McIntyre; address on school gardens, by R. P. Steeves, M.A.; paper on literature, by B. M. Berry; paper on writing by Miss K. L. Mills; music in public schools, by Mr. Edmunds; history, how it should be taught, by A. S. McFarlane, M.A. A public meeting was held on Thursday evening, and addressed by Councillor Geo. M. Killam and R. A. Smith. The following officers were elected: President, Principal Edmunds, of Hillsboro; vice-president, Miss A. M. Patterson; secretary, Miss Alice Thistle. The Institute will meet at Riverside next year.

J. T. Turnbull, of Riverside, left this week on a six weeks' visit to Bermuda.

Miss Nellie Rogers, student at Mount Allison University, came today to spend the Thanksgiving holidays at her home here. She is accompanied by her friend, Miss Mallory, of Carleton county.

BAYFIELD

Bayfield, Oct. 17—Trueman Spence is lying very ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Spence.

Prescott Spence, who had his leg badly broken by a kick from a young horse sometime ago, is not improving very rapidly.

A reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Rennick Peacock, was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Trenholm Allen on Tuesday Oct. 7.

A supper was given at the hall at Oulton's Corner last Friday, Oct. 10. A goodly sum was realized, which is to go towards defraying the expenses of remodelling the Presbyterian church at that place.

This place was visited by a heavy rain and wind storm, which lasted from Monday till Friday, Oct. 17. The problem that confronts the farmers just now is, how are they to get their grain and potatoes, and their ploughing done for next season's crop.

The storm did not prevent the voters from attending the councillors' election last Tuesday. The Liberal candidates, Wilbur Allen and T. Gould, were the winners.

ST. GEORGE

St. George, Oct. 16—The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hill was the scene of a very plesant event on Wednesday afternoon when the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Vesta Mae, to Mr. Freemont Groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Groom, of Bocabec took place. The service was conducted by Rev. J. Spencer, rector of St. Mark's at 4 o'clock. The bride looked exceedingly handsome in a simple gown of embroidered mull with veil arranged in a cap and was unattended. After congratulations, the guests to the number of fifty, sat down to tables and were served with refreshments by a number of young ladies costumed in white. Many handsome gifts were received.

Mrs. W. F. Johnson has returned from attending the U. B. W. M. A. convention in St. Stephen.

Mrs. Douglas Stewart (nee Miss Jean Kelman) is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kelman.

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, N. B., Oct. 15—Mr. Alexander G. Burr, who arrived here last week, to be manager of the Dalhousie branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, was for a number of years accountant of the Bank of New Brunswick, Halifax, and recently was manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Hansport and Aylesford.

Mr. J. W. Macdonald, of Stellarton (N. S.), who first opened the Nova Scotia bank in Dalhousie about ten months ago, and who has been transferred, leaves here under very favorable conditions. Not only does he leave his successor, Mr. Burr, a growing business; but socially he made many friends during his short stay here. Proof of this was given last week by the generous action of his friends. On Friday his young gentlemen friends presented him with a very handsome pipe and cute tobacco jar.

On Saturday evening a committee representing the business men of the town met Mr. Macdonald in the rooms of the Dalhousie Social Club, and Hon. C. H. LaBillois, on behalf of about twenty citizens, presented an address which was accompanied by a complete traveling toilet case.

On Friday evening last a most enjoyable surprise party was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Barberie in honor of Mr. J. W. Macdonald. Among those present were Mi
